ASSURANCES, AFFIRMATIONS, AND DECLARATIONS

Citizens of the World Charter School Hollywood (also referred to herein as “CWC Hollywood” and “Charter School”) shall:

- Be nonsectarian in its programs, admission policies, employment practices, and all other operations. (California Education Code (hereinafter “Ed. Code”) § 47605(d)(1).)

- Not charge tuition. (Ed. Code § 47605(d)(1).)

- Not discriminate against any pupil on the basis of disability, gender, gender identity, gender expression, nationality, race or ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, or any other characteristic that is contained in the definition of hate crimes set forth in section 422.55 of the Penal Code. (Ed. Code § 47605(d)(1); Ed. Code § 220.)

- Except as provided in Education Code section 47605(d)(2), admission to a charter school shall not be determined according to the place of residence of the pupil, or of his or her parent or legal guardian, within this state, except that an existing public school converting partially or entirely to a charter school under this part shall adopt and maintain a policy giving admission preference to pupils who reside within the former attendance area of that school. (Ed. Code § 47605(d)(1).)

- Admit all pupils who wish to attend Charter School. (Ed. Code § 47605(d)(2)(A).)

- Except for existing pupils of Charter School, determine attendance by a public random drawing if the number of pupils who wish to attend Charter School exceeds Charter School’s capacity. Preference shall be extended to pupils currently attending Charter School and pupils who reside in the Los Angeles Unified School District (also referred to herein as “LAUSD” and “District”). (Ed. Code § 47605(d)(2)(B).)

- If a pupil is expelled or leaves Charter School without graduating or completing the school year for any reason, Charter School shall notify the superintendent of the school district of the pupil’s last known address within 30 days, and shall, upon request, provide that school district with a copy of the cumulative record of the pupil, including a transcript of grades or report card, and health information. (Ed. Code § 47605(d)(3).)

- Meet all statewide standards and conduct the pupil assessments required pursuant to Education Code sections 60605 and 60851 and any other statewide standards authorized in statute or pupil assessments applicable to pupils in non-charter public schools. (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(1).)

- Consult, on a regular basis, with Charter School’s parents, legal guardians, and teachers regarding the school’s educational programs. (Ed. Code § 47605(c)(2).)

Charter School hereby declares that Charter School, operated as or by its nonprofit public benefit corporation, is and shall be the exclusive public school employer of Charter School’s employees for the purposes of the Educational Employment Relations Act (EEERA), Chapter 10.7 (commencing with Section 3540) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code. Charter School shall comply with all provisions of the EEERA and shall act independently from LAUSD for collective bargaining purposes. In accordance with the EEERA, employees may join and be represented by an organization of their choice for collective bargaining purposes.
NOTE: This Charter contains specific “District Required Language” (DRL), including the Assurances, Affirmations, and Declarations section above. The DRL should be highlighted in gray within each Charter element or section. The final section of the Charter provides a consolidated addendum of the DRL. This intentional redundancy facilitates efficient charter petition review while ensuring ready access to the DRL for any given section of the Charter. To the extent that any inconsistency may exist between any provision contained within the body of the Charter and the DRL contained in the addendum, the provisions of the DRL addendum shall control.
ELEMENT 1: THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

“The educational program of the charter school, designed, among other things, to identify those whom the charter school is attempting to educate, what it means to be an “educated person” in the 21st century, and how learning best occurs. The goals identified in that program shall include the objective of enabling pupils to become self-motivated, competent, and lifelong learners.” (Ed. Code § 47605(b)(5)(A)(i).)

“The annual goals for the charter school for all pupils and for each subgroup of pupils identified pursuant to Section 52052, to be achieved in the state priorities, as described in subdivision (d) of Section 52060, that apply for the grade levels served, or the nature of the program operated, by the charter school, and specific annual actions to achieve those goals. A charter petition may identify additional school priorities, the goals for the school priorities, and the specific annual actions to achieve those goals.” (Ed. Code § 47605(b)(5)(A)(ii).)

“If the proposed charter school will serve high school pupils, a description of the manner in which the charter school will inform parents about the transferability of courses to other public high schools and the eligibility of courses to meet college entrance requirements. Courses offered by the charter school that are accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges may be considered transferable and courses approved by the University of California or the California State University as creditable under the “A” to “G” admissions criteria may be considered to meet college entrance requirements.” (Ed. Code § 47605(b)(5)(A)(iii).)

LOCAL CONTROL FUNDING FORMULA (LCFF) AND LOCAL CONTROL AND ACCOUNTABILITY PLAN (LCAP)

Charter School acknowledges and agrees that it must comply with all applicable laws and regulations related to AB 97 (2013) (Local Control Funding Formula), as they may be amended from time to time, which include the requirement that Charter School shall annually submit a Local Control and Accountability Plan (LCAP)/annual update to the Los Angeles County Superintendent of Schools and the Charter Schools Division (CSD) on or before July 1. In accordance with Education Code sections 47604.33 and 47606.5, Charter School shall annually update its goals and annual actions to achieve those goals identified in the charter pursuant to Education Code section 47605(b)(5)(A)(ii), using the Local Control and Accountability Plan template adopted by the State Board of Education, as it may be changed from time to time, Charter School shall comply with all requirements of Education Code section 47606.5, including but not limited to the requirement that Charter School “shall consult with teachers, principals, administrators, other school personnel, parents, and pupils in developing the local control and accountability plan and annual update to the local control and accountability plan.” (Ed. Code § 47606.5(e).)

ACADEMIC CALENDAR AND SCHEDULES

MATHEMATICS PLACEMENT

Charter School shall comply with all applicable requirements of the California Mathematics Placement Act of 2015.
Transitional Kindergarten

Charter School shall comply with all applicable requirements regarding transitional kindergarten. For purposes of admission to Charter School, transitional kindergarten shall be considered a part of kindergarten, and therefore students enrolled in transitional kindergarten at Charter School shall be considered existing students of Charter School for purposes of Charter School’s admissions, enrollment, and lottery.

High School Exit Examination

Charter School shall comply with all applicable requirements of Education Code sections 60850 – 60859, including but not limited to the requirements of sections 60851.6 and 60852.3.

English Learners

Charter School shall identify potential English Learners in a timely manner in accordance with all applicable legal requirements. Charter School must provide all English Learners with an effective English language acquisition program that also affords meaningful and equitable access to Charter School’s core academic curriculum. Instructional plans for English Learners must be (1) based on sound educational theory; (2) adequately supported with trained teachers and appropriate materials and resources; and (3) periodically evaluated to make sure the program is successful and modified when the program is not successful.

On an annual basis, upon request, Charter School shall submit a certification to the LAUSD Charter Schools Division (CSD) that certifies that Charter School has adopted and is implementing either the LAUSD English Learner Master Plan or Charter School’s own English Learner (EL) Master Plan. If Charter School chooses to implement its own EL Master Plan, the plan shall provide a detailed description of Charter School’s EL program, and shall address the following:

- How Charter School’s EL Master Plan provides all of its English Learners, including but not limited to Long Term English Learners (LTELs) with an effective English language acquisition program as well as meaningful and equitable access to Charter School’s core academic curriculum
- How English Learners’ specific needs will be identified

Charter School shall administer the CELDT/ELPAC annually in accordance with federal and state requirements.
Charter School shall reclassify English Learners in accordance with federal and state requirements.

Charter School shall provide parent outreach services and meaningfully inform parents with limited English proficiency of important information regarding Charter School matters to the same extent as other parents.

Students with Disabilities

Federal Law Compliance

Charter School shall adhere to all provisions of federal law related to students with disabilities including, but not limited to, section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act of 2004.

Special Education Program

Charter School shall ensure that no student otherwise eligible to enroll in Charter School shall be denied, directly or indirectly, admission due to a disability or to Charter School’s inability to provide necessary services. Charter School acknowledges that policies and procedures are in place to ensure the recruitment, enrollment, service, and retention of students with disabilities at LAUSD-authorized charter schools, including Charter School.

Prior to LAUSD Board of Education approval of an initial Charter petition, and if a renewing Charter School intends to operate as a “school of the district” for special education services, Charter School shall execute a Memorandum of Understanding (“MOU”) by and between LAUSD and Charter School regarding the provision and funding of special education services consistent with applicable state law and the LAUSD Special Education Local Plan Area ("SELPA") Local Plan for Special Education and shall be considered a “public school of the District” for purposes of Special Education pursuant to Education Code Section 47641(b). However, Charter School reserves the right to make written verifiable assurances that it may become an independent local educational agency (LEA) and join a SELPA pursuant to Education Code Section 47641 (a) either on its own or with a grouping of charter school LEAs as a consortium following the requirements of Education Code section 56195.3(b).

SELPA Reorganization

The Los Angeles Unified School District is approved to operate as a single-District SELPA under the provisions of Education Code section 56195.1(a). As a single-District SELPA, the District has created two charter school sections [District-operated Programs and Charter-operated Programs] under the administration of one single Administrative Unit pursuant to a reorganization plan approved by the Board of Education on January 4, 2011 (149/10-11). Full implementation of the reorganized LAUSD SELPA commenced in the 2013-2014 school year requiring all District-authorized charter schools to elect one of the three options available under the LAUSD SELPA. Prior to an option election, all District-authorized charter schools were required to participate as a school of the District under the District-Operated Programs Unit. Prior to the beginning of the 2013-2014 school year, all District-authorized charter schools, other than those that had previously executed an Option 3 Memorandum of Understanding ("MOU"), were required to execute a new MOU setting forth the LAUSD SELPA option election for the remainder of the charter petition term. The Charter-operated Program schools do not have LEA status for the purposes of special education but will function in a similar role in that each charter school will be responsible for all special education requirements, including but not limited to services, placement, due process, related services, special education classes, and special education supports. Charter schools that have elected to participate in a District-operated programs option may apply for membership in the Charter-operated Program section of the SELPA. Charter schools accepted for participation in the Charter-operated Programs section receive support from a Special Education Director for the Charter-operated Programs.

Modified Consent Decree Requirements
All charter schools approved by the LAUSD Board of Education are bound by and must adhere to the terms, conditions and requirements of the Chanda Smith Modified Consent Decree ("MCD") and other court orders imposed upon the District pertaining to special education. The MCD is a consent decree entered in a federal court class action lawsuit initially brought on behalf of students with disabilities in LAUSD. It is an agreement of the parties approved by the federal court and monitored by a court-appointed independent monitor. The MCD includes nineteen statistically measureable outcomes and facilities obligations that the District has to achieve to disengage from the MCD and federal court oversight. All charter schools are required to use the District’s Special Education Policies and Procedures Manual and Welligent, the District-wide web-based software system used for online Individualized Education Programs ("IEPs") and tracking of related services provided to students during the course of their education.

As part of fulfilling the District’s obligations under the MCD, student level data requests from District-operated and Charter-operated charter schools are made on a regular basis. The requested data must be submitted in the Office of the Independent Monitor’s ("OIM") required format in accordance with the OIM’s required timelines and as follows:

- End of Year Suspension

  District ID, SSIS ID, last name, first name, date of birth, gender, grade, date of suspension, number of days suspended, and reason for suspension.

- Statewide Assessment Data

  The standard file including District ID.

- Norm Day

  District ID, SSIS ID, last name, first name, date of birth, gender, grade, location code, school name and local district for all students enrolled on norm day.

- CBEDS

- All Students enrolled as of December 1 of each school year

  District ID, SSIS ID, last name, first name, date of birth, gender, grade, location code, school name and local district for all students enrolled on norm day.

- Dropout

  District ID, SSIS ID, last name, first name, middle name, date of birth, grade, last location, school name and local district

- Monthly SESAC and Suspension data

- Graduation roster from all charter schools with 12th grade students with disabilities
The MCD requires charter schools to implement the District’s integrated student information system, which is currently referred to as My Integrated Student Information System (MiSiS). MiSiS is a suite of applications which is designed to capture all District student data. All charter schools are required to utilize MiSiS directly or interface with MiSiS via a web based Application Programming Interface (API) in compliance with the requirements of the MCD and applicable timelines. Upon charter school full utilization of MiSiS either directly or via a web based API, the list of required data above will automatically be captured within MiSiS.

COMMUNITY NEED FOR CHARTER SCHOOL

CWC Hollywood’s goal is to provide a high-achieving public school for a diverse community of students, developing their abilities, confidence, and sense of responsibility for themselves and their community.

We believe that in today’s society, children grow into strong critical and creative thinkers when they have the opportunity to learn alongside others with diverse backgrounds and perspectives. Children can only reach this potential by learning to manage themselves while thoughtfully and productively working with others across lines of difference to better understand the broader world. We see every day the challenges our communities face in how people work across real or perceived difference. CWC Hollywood represents the diverse makeup of the communities we serve, and, as part of the Citizens of the World Charter Schools national network, we are proud... to be part of the first national school network in the country that focuses on educating an economically and racially diverse population of students. Both our instructional approach and our school composition address the needs of the 21st century and beyond. CWC Hollywood is proud to be part of the Citizens of the World Charter Schools – Los Angeles (“CWC Los Angeles” or “CWC LA”) region, which also operates Citizens of the World Charter School Silver Lake and Citizens of the World Charter School Mar Vista, and will soon open the recently approved Citizens of the World Charter School 4 and Citizens of the World Charter School 5.

SCHOOL PERFORMANCE OVER THE CURRENT CHARTER TERM

ACADEMIC PERFORMANCE DATA AND OTHER ABSOLUTE AND COMPARATIVE PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

This represents the second renewal for CWC Hollywood. Over its two charter terms, CWC Hollywood has demonstrated consistently high academic achievement demonstrating that it has and will continue to meet the needs of the community it serves. CWC Hollywood provides a compelling option for families seeking quality schools in the Los Angeles community by providing a constructivist educational program, individualized and differentiated instruction, in-depth social emotional learning, a social justice perspective for learners, high degrees of parent engagement, and a student population that is uniquely diverse.

Measures of Success

CWC Hollywood is proud to have achieved strong academic performance over its current charter term, and that the school’s strong performance has continued to improve. The Charter School’s academic performance substantially outperforms the academic performance of the public schools that CWC Hollywood’s students would otherwise have attended. As demonstrated in the following charts, CWC Hollywood’s English language arts (“ELA”) and math performance as measured by the California Assessment of Student Performance and Progress (“CAASPP”) in 2017-18 reveals that CWC Hollywood’s performance exceeded performance of LAUSD resident schools, LAUSD schools District-wide, and schools in the state of California. Accordingly, the Charter School meets the academic threshold for charter renewal in accordance with Education Code Section 47607(b)(4), which states that minimum renewal criteria requires clear and convincing evidence that the academic performance of the Charter School is at least equal to the academic performance of the public schools that the Charter School’s students would otherwise have been required to attend, as well as the academic performance of the schools in the District, taking into account the composition of the pupil population that is served at the Charter School. CWC Hollywood also meets the charter renewal requirements in Education Code Section 52052(f).

1 Please note that the list of LAUSD resident schools includes: Van Ness Avenue Elementary, Cheremoya Avenue Elementary, Santa Monica Boulevard Community Charter, Wilshire Crest Elementary, Grant Elementary, Selma Avenue Elementary, Laurel Elementary, Gardner Street Elementary, Vine Street Elementary, Los Feliz Science/Tech/Engineer/Math/Medicine Magnet, Third Street Elementary, Hollywood Primary Center, Franklin Avenue Elementary, and Valley View Elementary.
In 2017-18, 22% more students at CWC Hollywood achieved “Standard Met” (level 3) and “Standard Exceeded” (level 4) on CAASPP in math, and 34% more students in ELA, compared to LAUSD resident schools.

Moreover, when rank ordering the LAUSD resident schools based on the percentage of students achieving level 3 or 4 in math and ELA, CWC Hollywood ranks #3 out of 15 in ELA and #2 out of 15 in math, as shown below:

In addition, on the 2017-18 CAASPP, CWC Hollywood students have outperformed their peers in LAUSD resident schools, LAUSD students District-wide and students across the state of California in statistically significant subgroups (English Learners (“EL”), Reclassified Fluent English Proficient students (“RFEP”), socioeconomically disadvantaged students, students with disabilities, as well as Caucasian, Asian and Hispanic/Latino students. Please note that in the tables below with this data, results are not provided for African-American students at CWC Hollywood because the sample size was not sufficient for data to be reported for CWC Hollywood’s 2017-18 CAASPP results (i.e., there were 10 or fewer students in the subgroup).

The first table represents CWC Hollywood’s subgroups compared to LAUSD resident school subgroups, the second table compares CWC Hollywood’s subgroups to LAUSD District-wide subgroups, and the third table compares CWC Hollywood’s subgroups to students across the state of California.

CWC Hollywood is also proud of its record of increasing academic achievement over its charter term. Specifically, while there was a small decline of 2% over the past year (2016-17 compared to 2017-18), CWC Hollywood’s ELA performance increased by 1% over the past two years (2015-16 compared to 2017-18) and by 11% over the past three years (2014-15 compared to 2017-18). Moreover, the school has steadily increased performance in math each of the past three years: math performance increased by 2% over the past year (2016-17 compared to 2017-18), 7% over the past two years (2015-16 compared to 2017-18) and by 19% over the past three years (2014-15 compared to 2017-18). Please see the chart below.

Moreover, CWC Hollywood saw substantial growth in all subgroups between 2014-15 and 2017-18, with the exception of students with disabilities, which was flat to slightly down, as shown below. Please note that African American students did not have enough tested students in either 2014-15 and 2017-18 to be statistically significant (i.e., there were 10 or fewer tested students).

CAASPP Test Results

It is notable that CWC Hollywood’s RFEP subgroup has outperformed the achievement levels of the rest of the school. Specifically, 97% of RFEPs were at grade level in both ELA and math in 2017-18, and 100% of RFEPs were at grade level in both content areas when looking only at returning RFEPs (1 new RFEP was not at grade level but all other RFEPs were at grade level).

Overall, in the aggregate, CWC Hollywood has outperformed LAUSD Resident schools, all schools in LAUSD, and schools across the state. These indicators, as demonstrated through the California Charter School Association’s (“CCSA”) accountability report below, illustrate CWC Hollywood’s qualifications for renewal. (Although CWC Hollywood is above CCSA’s minimum academic criteria and has met the academic threshold for CCSA’s public advocacy support for renewal, the Charter School understands that it will need to meet minimum renewal requirements set by Education Code Section 47607).
In addition to the data provided above, CWC Hollywood has tracked numerous other measures to assess the Charter School’s performance. These are described in greater detail below.

- ACCREDIDATION FROM THE WESTERN ASSOCIATION OF SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES (“WASC”). CWC Hollywood is proud to have been granted six (6) years of Accreditation Status for grades kindergarten through 5th through June 30, 2022 by the Accrediting Commission for Schools with WASC. CWC Hollywood completed a mid-cycle visit this past year and will continue to work with WASC over the coming years to prepare for its next accreditation visit beyond the initial six-year period.

- INTERNAL READING LEVEL ASSESSMENTS. CWC Hollywood uses Fountas & Pinnell (“F&P”) to assess student reading levels multiple times per year aligned to each trimester. F&P provides a measure of the percentage of students who are at or above grade level proficiency in reading. Between trimester 3 in 2017-18 to trimester 3 in 2018-19 (the last assessment period), the percentage of students performing at or above grade level proficiency in reading has increased from 64% to 68%. In addition, when analyzing this data looking at a defined student cohort (i.e. students who have been with the Charter School each of the last two years), results have improved at all but one grade level, as shown below:

- NWEA ASSESSMENTS. As described further below, CWC Hollywood administers Northwest Evaluation Association ("NWEA") Measures of Academic Progress ("MAP") multiple times per year to assess student progress. NWEA’s MAP testing is an adaptive evaluation that measures a student’s skills and gives them a score based on the scores of similar students across the nation. Below are results from NWEA from 2018-19, compared to 2017-18, broken down by quartile:

CWC Hollywood provides a socio-economically, culturally and racially diverse community of students with an exceptional public education. We foster creativity and academic excellence, and our students learn with and from each other in an experience-centered, project-based learning environment. With participation from our entire community, we strive to instill in each student a dedication to improving the world we inhabit.

Three interrelated tenets have helped us achieve excellence and build an innovative educational program:

- DIVERSITY: We enjoy a racially and socioeconomically diverse community of learners.
- ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE: We create an academically rigorous and innovative experience for each of our students every day.
- COMMUNITY: We build a true school community in which all members – students, teachers, families, and community partners – not only have the opportunity to participate, but also feel welcome to actively engage in school life.

These three tenets drive the work we do at every level and are the basis for the success of the innovative features of our educational program:

Challenging, Constructivist-Based Curriculum That Inspires Critical Thinking, Creativity and a Passion for Learning

Our curriculum is grounded in rich educational theories of constructivism and realized through evidenced-based instructional practices, which serve as the means for each and every child to meet and exceed those standards. We aim to innovate by encouraging the use of diverse teaching methods. Accordingly, our school embraces a rigorous yet highly student-centered, constructivist, project-based approach to teaching and learning in which the core instructional practices of project-based learning and balanced literacy are enhanced by teachers’ rich repertoire of instructional strategies.

• CONSTRUCTIVISM: As constructivism is a theory about learning (and not a description of teaching), no cookie cutter teaching style of instructional techniques can be abstracted from the theory and proposed as a constructivist approach to teaching. To this end, we have built interactive, dynamic classrooms in which critical thinking and creativity thrive alongside standards and academic benchmarks. We work to build classrooms in which students can build the skills they need to participate thoughtfully and effectively in our democracy in the years ahead. We structure learning to build on what students already know and support them in revising and refining their understanding as they work toward mastery. In addition to content knowledge, our students engage in learning processes that develop conceptual understanding and self-knowledge.

• PROJECT-BASED LEARNING/TEACHING FOR UNDERSTANDING: CWC Hollywood defines project-based learning as a curricular and pedagogical strategy that organizes students’ mastery of state standards in the core academic disciplines around projects. Grade-level teams of teachers develop integrated project-based learning units. In creating its instructional project-based learning units, CWC Hollywood relies on Teaching for Understanding, an educational pedagogy that uses the following four questions as a foundation for its framework: What topics are worth understanding? What about these topics needs to be understood? How can we foster understanding? How can we tell what students understand? These same guidelines can be applied to teaching at all grade levels, even through higher education. As reflective learners, children connect what they have learned to their own lives. Rather than studying mathematics, and then separately studying science, and then separately studying language arts standards, project-based learning integrates the skills and knowledge attainment through meaningful scenarios and around compelling and engaging topics. Thoughtful questions and activities help children synthesize their new knowledge and apply it to novel situations. Units provide students with multiple ways to approach material, to participate and demonstrate learning.

• BALANCED LITERACY: CWC Hollywood implements a balanced literacy program. Balanced literacy is an instructional approach that integrates a set of methods for teaching reading and writing. These methods, explained in detail below, include interactive read aloud, literature discussion, shared reading, choral reading, readers’ theater, guided reading, reading workshop, modeled writing, shared writing, interactive writing, and writing workshop.

• GRADUAL RELEASE OF RESPONSIBILITY: Teachers structure instructional strategies according to the principle of the gradual release of responsibility, in which responsibility is released from the teacher to the student.

• DATA-DRIVEN INSTRUCTION: Using data to drive instruction is integral to our program. Using results to evaluate, inform, and adjust instruction, we ensure that each student meets and exceeds Common Core and state standards while developing a true lifelong passion for learning. We monitor student progress via ongoing assessment that includes teacher observations of students at work, formative and summative assessments, and project-based work, in addition to standardized assessments. Teachers, supported by school leaders, analyze standardized and classroom-based assessment data. Through this analysis, we identify trends of mastery and difficulty for individual students, groups of students, and the class as a whole. Teachers and school leaders identify skills, concepts, and strategies in need of further instruction. Based on the trends, teachers determine whether whole class re-teaching, small group intervention, or individual support is the appropriate response.

- LOW-STUDENT-TO-TEACHER RATIOS AND WORKSHOP-BASED SMALL GROUP INSTRUCTION: In order to meet each child’s needs and to allow for a variety of small group instructional methods, CWC Hollywood provides a staffing structure that provides a low student-to-teacher ratio. In grades K-5, there is a Lead Teacher and a Teaching Associate in most classrooms with 26 or fewer students. This staffing structure allows for a variety of small group instructional methods by offering small group instruction by the teacher while a Teaching Associate monitors independent work, partner games, and activities throughout the classroom. All of this results in a rigorous workshop-based model that has a high level of small group instruction, differentiation and individualization to meet the needs of each child. Since we’ve opened our doors, CWC Hollywood has worked hard to refine the mechanisms and content of such workshop-based instruction to ensure our small group work is continually getting more targeted and purposeful. Further, our staffing structure includes support staff to meet the needs of every child.

Socio-Economic and Racial Diversity

Our city, and indeed our increasingly global economy, requires that individuals interact collaboratively and cooperatively with people each day who have different perspectives, values and knowledge than their own. Our school is an effective working model of the larger society students will someday join. Interacting with, learning from, and learning alongside students from different cultures, races, socio-economic backgrounds and more will benefit our students by allowing them opportunities to understand how to effectively work with others from different backgrounds. When CWC Hollywood students graduate from our school, they will possess the skills to be successful in a diverse community and world. Independent social science research, underscored by actual results from CWC Hollywood’s initial two charter terms, continues to highlight the benefits of a diverse student body in improving academic achievement for all students.

CWC Hollywood promotes diversity through the enrollment of its students. In 2018-19, the diversity of our student body, which broadly mirrors the demographics of the communities in which CWC Hollywood is located, included:

- 43% of students are socioeconomically disadvantaged. CWC is pleased that this represents a 3% increase from the prior year.
- 19% of students designated as English Learners
- 9% of students qualified for Special Education services
- Based on 2018-19 CALPADS data, 43% of students identified as Caucasian; 30% Latino; 21% Asian; 4% African American; 1% Filipino; and 1% two or more races. CWC Hollywood is pleased that, compared to the prior year, this represents an increase of Latino students by 4% and African American students by 1%.

Community Building, Social-Emotional Learning, and Positive School Culture

We know all parents want the best for their children and see it as our responsibility to work with families to understand how and where they can best play a part in our school community so that 100% of families are engaged. At CWC Hollywood we commit every day to providing a safe and nurturing environment for every child. It is the development of this mutually respectful and caring community that we know to be the crucial foundation for developing connected, capable, and courageous people who believe they really count. Our high attendance, high parent satisfaction and low suspension rates, as described further below, are evidence that our mission and the culture that drives that mission have been effective.
• SOCIAL-EMOTIONAL LEARNING EMBEDDED IN DAILY ROUTINES: Students participate in daily community building activities and on-going social-emotional learning lessons, including peacemaking and mindfulness. The time and location of these lessons will be different for every teacher and grade level, and are woven throughout the day rather than being just in a designated period of time. During this time, students are equipped with the knowledge, skills, and tools, within a supportive and nurturing environment, where they can see, experience, and practice positive communication, conflict resolution, and mutual respect. Through a mixture of scaffolded activities, role-playing, direct instruction, and other authentic experiences, students are given the opportunities to use and practice conflict resolution skills and strategies as they build community in their classroom and in the school.

• POSITIVE SCHOOL CULTURE AND DISCIPLINE FRAMEWORK: At CWC Hollywood, we firmly believe that in order to have a peaceful school where students can feel safe to focus on learning and take risks, a positive school culture is a must. At CWC Hollywood, we are endlessly proud and work hard to:

1. Create a welcoming school culture
2. Hire staff that supports our school’s mission and works to build the culture we desire
3. Adopt practices that respond to and respect children’s diverse needs
4. Implement curriculum that allows students to learn about social and emotional intelligence in addition to core academic subjects
5. Maintain a safe, organized, and clean learning environment

Our philosophy towards social-emotional education and discipline focuses on responses to misbehavior that are educational and logical while always maintaining the emotional and physical safety for our whole community. To do this, the CWC Hollywood team works together to develop behavioral expectations and procedures that are consistent with the Positive Discipline Model, in which we use both kindness and firmness to co-create relationships that embed both caring and accountability.

We are proud that this approach has resulted in several measures of positive school climate, including:

- ATTENDANCE. CWC Hollywood is pleased to share that average daily attendance remained consistently high in each of the last three years (95% each of the last three years).
- SUSPENSIONS AND EXPULSIONS. CWC Hollywood has not expelled any student since it opened its doors. CWC Hollywood’s suspension event rate for all students was 1.0% in 2017-18. The suspension event rate for African-American students (16 students in the sample) and students with disabilities (43 students in the sample) met the disproportionality goal of less than 15% for these subgroups as stated in the Suspension and Expulsion Tiered Intervention Plan.

• DEVELOPING CITIZENRY THROUGH SOCIAL JUSTICE CURRICULUM: A critical component of education at CWC Hollywood is how social justice topics/learning is integrated into our project-based curriculum. Embedded into academic units, students are asked to think about and engage in ideas that compel them to think about positive social change. Students put to use what they are learning through the academic curriculum and apply it to topics that ask them to think critically about how society and our planet has evolved while also asking them to think about how to make the world a better place in the future.
This approach places a particular emphasis on teaching our students that they are citizens of the world, whereby they take interest in and responsibility for their critical roles in the broader social fabric and how they can advocate for equal opportunity and the dignity of others.

- DEDICATION TO FAMILY INVOLVEMENT AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT: At CWC Hollywood, we believe that parent involvement is essential for student academic success. Accordingly, we seek to provide opportunities for parents to feel both welcomed at our school and involved. We perform substantial outreach to the community to attract a diverse student body, including those who are at risk of low achievement, special education students, economically disadvantaged students, and other students belonging to traditionally under-represented subgroups. We provide outreach to socioeconomically distressed households, neighborhood businesses, community events, community institutions (e.g., libraries, parks and religious institutions), parents who can share with other parents, and preschools, Head Start programs and other schools. Our outreach efforts are conducted by school leaders, staff, parents, and volunteers, some of whom will be socio-economically disadvantaged and in a traditionally under-represented subgroup themselves. We pay regular attention to ensuring all families have the opportunity to participate, and we frequently communicate with parents about their child’s progress, the school and CWC LA’s work, and information about family education workshops and school community activities. Through structures like Principal’s Councils, Family Committees, parent education nights, school-wide meetings with the Principal, bulletins, detailed progress reports and parent-teacher conferences, we not only partner with families in support of student learning but also strengthen our community by extending the reach of the cross-cultural connections that are forged in our classrooms to the larger community as well.

As a way to measure family involvement and satisfaction, CWC Hollywood conducts annual parent satisfaction surveys. These surveys serve as critical indicators of how well the Charter School is serving the needs of all families. We constantly work to achieve high response rates from families. Below we share key data from this survey, which show consistently high results.

This data highlights the high degree of parent satisfaction at CWC Hollywood across a broad range of topics, as well as the consistency of these high ratings. While we are proud of these results, we are constantly striving to improve them even further.

SUCCESS OF THE SCHOOL’S EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM IN MEETING THE SPECIFIC NEEDS OF ITS STUDENT POPULATION

CWC Hollywood is committed to ensuring all of its students are receiving the personalized support they need and deserve. As described further above, the Charter School represents a diverse student body composed of students who possess a range of learning styles and needs. CWC Hollywood addresses these needs in a holistic manner, through the implementation of numerous educational strategies:

Innovative and Rigorous Differentiated Learning Within Project-Based Units

In addition to the differentiated instruction that occurs within the core academic subjects (reading, writing and math workshop), students encounter rigorous, creative and joyful learning experiences within their science and social studies blocks. Reflecting on our students’ high achievement, we credit their success to our instructional model. These units contain ongoing assessments designed to monitor students’ developing understanding and which teachers use to adjust their instruction accordingly.

All of CWC Hollywood’s projects not only embed state standards (Common Core State Standards (“CCSS”), Next Generation Science Standards (“NGSS”) and the remaining California State Content Standards) but also are delivered with our constructivist approach. Embedded within these project-based units are hands-on activities that require students to apply their academic skills and understanding of a topic in a multitude of ways. These units prompt the kind of high-level critical thinking that we know to be essential when developing the minds of 21st century learners who can not only succeed on standardized tests but can collaborate and successfully work through multiple aspects of complex analysis and problem solving. Predicated on CWC Hollywood’s firm belief in and value for students having multiple intelligences and varied ways to convey academic mastery, it is not uncommon to observe students writing and singing songs to express their understanding of a concept. Not only do we see these projects as ways to make learning fun but we also appreciate them as authentic and rigorous experiences that differentiate learning and engage our students in a novel way.

Additionally, projects are open-ended enough that students who are high achieving can take them to the next and higher levels of sophistication. At CWC Hollywood, teachers have a detailed understanding of their students’ academic development and capabilities – all of which provides our teachers with the keen sense of how to push each student specifically to ensure that our hands-on projects are not only creative but are full of differentiated ways for all students to push themselves as thinkers and based on CCSS and NGSS standards. In the design of projects, teachers ensure that projects align to the state standards for that given grade level and content area. These standards are assessed through NWEA assessments multiple times per year, as well as through unit assessments. Administrators monitor the quality of projects to ensure that they are teaching appropriate state standards.

Differentiated Learning Within Workshop-Based Classrooms

In addition to project based learning, it is the daily, targeted and rigorous workshop-based instruction that allows us to deliver an education program that has high impact on all students’ achievement. These practices provide instruction that is geared toward students’ particular needs, level, pacing, and approach. It is within our small group structure that teachers have the flexibility to refine what they are targeting to meet students’ needs and move each student to the next level across subjects. In addition to the full battery of summative assessments we conduct regularly, our teachers collect daily anecdotal evidence that capture students’ ongoing work. Based on that daily source of information, teachers make dynamic decisions regarding the focus of small group instruction each day and whether groups need to be re-configured in any way to best meet the needs of the students in their class.

Board and CWC Hollywood Commitment to Monitoring Student Achievement

The CWC LA Board of Directors, which operates CWC Hollywood, has institutionalized several practices that drive data-driven decision-making at CWC Hollywood. The Board requires that CWC Hollywood reports on Charter School goals. These regular reports include a status on goals that relate not only to academic achievement but community and fiscal goals. Academic data is disaggregated by subgroup, grade level and other dimensions. The Board monitors students’ progress towards defined achievement targets on a regular basis, and, most importantly, the Executive Director and/or Principal report actions to be taken in response to data trends. The Board has set the routine of talking about important matters such as student achievement on a regular basis and as a result can authentically understand how CWC Hollywood is progressing toward important Charter School goals.

CWC Hollywood is proud to be a part of the CWC LA region. The CWC LA region has provided CWC Hollywood access to local and national resources and knowledge to supplement the Charter School’s work. The CWC LA regional team is currently composed of the Executive Director and staff who provide centralized support and content expertise to CWC LA schools, as well as specific tools, support and consultation in the area of assessment, professional development, and operations. For the Principal of CWC Hollywood, it is invaluable to be a part of a larger network of like-minded and invested school leaders (both in Los Angeles and across the country) who are similarly committed to providing students with an innovative and rigorous academic experience. Being a part of a regional team has not only created a collective, but has strengthened CWC Hollywood’s work and sharpened CWC Hollywood’s ability to impact student achievement.

Data for Targeted Subgroups

CWC Hollywood has maintained a rigorous focus on supporting every student’s needs. The student achievement outcomes described above (e.g., CAASPP comparative data) demonstrates that this focus is working. Please see the tables above for this data.

In addition, CWC Hollywood has maintained a significant focus on supporting English Learners to both reclassify and once reclassified, demonstrate success academically. CWC Hollywood is pleased to share that its most recent reclassification data shows a strong increase from the prior year, demonstrating the continued growth of the English Learner program at the school. The reclassification data from 2018-19 was 21.85%, reflecting the reclassification of 26 English Learners out of 119 English Learners who attended the school in 2017-18. Not only is this higher than the LAUSD goal of 20%, but it is also higher than the 2017-18 LAUSD Resident School median of 21.5%.

As a result of CWC Hollywood’s strong record of reclassifying students, the school has a lower rate of students who are at risk of becoming a Long-Term English Learner ("LTEL"). CWC Hollywood’s percentage of students at risk of becoming LTELS was 4.3% in 2017-18, which was lower than the LAUSD Resident median of 8.3% and the LAUSD average of 5.3%.

It is notable that this high reclassification rate has been achieved while performance of CWC

2 Please note that CWC LA regional staff positions are subject to change based on the budget of the organization.
Hollywood’s English Learners (i.e., those English Learners who have not yet reclassified) has also been outperforming LAUSD resident schools and LAUSD schools District-wide, as described in detail above.

It is probably most notable that CWC Hollywood’s students continue to perform well after they are reclassified (i.e., Reclassified Fluent English Proficient (“RFEP”) students). As shared above, 100% of CWC Hollywood’s returning RFEP students are at grade level in both ELA and math, and 97% of all RFEPs are performing at this level. This ranks first in both ELA and math out of 15 LAUSD Resident schools (13 of which have statistically significant scores from the state). These results are 17% higher than the second highest in ELA and are 22% higher in math. Moreover, they are 30% higher than the median result in ELA and 43% higher in math.

AREAS OF CHALLENGE AND HOW THEY WILL BE IMPROVED IN THE NEW CHARTER TERM

At CWC Hollywood, we are a team of continual learners, constantly striving to provide the best educational experience for our students, day in and day out. A number of areas that we are focused on developing in the coming years include:

- FURTHER PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND CURRICULAR RESOURCES: A core part of CWC Hollywood’s mission is to meet the educational needs of all students in an environment that fosters an appreciation and understanding of other cultures. We are proud that our 2017-18 CAASPP subgroups meet or exceed other LAUSD resident schools, the District performance overall and the state of California. We also recognize the need for continued efforts to ensure that all students reach grade-level expectations. We are engaged in a variety of school-based and regional instructional initiatives that we are confident will continue to ensure that teachers have the skill and support needed to meet these goals and demonstrate growth for all subgroups of students.

- CULTIVATING NEW AND MORE FORMALIZED LEADERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES FOR STAFF AS FOUNDING STAFF BEGIN TO TRANSITION: At CWC Hollywood, we have high standards of performance for ourselves. While we credit our high levels of academic performance in our first years with these high expectations, we are rarely satisfied and are continually focused on what we need to do in order to achieve our mission and educational model to even greater degrees. Within our growing Charter School, we have learned that in addition to attracting and retaining staff who are invested in our model and willing to work hard on behalf of it, we have needed to develop a more systemized and formal approach to engage staff in leadership and decision-making roles that are connected to the development of our larger program outside of any one single classroom. To do this, we have focused on creating new leadership roles for staff over the past several years and plan to continue to do so. These leadership roles will focus on various areas of improvement, including both school-level and regional initiatives.

This need has become even more relevant now that CWC Hollywood has been in existence for the last nine (9) years and some of the founding staff has started to transition from the school. This has led to the need to build new capacity among the school’s leadership and teaching staff. This investment will be ongoing and is part of the long-term sustainability plan for the school. We are confident that with the support of new staff, the CWC LA regional team and the CWC national network, a long-term plan will be put in place to continually improve and build capacity with new staff.

- INCREASING PERCENTAGE OF SOCIOECONOMICALLY DISADVANTAGED STUDENTS: CWC Hollywood is proud of how the Charter School has served socioeconomically disadvantaged students. As described above, in 2017-18, CWC Hollywood’s socioeconomically disadvantaged students outperformed LAUSD resident schools by 7% in ELA and 32% in math, all LAUSD grade 3-5 students by 24% in ELA and 40% in math, and all grade 3-5 students in the state by 23% in ELA and 39% in math. CWC Hollywood is essentially doubling the number of students who are at grade level in this subgroup compared to other schools in LAUSD. CWC Hollywood is seeking to further increase the diversity of the Charter School’s socioeconomically disadvantaged student population and has been making progress. For example, over the past year, the percentage of students qualified as socioeconomically disadvantaged increased from 40% to 43% based on October 2017 and October 2018 CALPADS data, due to a strong and strategic effort to increase the number of socioeconomically disadvantaged applicants. In order to further increase the diversity of our student population, we will continue to implement an Outreach Plan that includes targeted efforts to recruit all types of students, including those who are at risk of low achievement, special education students, economically disadvantaged students, and other students belonging to traditionally under-represented subgroups. Student recruitment and community outreach efforts will be targeted to neighborhoods in which CWC Hollywood is located, which includes many households that are socioeconomically distressed. We will strive to share information about our program as broadly as possible. Our Plan will include: sharing our information with local preschool and daycare programs serving socio-economically disadvantaged students; providing flyers at community events, religious institutions, businesses, libraries, parks and other civic institutions targeting socio-economically disadvantaged students and families; providing flyers, tours and other information in Spanish; utilizing our parent body to spread additional information about CWC Hollywood to their friends and families; reaching out to socio-economically disadvantaged families who are accepted to ensure that they enroll through families and/or staff who can be very specific in answering customized questions and providing individualized answers to families in multiple languages. Our community outreach efforts will be conducted by school leaders, staff, parents, and volunteers, some of whom will be socio-economically disadvantaged and in a traditionally under-represented subgroup themselves.

- SUBGROUP PERFORMANCE GAPS ON CAASPP ASSESSMENTS: CWC Hollywood is proud that its subgroups see a greater percentage meeting or exceeding grade level expectations in both ELA and math compared to LAUSD resident schools, LAUSD overall and the state of California. As described above, CWC Hollywood students outperformed LAUSD resident schools in 2017-18 for statistically significant subgroups. However, gaps between subgroups exist. In addition, some groups have not shown as strong growth over time, especially in relation to comparison schools (e.g., Latino students and English Learners in ELA, and to a lesser degree, English Learners in math). The school community is focused on closing these gaps through a number of strategies, including: continued focus on building teacher capacity to differentiate instruction to meet the needs of all students; customized professional development and coaching support for all teachers to address each teacher’s specific needs; and continued intervention programs to ensure that the needs of students below grade level are addressed.

- IMPROVING FACILITIES TO STREAMLINE OPERATIONS AND FACILITATE COMMUNITY BUILDING: CWC Hollywood has loved its location at Le Conte Middle School since the school started in 2010. The CWC Hollywood community is proud of the positive relationship it has built with Le Conte Middle School stakeholders. However, CWC Hollywood also recognizes that its host school could benefit from infrastructure upgrades given the age of the building. CWC Hollywood recognizes that any improvement to its current facility is dependent on LAUSD approval, and looks forward to partnering with LAUSD and the Le Conte Middle School community to help make these types of improvements in the coming years.

STUDENT POPULATION TO BE SERVED

TARGET NEIGHBORHOOD

CWC Hollywood serves a socioeconomically, racially and culturally diverse population of students representing the heart of Hollywood, including zip codes 90028, 90038 and 90068. The school is open to all students, although outreach efforts are focused on the area bordered by La Brea Avenue to the west, Melrose Blvd. to the south, Western Ave. to the to the east, and Mulholland to the north, as well as underserved students in the surrounding areas.

CWC Hollywood offers families a public charter school option in the targeted geography that more closely mirrors their neighborhood composition and offers a unique opportunity for their children to prepare for global citizenship. During the charter term, CWC Hollywood will serve students in grades TK through 5th grade.

CWC Hollywood provides families a public Charter School option with a diverse student body that offers a unique opportunity for children to prepare for global citizenship. With so many challenges facing our society – poverty, violence, protests and more – our students will face significant obstacles when they graduate from college. Our graduates will need not only to navigate these obstacles but also to make them better for future generations. In this way, our students will become global citizens who are able to change the world.

It is crucial that our public schools offer students the opportunity to interact and collaborate authentically with people who have different perspectives, values, and cultural backgrounds. Without these opportunities, students of all backgrounds “lose increasingly critical opportunities to deepen understanding of complex social and political issues and to prepare for successful life, work and citizenship in our profoundly changing society. Research demonstrates that ethnically mixed schools promote cross-racial understanding in ways not possible in segregated school environments, making integrated student bodies essential ingredients in preparing children for citizenship and work.”

We believe our students will form authentic friendships with individuals from other races, cultures, and backgrounds, and studies have shown that students with these experiences are more willing to live and work in diverse settings than those in more homogenous schools. We believe our schools can be powerful tools in breaking down negative stereotypes, and instead, build bridges of understanding between students and parents alike. Students in racially diverse schools are less likely to develop racial stereotypes or prejudice than students who are not in daily contact with people of other races.

The data below highlight the diversity within the CWC Hollywood target community based on several demographic characteristics:

4 Ibid
5 http://factfinder2.census.gov
• 11% of households have income less than $9,999
• 9% of households have between $10,000 and $14,999
• 13% of households have income between $15,000 and $24,999
• 11% of households have income between $25,000 and $34,999
• 13% of households have income between $35,000 and $49,999
• 17% of households have income between $50,000 and $74,999
• 8% of households have income between $75,000 and $99,999
• 19% of households have income greater than $100,000

The data above shows the socioeconomic diversity of the Charter School’s targeted geography. Approximately 50% of households are earning below $40,000 annually, an amount that is approximately comparable to Free and Reduced Price lunch qualifying income levels. At the same time, there are also 19% of households earning $100,000 or more.

• 48% are Caucasian
• 36% are Hispanic/Latino
• 8% are Asian
• 5% are African-American
• 3% are other

The data above demonstrates the considerable racial and socioeconomic diversity in the area. However, based on data from the 2017-18 school year, the local LAUSD traditional public schools do not consistently reflect the area’s diverse composition.

Although class size may vary at times, we anticipate that class size will be approximately 26 students. The Charter School estimates having approximately one class of TK students each year based on demand and three classes of kindergarten students. The Charter School also has one larger cohort of students who will continue through each grade level during the charter term.

GOALS AND PHILOSOPHY

MISSION AND VISION

The mission of CWC Hollywood is to provide a socio-economically, culturally and racially diverse community of students in the heart of Hollywood with an intellectually challenging, experiential learning environment that develops each individual student’s confidence, potential and individual responsibility as citizens of the world in which we live.

CWC Hollywood’s vision is to provide a high-quality education for all students from kindergarten to grade five, laying the foundation for future school, professional, and personal success. By drawing on one of Los Angeles’ greatest assets – the diversity of the people who call our city home - we seek to ensure that unlike many of the current public school offerings in the area, all of the diverse members of this remarkably unique community will be active participants in our school. In this way, we have created a hub for community activity that truly reflects and embraces the ethnic, racial, linguistic, and socioeconomic diversity of the neighborhood. CWC Hollywood prepares students for success in college, a diverse society, and a global economy by drawing upon these school design characteristics and exceptional organizational leadership at all levels.

CWC Hollywood realizes the school’s important vision and mission with particular attention to the following:

Academic Excellence
Our curriculum is centered on Common Core State Standards (“CCSS”), Next Generation Science Standards (“NGSS”), English Language Development (“ELD”) Standards, and the remaining California State Content Standards (collectively referred to herein as “State Standards”). Our program is grounded in rich educational theories of constructivism and evidence-based instructional practices that serve as the means for each and every child to meet and exceed those standards. CWC Hollywood meets the intent of the Charter Schools Act by encouraging the use of different and innovative teaching methods. To this end, we build interactive, dynamic classrooms in which critical thinking and creativity thrives alongside standards and academic benchmarks and where students can build the skills they need to participate thoughtfully and effectively in our democracy in the years ahead. CWC Hollywood embraces a rigorous yet highly student-centered, constructivist, project-based approach to teaching and learning. We structure learning to build on what students already know and support them in revising and refining their understanding as they work towards mastery. Described further in Element 1, our students engage in learning processes that develop conceptual understanding and self-knowledge in addition to content knowledge. We monitor student progress via ongoing assessments that include teacher observations of students at work, formative and summative assessments, and project-based assignments, in addition to state standardized assessments. Our planned student outcomes and means of measuring those outcomes are described fully in Element 1, Element 2 and Element 3. Using the results to evaluate, inform and adjust instruction, we ensure that each student meets and exceeds state performance standards while developing a true lifelong passion for learning.

As the California Department of Education (“CDE”) has noted, “Standards describe what, not how, to teach… [and] provide ample room for the innovation, creativity and reflection essential to teaching and learning.” (CDE English–Language Arts Content Standards for California Public Schools, Kindergarten through Grade Twelve.) As we incorporate and further develop best practices in pedagogy that support students’ constructions of knowledge, project-based learning, and community-building in this uniquely diverse educational setting, we also share our model with schools throughout the Los Angeles Unified School District ("LAUSD"). We are confident that our entire model and operation is conducive to replication and provide innovative practices for our fellow educators as well. We hope to both contribute to and learn from promising practices within the District.

Diversity
CWC Hollywood is an effective working model of the larger society that students will someday join as graduates. Now more than ever our students need meaningful school experiences that build cross-cultural understanding and tolerance before they enter the global workforce. Just as we prepare our astronauts to embark on journeys in space, our doctors to perform operating procedures, and our armed forces to carry out critical missions, we also offer our students the opportunity to simulate and prepare for their broader engagement in a pluralistic, global society by experiencing an educational setting that reflects the broader world. As both independent social science research and prior experience have shown, diversity in our student body enriches students’ classroom experiences, meets a growing demand for diverse schools among parents, teachers, and students, and offers longer term societal benefits, including greater social cohesion and reduced cultural stereotyping.

In addition, research also demonstrates the benefits of diversity on students’ development. While there are numerous sources of research that demonstrate these benefits, we cite one recent article here that demonstrates the benefits of diversity. Researchers found that students from numerous ethnic and racial groups who attend diverse schools feel safer, less lonely and less bullied compared to students who do not attend diverse schools. This study also found that students in diverse schools reported lower levels of prejudice and greater levels of tolerance toward students from other ethnicities, and also reported that teachers treated students more fairly.

Yet, research also highlights that our public schools are becoming more segregated, not less. Recent research published by the University of Southern California highlights how income segregation is increasing in urban areas among parents of school-age children. This highlights how important CWC Hollywood’s model of diversity is for both students and the community. We believe our schools can be powerful tools in breaking down negative stereotypes, and instead, build bridges of understanding between students and parents alike. In summary, as Justice Thurgood Marshall famously noted: “unless our children begin to learn together, there is little hope that our people will ever learn to live together.”

As we describe further in Element 1, CWC Hollywood offers our students and families a diverse environment that will enable students to build these positive skills. For example, CWC LA’s schools have been engaged in a multi-year effort to define and engage the entire community (staff, students and families) in a strategy focused on diversity, equity and inclusion. This regional priority has been defining our vision and strategy, as well as changing practice in the field. Such school experiences have the power to benefit both students individually and communities collectively. The positive academic outcomes cited above regarding CWC Hollywood’s school performance on CAASPP is evidence of the strong instructional program at CWC Hollywood.

Community
We aim to continue CWC Hollywood’s history of building a true school community in which all members—students, teachers, families, and community partners—not only have the opportunity to participate but also feel welcome to actively engage in school life. We know all parents want the best for their children and we see it as our responsibility to work with families to understand how and where they can best play a part in our school community so that 100% of families are engaged.

Talent and Leadership
Excellent educators at CWC Hollywood (including the Executive Director, Principals, Lead Teachers, Teaching Associates and all other staff who work with students) and strong partners within the District are critical to our Charter School’s success. In line with our commitment to Academic Excellence, Diversity and Community, we develop our teaching faculty into a supportive community that values and extends their unique talents and allows them to refine their craft. As we describe in more detail in Element 1, they work together to plan units, solicit feedback on lessons, and share instructional techniques. They also celebrate successes and work their way through challenges together while encouraging each other to grow as teachers and leaders. Our collaborative professional community at CWC Hollywood supports well-qualified teachers with ample planning time, training, resources, support, and autonomy. Teachers are able to continually develop their pedagogical skills, collaborate with one another, and create, evaluate, and refine curriculum that best fits their individual students, utilizing a variety of formative and summative assessments to continuously measure the success of their work.

Further, CWC Hollywood is part of the CWC LA region and partners with the Citizens of the World Charter Schools (“CWCS”) national network of schools. As described further in Element 4, CWCS is a California nonprofit, public benefit corporation, and is the sole statutory member of CWC LA, as defined in Corporations Code Section 5056. The regional and national organizations both provide intensive operational and academic supports.

AN EDUCATED PERSON IN THE 21ST CENTURY

Together, the philosophies presented herein form the foundation for our practices and programmatic elements and are presented more fully in the following sections.

In creating our philosophical foundation, we have drawn on empirical research, our practical experience as educators, and ongoing and in-depth consultations with school leaders throughout the CWCS national network and other school leaders around the country. The CWC Learning Model describes a common vision for what an excellent education means at all CWC schools and how we deliver this to all of our students. Central to this model is the desire to ensure true equity for all students’ lives in every aspect of school life. At this point in time, we believe lack of true equity for all children is one of the greatest challenges facing our country and world.

We believe an educated person in the 21st century strives to grow in all possible ways. An educated person can work independently, or on one’s self, cooperatively, or together within a group, or as a leader, expressing their learning to the world. An educated person thinks creatively and critically and is respectful of this nation’s – and our city’s – remarkable cultural and democratic society. Cognizant of our ties as human beings on the planet, and as individuals in an increasingly digital, fast-paced world, an educated person seeks to be a productive, caring, and responsible citizen of the world.

To achieve this, all CWC schools focus students’ growth towards our Graduate Dispositions — the habits of character and mind that our students demonstrate upon graduation (see chart below). All CWC schools have embarked on a large-scale, network-wide project to develop a framework upon which its three (3) strands of deoxyribonucleic acid (“DNA”) (core academics, social emotional development and difference and inclusion) and its 11 Graduate Dispositions sit. (Here, DNA is used as a metaphor for deoxyribonucleic acid that contains the genetic code for living organisms.)

This framework supports all educators in all of our schools by creating a common language and understanding for how the three (3) strands of DNA show up in the classroom, and how to support student development toward each of the graduate dispositions. A team of over thirty (30) educators from across all Los Angeles and Kansas City CWC schools came together alongside curriculum designers, Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI) experts and CWC staff to create developmental benchmarks for all eleven (11) Graduate Dispositions, as well as curricular tools and assessment measures for a prioritized number of Graduate Dispositions. We consider the Graduate Dispositions framework and implementation, along with all of the associated tools that are used by educators in their classrooms, to be one of the innovative components of CWC Hollywood’s educational program.

In the book The Global Achievement Gap: Why Even Our Best Schools Don’t Teach the New Survival Skills Our Children Need – and What We can Do About It, Tony Wagner makes the argument that, “Schools haven’t changed; the world has. And so our schools are not failing. Rather, they are obsolete—even the ones that score the best on standardized tests.”

As we seek to prepare students to succeed in the 21st century, we embrace the accountability that accompanies charter schools. We believe that ensuring that students achieve excellent scores on standardized tests and a strong understanding of content standards is a baseline necessity. However, we also acknowledge that:

Rigor that matters most for the twenty-first century is demonstrated mastery of the core competencies for work, citizenship, and life-long learning. Studying

academic content is the means of developing competencies, instead of being the goal, as it has been traditionally. In today’s world, it’s no longer how much you know that matters; it’s what you can do with what you know.¹²

We define college and career readiness in broad ways to ensure that students are fully prepared for the set of challenges they will face after graduating from high school, as embodied by our Graduate Dispositions. Our definition includes academic preparation (for example: content acquisition from various subjects as well as critical thinking and problem solving skills), as well as the various skills needed for success in our complex society (for example: collaboration, cultural competency, systems thinking and others). By including both academic skills and other competencies in our definition of an educated person in the 21st century, CWC Hollywood is successfully preparing students for success and persistence in college and careers.

In crafting our understanding of what it means to educate students for the 21st century and its implication for our academic program, we have drawn on Wagner’s definition of what it means to be college, career, and citizenship-ready and the “Seven Survival Skills” that he identified:

1. Critical Thinking & Problem Solving
2. Collaboration Across Networks & Leading by Influence
3. Agility & Adaptability
4. Initiative & Entrepreneurialism
5. Effective Oral & Written Communication
6. Accessing & Analyzing Information
7. Curiosity & Imagination

Technological literacy is integral to several of the skills named above. As an example, Accessing & Analyzing Information requires the capacity to “manage an astronomical amount of information flowing into their work lives on a daily basis” via technology (p. 36). Determining which sources are most relevant as they seek to integrate multiple sources of information on the same topic is crucial to Critical Thinking and Problem Solving. Effective Written Communication requires students to utilize technology to produce and publish writing. Examples of the use of technology in our classrooms include: use of stations of devices for a small group of students to practice a skill during a workshop-based instructional module; practice for summative assessments through typing skills; intervention and/or enrichment opportunities using on-line platforms for students to receive differentiated instruction; and use of on-line assessments.

HOW LEARNING BEST OCCURS

Learning best occurs when students construct their own understandings, under the guidance of a teacher who offers varying levels of support, as needed, and with the involvement of their families in the education. So we present the following two building blocks of our theory of learning, with a description of our third building block, family involvement:

- Constructivism: a theory of learning and knowing
- Gradual release of responsibility: an instructional model that presents a process in which the responsibility is released from the teacher to the student

CONSTRUCTIVISM

Constructivism, a psychological theory, was initially based on the research of Jean Piaget and Lev Vygotsky and continues to develop in the work of Jerome Bruner, Howard Gardner, and others. The constructivist approach to learning is further validated by the findings of How People Learn: Brain, Mind, Experience, and School (1999), an authoritative synthesis of research on learning that was jointly commissioned by the U.S. Department of Education and the National Science Foundation. The benefits of constructivism have also been replicated around the world (e.g., “Kim, Jong Suk, “The Effects of a Constructivist Teaching Approach on Student Academic Achievement, Self-Concept, and Learning Strategies,” Asia Pacific Education Review, 2005).

At its most basic level, the constructivist theory of learning means that new knowledge must be constructed from existing knowledge. New knowledge is incorporated into one’s existing framework unless that framework is challenged. The children’s book Fish Is Fish by Leo Lionni provides a vivid and straightforward illustration of this core idea.

Fish Is Fish (Lionni, 1970) described a fish who is keenly interested in learning about what happens on land because it can only breathe in water. It befriends a tadpole who grows into a frog and eventually goes out onto the land. The frog returns to the pond a few weeks later and reports on what he had seen. The frog describes all kinds of things like birds, cows, and people. The book shows pictures of the fish’s representation of each of these descriptions: each is a fish-like form that is slightly adapted to accommodate the frog’s descriptions – people are imagined to be fish that walk on their tail fins, birds are fish with wings, cows are fish with udders. The tale illustrates both the creative opportunities and dangers inherent in the fact that people construct new knowledge based on their current knowledge. (Bransford et al, 1999, p.11)

While the story of Fish is Fish appears simple and childlike, the core tenets apply to learning at all levels and ages. Brooks and Brooks emphasize in The Case for Constructivist Classrooms (1999) that “… [w]e construct our own understandings of the world in which we live” (p. 4). Those constructions can be misconceptions, incorrect, or incomplete, unless something challenges that construction, forcing the learner to reexamine their understanding. At CWC Hollywood, our instructional framework “allow[s] learners to explore and generate many possibilities, both affirming and contradictory.” (Fosnot 2005, p. 34)

To be clear, constructivism is a theory of learning and knowing, not a theory of teaching (Fosnot, 2005).

A common misconception regarding “constructivist” theories of knowing (that existing knowledge is used to build new knowledge) is that teachers should never tell students anything directly, but instead should always allow them to construct knowledge for themselves. This perspective confuses a theory of pedagogy (teaching) with a theory of knowing. Constructivists assume that all knowledge is constructed from previous knowledge, irrespective of how one is taught – even listening to a lecture involves active attempts to construct new knowledge. (Bransford et al, 1999, p. 11)

13 The full text of How People Learn is freely available at the website of the National Academies Press (nap.edu).
How People Learn includes the following two findings concerning children’s development and learning:

Children are problem solvers and, through curiosity, generate questions and problems. Children attempt to solve problems presented to them, and they also seek novel challenges. They persist because success and understanding are motivating in their own right. Children’s natural capabilities require assistance for learning. Children’s early capacities are dependent on catalysts and mediation. Adults play a critical role in promoting children’s curiosity and persistence by directing children’s attention, structuring their experiences, supporting their learning attempts, and regulating the complexity and difficulty of levels of information for them.

CWC Hollywood’s teachers select instructional techniques as needed based on identified student needs on an on-going basis, guided by constructivist learning theory. Constructivism provides the guiding principles for lessons whether they are in the format of direct instruction, project-based learning, or mathematical problem solving. In the following pages, we present the idea of developing and using a rich repertoire of instructional strategies. While certain methodologies, such as project-based learning and balanced literacy, will be implemented in many classrooms across the Charter School, teachers are not limited to using those techniques. Instead, they are encouraged to develop additional techniques, to draw on, as needed, to support students’ constructions of understanding.

Constructivism calls for learning experiences to be adjusted, beginning with each learner’s level of understanding and guiding students in building upon prior knowledge. Our classroom structures are designed to allow for this differentiated instruction. Our low teacher-to-student ratio (approximately 26 students per classroom) allows for flexible grouping during the school day. Furthermore, our use of the workshop model and project-based learning provides for substantial independent work time in which teachers can meet with small groups and conference with individual students.

By ensuring that students are given a variety of different means of learning the material and the opportunity to construct their own understanding, we ensure that all students achieve standards mastery in meaningful ways. Deep understanding of the skills and knowledge presented in the Common Core State Standards leads to strong performance in a variety of new situations, including state standardized tests. However, the converse is not true. The capacity to perform well on a standardized test does not ensure the capacity to apply that knowledge in novel or real-world situations.

Classroom practices designed to challenge students in transforming their current thinking and student success on tests are [not] inherently contradictory. However, there is much evidence (from NAEP [National Assessment of Educational Progress] and TIMMS [Trends in International Mathematics and Science Study], to name but two sources) that classroom practices specifically designed to prepare students for tests do not foster new learning that is applied to new settings (Brooks & Brooks, 1999, p. viii).

While we do not believe that test-preparatory instruction (or “classroom practices specifically designed to prepare students for tests” as stated in the quote above) is likely to lead to the ability to apply that learning in an alternate setting, we do recognize the important role that standardized tests play in monitoring instruction.
Furthermore, numerous independent researchers have documented the success of the constructivist model of education with historically under-served populations using standardized tests, including such schools as University of Houston Charter School in Texas. This school and countless others have long demonstrated that when children from socio-economically disadvantaged neighborhoods, including recent immigrants and ELs, are given the opportunity to attend a school like CWC Hollywood, their test scores and self-confidence soar. (Bada & Olusegun, 2015; Mester, 2008; and numerous other examples over the previous decades)

GRADUAL RELEASE OF RESPONSIBILITY

Learning best occurs when the appropriate instructional technique is selected based on the objective to be taught and the needs of the learner. The gradual release of responsibility can provide a useful way of categorizing instructional methods to help students become more independent. In short, this instructional model presents a process in which the responsibility is released from the teacher to the student. It requires that the teacher intentionally transition from owning “all the responsibility for performing a task ... to a situation in which the students assume all of the responsibility” (Duke & Pearson 2002, p. 211).

In the gradual release model, teachers offer varying degrees of support to promote student learning. When the teacher offers the most support, the learner control is low; when the teacher offers the least support, the learner control (and therefore responsibility) is high.

In some cases, a single lesson contains components from multiple levels of gradual release of responsibility. During a workshop, the teacher might teach a mini-lesson to the whole class in which (s)he briefly demonstrates a specific technique (demonstration). The teacher then leads a small group of students who are likely to need more support, based on previous assessments. During this lesson, (s)he coaches them in applying the technique to their work (guided practice). Then students are sent off to apply the technique independently to their project (independent practice) and the Teaching Associate observes and assists as needed.

This gradual release may also occur over time. For example, the ultimate goal of reading instruction is independent reading, in which students become adults who select texts and read independently. Knowing that, the teacher can use this framework to structure instruction to release elements of reading to the student over time. Over time, the texts for each type of instruction become more difficult. As a student becomes a more skilled reader, (s)he is able to read independently a book that was once only accessible to her or him if the teacher read it aloud. (Pearson & Gallagher, 1983)

The ultimate goal of instruction is independence, such that students are self-reliant and able to demonstrate their understanding without teacher support. We use the assessments presented to monitor student progress toward independent demonstration of the State Standards.

This evidence-based model “emphasizes instruction that mentors students into becoming capable thinkers and learners when handling the tasks with which they have not yet developed expertise” (Buehl, 2005). The gradual release of responsibility model of instruction has been documented as an effective approach for improving writing achievement (Fisher & Frey, 2003), reading comprehension (Lloyd, 2004), and literacy outcomes for ELs (Kong & Pearson, 2003).

FAMILY INVOLVEMENT THAT PROMOTES STUDENT LEARNING

Learning best occurs when students’ families are involved in their education. Family education and participation are essential components of student success. The ideas and skills a family brings to the Charter School and the exchange of ideas between parents and teachers help the students see parents as partners working towards a successful school experience for every student. Based on U.S. Department of Education research, family and school partnerships are believed to be critical to students’ success throughout their lives. According to A New Wave of Evidence: The Impact of School, Family, and Community Connections on Student Achievement. Annual Synthesis, 2002, a federally-funded research synthesis produced by the Southwest Educational Lab, multiple sources of evidence attest to the key role of parental involvement in supporting student achievement. Positive aspects of family and school partnerships include:

- Increased student attendance and higher aspirations.
- Improvement in student attitude and behavior.
- Improved parent and child communication; positive parent/teacher interaction.
- Increased community support for schools.
- Increased rate of homework completion.
- Higher test scores and grades.
- Fewer referrals and placements in special education.
- Higher graduation rates.
- Higher enrollment rates in post-secondary education.

CWC Hollywood ensures that parents understand the curricular approach, are included in the life of the classroom, and hear from teacher(s) about their child’s learning through an orientation session for new families, parent-teacher conferences, annual meetings with parents in teachers' classrooms to discuss the approach for the year, informal communications between the teacher and parents throughout the year (e.g., emails, phone calls and short conversations at drop-off and pick-up), and formal conversations between the teacher and parents on an as-needed basis. To encourage the full participation of non-English speaking parents, CWC Hollywood makes use of translation and/or interpreters and highly values second language abilities when hiring teachers and other staff.

The Charter School’s leaders, in collaboration with teachers and parent volunteers, develop an annual schedule of workshops that take place on the Charter School site and welcome all parents in the community. These workshops are led by teachers, administrators, parents, and community members and focus on culturally sensitive, hands-on learning experiences to help parents develop skills to support their children.

All families are encouraged to participate as active volunteers in the Charter School’s operations and activities. Parent participation at CWC Hollywood is high, as measured by parent self-reported volunteer hours logged throughout the year, attendance at parent meetings, and parent leadership on school committees. Parent volunteerism is key to the success of any school, and is an important part of our Charter School philosophy and vision. CWC Hollywood is very committed to equitably engaging all families and finding a multitude of ways in which a CWC Hollywood family can plug into life at school. CWC Hollywood firmly believes that parent volunteers not only strengthen our Charter School, but also have an invaluable positive impact on students as well. Participating in volunteer opportunities provides CWC Hollywood parents a chance to connect with other members of our community.

Parents volunteer before or after school hours or during the school day, including volunteering in the classroom or office. Other volunteer opportunities include planning student/school community events, fundraising activities, outreach to prospective new families, and much more. Parents, grandparents, and other family members provide valuable services to help the Charter School but more importantly, families become more involved and connected to the Charter School and their child’s learning while also being empowered to effectively shape school programs and operations.

CWC Hollywood does not require a parent or legal guardian of a prospective or enrolled student to perform volunteer service hours, or make payment of fees or other monies, goods, or services in lieu of performing volunteer service, as a condition of his/her child’s admission, continued enrollment, attendance, or participation in CWC Hollywood’s educational activities, or otherwise discriminate against a student in any manner because his/her parent cannot, has not, or will not provide volunteer service to CWC Hollywood. No student will be denied admission, disenrolled, or receive a reduced grade or loss of educational benefit if parents choose not to volunteer. While not required, we encourage all families to contribute 40 hours of volunteering per school year. The policies that make it clear that volunteering is not required at CWC Hollywood are described in the Family Handbook, which is distributed annually to all families. Additional volunteering policies are described in the Charter School's Volunteer Handbook.

LOCAL CONTROL FUNDING FORMULA (“LCFF”) ANNUAL GOALS

Based on the state priorities detailed in Education Code Section 52060(d), CWC Hollywood aims to achieve the following school-wide and subgroup outcome goals. We use multiple summative and formative assessments aligned to the State Standards to monitor individual student and subgroup progress towards the state priorities detailed in Education Code Section 52060(d) and achievement on the CAASPP.

The following chart details CWC Hollywood’s annual goals for all pupils (i.e. school-wide) and for each subgroup of pupils identified pursuant to Education Code Section 52052 for each of the eight (8) state priorities and sub-priorities identified in Education Code Section 52060(d). We also include specific annual actions we plan to take to achieve each of the identified annual goals.

Self-Motivated, Competent, Life-Long Learners

CWC Hollywood’s academic program reflects our broad objective of enabling our students to become self-motivated, competent, life-long learners. By putting our core beliefs about how learning best occurs into action, we establish the foundation for students’ current and future development as learners. Below, we present a series of statements, which support the realization of these beliefs.

Students have clear – and high – expectations; they receive appropriate guidance and enthusiastic support: Learning best occurs when learners are expected to learn and when they are supported in their learning. An effective educational program must begin with explicitly-stated, expected outcomes, such as the Common Core State Standards and CWC’s Graduate Dispositions, and be monitored by appropriate assessments. Ongoing communication among students, faculty, and families facilitates each student’s learning in the context of these stated objectives. Teachers scaffold the learning of students and differentiate instruction in order to lead all students to academic growth and achievement. CWC Hollywood sets high expectations for student learning, grounded in state and national standards. We regularly assess progress towards meeting them, celebrate milestones along the way, and provide supplemental instruction as needed.

Students are motivated to seek understanding through dynamic investigation and exploration in the context of real world scenarios and projects: Learning best occurs when children are self-motivated and inspired to answer questions that have meaning and relevance for them across disciplines and distinct state standards groupings. Project-based learning capitalizes on students’ natural curiosities and methods of exploring the world around them. CWC Hollywood implements project-based learning as one of our core instructional techniques.

Instruction is informed by a robust assessment system, in which standardized tests provide only a small part of the picture in determining student achievement: Assessment provides a means to identify achievement, progress, and deficits in student learning, as well as strengths and weaknesses of instructional and curricular practices. Assessment should be ongoing and holistic with effective data systems that can help educators continually assess and refine their curriculum’s impact on each individual child throughout the school year. CWC Hollywood implements clear goals for student learning, administers standards-based assessments, and monitors progress toward meeting those goals.

Students know how to collaborate, cooperate, and negotiate with diverse people and understand others’ perspectives: In our rapidly developing, technologically-driven world, it is more imperative than at any other time in human history that people be open to the perspectives, values, and meanings of different cultures. As students age and develop, their learning—tied to state standards—similarly grows in perspective from the local neighborhood to the city, state, nation, and world. CWC Hollywood enrolls a student body that is diverse racially, ethnically, and socio-economically. One of the core tenets of our Charter School design is diversity. CWC Hollywood has a track record of attracting and retaining a diverse student population that mirrors their surrounding diverse community. CWC Hollywood implements instructional practices, such as project-based learning, small group work, and peer review that provide opportunities for students to collaborate among their peers.

Students have opportunities to develop and demonstrate understanding among the multiple intelligences: As discussed in this petition regarding the research of Howard Gardner, a comprehensive academic program should support the development of students’ capacity across the spectrum of intelligences. CWC Hollywood implements a rich instructional framework that supports students in developing in multiple intelligences. For example, project-based learning requires students to work in groups and provides practice for interpersonal intelligence. Metacognitive modeling supports students in the development of intrapersonal intelligence. Balanced literacy develops linguistic intelligence. CWC Hollywood offers music, physical education (P.E.) and art to develop musical, bodily-kinesthetic, and spatial intelligences to all students.

Teachers are given ample resources— including time and training— to develop their skills and talents, supported by school leaders and their peers: In order to ensure the highest quality instruction for CWC Hollywood students, we must invest in the capacity of our teachers. Teachers should be provided ample time, resources, and support to continuously develop their understanding, pedagogy, and skills, to collaborate with faculty both in our Charter School and at other schools, and to consistently be learners themselves in the context of our school community. CWC Hollywood implements a robust professional development program that embodies our theories of how learning best occurs. Regularly scheduled shortened days allow for frequent professional development in addition to ongoing coaching and observation. Our professional development, both during our early release days and our Summer Institute, often include outside educators and trainers who provide specific subject area expertise aimed at supporting our teachers’ learning within a particular subject area. Additionally, CWC Hollywood develops a weekly schedule that has ample common planning time, which allows for a great deal of collaboration among peers. To support their ongoing learning, CWC Hollywood teachers are provided rich professional resources, allowing teachers to draw from these to supplement their curricular maps. Our professional resources, in addition to the core curricular materials we use, make certain that our program is as innovative and as rigorous as possible in meeting all state standards. Our professional resources are regularly updated to ensure CWC Hollywood draws from the most current research and body of curriculum to execute our model of instruction.

INSTRUCTIONAL DESIGN

CWC Hollywood implements curriculum based on proven models within the CWC LA region as well as some of the leading schools in California and beyond. Our instructional framework (curriculum and instructional strategies) is informed by our philosophies about how learning best occurs and what it means to be an educated person in the 21st century (described more fully above). Our overarching goal is to ensure that as each student masters the state standards across each discipline, each student also develops in each of the Graduate Dispositions.

EDUCATIONAL THEORIES AND RESEARCH

CWC Hollywood has developed and successfully implemented our instructional framework with the end goal of laying the foundation so that students graduate equipped not only to survive but also to thrive in the 21st century. First, we have selected curricular resources that align with the CCSS and the NGSS. For the subjects that are not yet available by these standards, we have chosen curricular programs that both: (1) are specifically aligned with the CCSS, NGSS, and remaining State Content Standards; and (2) are likely to support the development of the 21st century skills articulated in the Common Core State Standards.

Second, we have selected instructional techniques that promote the competencies identified by Wagner and captured in the CCSS. Several examples are noted below and discussed in more detail later in this section.

- BALANCED LITERACY, with its emphasis on authentic reading and writing of text, supports the capacity for effective oral and written communication.
- PROJECT-BASED LEARNING develops the capacity to collaborate across networks and lead by influence. Students work in groups with and without identified leaders. In whole class projects, they work within and across small groups. Within those groups are other students whose backgrounds are substantially different from their own.
- RICH REPERTOIRE OF INSTRUCTIONAL STRATEGIES that CWC Hollywood teachers employ and that require very different responses from students. These demands prod them to develop agility and adaptability.

In addition, CWC Hollywood emphasizes Howard Gardner’s Multiple Intelligence Theory, embracing the notion that an educated person in the 21st Century is one who has developed a broad range of skills and interests across each of Gardner’s eight (8) areas of intelligence.

As Gardner explains: “I believe the human cognitive competence is better described in terms of a set of abilities, talents or mental skills, which I call Intelligences. All normal individuals possess each of these skills to some extent; individuals differ in the degree of skill and in the nature of their combination...Intelligences always work in concert, and any sophisticated adult role will involve a melding of several of them.” (Gardner, Multiple Intelligences: New Horizons, 2006)

Gardner has identified eight (8) areas of intelligence:

1. Linguistic Intelligence involves sensitivity to spoken and written language, including the ability to use language to accomplish certain goals; to listen perceptively and read critically; to learn languages; to express one’s self persuasively or poetically.
2. Logical-Mathematical Intelligence is most often associated with scientific and mathematical thinking; the ability to detect patterns, reason deductively, and think logically, conceptually, and abstractly; the interest in experimentation, puzzles, investigations, and cosmic questions.
3. Musical Intelligence involves the capacity to distinguish the whole realm of sound and, in particular, to discern, appreciate, and apply the various aspects of music (pitch, rhythm, timber, and mood), both separately and holistically.
4. Bodily-Kinesthetic Intelligence involves the ability to use one’s body in highly differentiated and skilled ways, for both goal-oriented and expressive purposes; the capacity to exercise fine and gross motor control of one’s body.
5. Spatial Intelligence involves the ability to accurately perceive the visual world and to re-create, manipulate, and modify aspects of one’s perceptions, even in the absence of the relevant visual stimuli.
6. Interpersonal Intelligence relates to the ability to work cooperatively and to communicate, verbally and non-verbally, with other people; the insight to understand others’ intentions, motivations, and desires; and the judgment to recognize the biases underlying sources of information.
7. Intrapersonal Intelligence involves the ability to understand oneself; the motivation and focus to study independently; the wisdom to reflect.
8. Naturalist Intelligence involves the ability to recognize, collect, analyze, and classify plants, minerals, animals, flora, fauna, and even cultural objects such as cars and sneakers. Those who excel in Natural Intelligence exhibit a greater sensitivity to nature and their place within it, the ability to nurture and grow things, and care for animals.

Our Instructional Framework is comprised of two core components: Curriculum Planning and Instructional Strategies. The first subsection below provides a description of CWC Hollywood’s approaches to curriculum planning, including alignment with national and state standards, curriculum design, and selection of curriculum resources.

RESEARCH-BASED INSTRUCTIONAL PROGRAM HAS SUCCEEDED WITH SIMILAR POPULATIONS

Our curricular choices and instructional methodologies, including balanced literacy and project-based learning, are not new. Rather, they are research-based, proven models of high-quality education for diverse populations in numerous schools throughout the country.

Our student population is highly diverse, as demonstrated through a comparison of the Charter School’s student population and the community demographics described above. Our students arrive at CWC Hollywood with a varied set of strengths and challenges in addition to racial, socio-economic and cultural diversity. Our instructional approach assumes that it will be our job to learn about our students via the assessments and assessment practices presented in Element 2 and Element 3, as well as through ongoing observations of student work and students at work. Our curriculum planning process, detailed below, considers what we know about past student performance in relationship to the standards that they are to master. Our flexible instructional strategies, also presented below, allow us to be responsive to student needs as revealed by assessment and observation.

All aspects of our curriculum is carefully designed and based on extensive research supporting our choices as “best practices.” Further, we have collaborated extensively with similar schools that educate a mixed-socioeconomic status population with similar curricula to ours and have recognized tremendous success in their initial years of operation. Our collaborations have included Larchmont Charter School, The City School, and Multicultural Learning Center, among other schools. Our collaboration has included sharing resources, school visits, staff collaboration and other initiatives. Our primary focus is collaborating with the other schools in the CWC LA region. As such, CWC Hollywood participates in the organized and regular collaboration sessions and series of professional development meetings with the other existing schools in the CWC LA region. In addition, CWC Hollywood works to have teachers collaborate with staff at other charter schools throughout the region.

Most importantly, the key to our instructional methodologies is a focus on individualized instruction, tailored to student need, as opposed to instruction being driven by school or teacher needs. We believe that all children can succeed and achieve state standards mastery, regardless of their background or circumstances when they enter our school. The challenge for us, as educators, is to discover the means with which to help each individual child achieve his or her full potential. By using these active learning strategies, and with a strong focus on data and ongoing multi-faceted assessments to inform instruction, we are confident that all of our sub-groups and individual students will succeed.

CURRICULUM AND INSTRUCTION

The following subsections present CWC Hollywood’s approach to curriculum and instruction. We begin with affirmations that our curriculum is aligned with national and state standards, followed by our processes for curriculum planning, a description of our curricular materials, and guidelines for selecting additional curricular materials in the future.

SCOPE AND SEQUENCE ALIGNED WITH NATIONAL AND STATE STANDARDS

CWC Hollywood aligns all curricular planning with the CCSS and the NGSS. English Language Arts and Mathematics curricula are aligned to the CCSS in ELA and Mathematics. Science (and to the degree it is relevant in other content areas) aligns with the NGSS. Social Studies and other content areas focus primarily on the History-Social Science Framework and California State Standards with references to the CCSS.

“BACKWARDS DESIGN” OF CURRICULUM

CWC Hollywood teachers plan units of study collaboratively with an emphasis on mastering the California State Standards using the ‘backwards design’ guidelines described in Understanding by Design (Wiggins & McTighe, 1998). This strategy advises teachers to “begin with the question: What would we accept as evidence that students have attained the desired understandings and proficiencies – before proceeding to plan teaching and learning experiences." There are three (3) steps to this process:

1. IDENTIFY DESIRED RESULTS: Beginning with the CCSS, teachers determine a tiered hierarchical set of learning expectations:
• Enduring understandings: How will students internalize the standards such that they are linked to an authentically meaningful big picture understanding of the material?

• Information and skills worthy of familiarity: What prior knowledge do my students need to make meaning of this new information? What foundational knowledge and skills do students need to master this material?

As teachers select and prioritize these learning expectations, they are guided by thinking about the extent to which the idea, topic, or process (1) represents a ‘big idea’ having enduring value beyond the classroom, (2) resides at the heart of the discipline, and (3) is tied directly to state standards and standardized testing.

2. ALIGNING ASSESSMENTS TO THE DESIRED RESULTS: Recognizing that teachers are shaping their standards-based instruction into larger projects and thematic units, it is essential that they assess mastery in an explicit way. Teachers assess throughout the unit of study using a variety of methods including both formative and summative assessments. Methods include quizzes or tests aligned with the style students encounter on standardized assessments as well as more comprehensive or authentic checks for understanding such as informal checks, student observation, 1:1 conferencing, performance tasks, and projects. Teachers match an appropriate assessment method to each standard and establish and articulate clear criteria for reaching proficient performance.

3. DIFFERENTIATING INSTRUCTION TO MEET THE NEEDS OF ALL LEARNERS: Now that the learning expectations (knowledge and skills) are identified, teachers work together to determine the most effective teaching methods and select the appropriate materials and resources to achieve their goals with all of their students. Teachers design innovative instructional strategies by differentiating the content, process, and products delivered to students in order to provide equal access for all learners (including ELs and students with special needs). Teachers write effective standards-aligned lesson plans and utilize a repertoire of research-based instructional strategies to increase student achievement.

As teachers implement their lesson plans, they continuously assess their own efficacy and impact with individual students in the classroom utilizing specific data and analysis of sub-groups. Our instructional program is driven by student data gathered by the teachers in order to make informed decisions about assessment, curriculum, pedagogy, and student services. Teachers continuously look at student work and questions in order to inform, structure, and refine their instructional practice. Based on concepts of “action research,” teachers are trained to take an analytical approach to teaching and learning. Teachers act as researchers in their classrooms to test hypotheses, gather data, and draw conclusions about their instructional practices. Teachers then are expected to base their pedagogical decision-making on collective research and to share best practices regularly both within their grades and across grades. In addition, teachers are able to draw upon the extensive planning and materials already developed by teachers from CWC Hollywood and the other CWC LA schools. In effect, our teachers form a true community of learners as they take a more reflective and analytical approach to their instruction.

Student portfolios play an important role in this process. Once data is gathered through formal assessments (e.g., NWEA) and informal assessments (e.g., teacher-created unit assessments), teachers dig deeper into collections of students’ work to inform their understanding of each child’s strengths and challenges with the material. When learning is documented, children can also revisit and interpret their learning experiences and reflect on how to develop these experiences further. Teachers are able to interpret and reflect retrospectively on each student’s individual progress and also use this documentation toward the creation of future contexts for learning. Teachers learn about their own roles in learning groups (e.g., when to intervene and when to stand back) and factors that contribute to making a learning group effective. Documentation of learning groups provides insight into what students are working on and how teachers might help them move forward in their work. Finally, reviewing documentation influences curriculum in terms of the amount of time a group spends on a topic and the level of student involvement in shaping an activity or unit.

These teaching methodologies place significant responsibility on our faculty, and CWC Hollywood utilizes several strategies for addressing these demands. First, in hiring teachers, we recruit and assess for capacity and interest in creating curriculum. (For some teachers, this will be a much-desired prospect; for others, an additional burden. We ensure that we hire teachers who are motivated by the opportunity and capable of fulfilling it.) Second, all teachers participate in guided professional development during the Summer Institute and frequent portions of the on-going professional development blocks during early release professional development on Wednesdays (please see further description on professional development below). Third, teachers meet as grade-level teams to collaborate around unit planning and discuss how students are progressing in each content area to inform future instruction. Finally, the CWC LA Regional Support Office (i.e., the home office supporting all schools in the CWC LA region) has several leaders who support all of these processes, systems and supports for teachers to effectively implement these methodologies.

Furthermore, we foster a strong sense of teacher autonomy and collaboration, while creating a school-wide mindset for school improvement – a professional problem-solving ethos. Reflection and self-assessment among the faculty instills a commitment to continuous improvement. This process is empowering for those who participate, especially because teachers no longer uncritically accept theories, innovations, and programs at face value. Above all, this emphasis on teachers’ growth and development coming through an analysis and learning about student results promotes student achievement. CWC Hollywood ensures that all members of our faculty receive appropriate training, support, time, and resources to develop their skills and engage fully in our processes.

CURRICULUM RESOURCES AND MATERIALS

CWC Hollywood uses the following materials aligned with the state standards, including CCSS, to deliver the curriculum. In years ahead, resource selection may change upon a thorough review of curriculum options. All curricular and instructional materials will be aligned to state content and performance standards, including CCSS.

CWC Hollywood respects teachers and wishes to empower them to be the most effective educators possible. Therefore, purchased curricular materials are a basis upon which teachers build. During the blocks of time when subject-specific lessons occur, teachers draw upon the resources described below and other resources they deem appropriate for their students. In this way, teachers are able to utilize the “Backward Design” (Wiggins, McTighe, 2005) methodology of devising lesson plans, learning outcomes and assessments in broad strokes in advance. However, for instruction to be truly effective, lesson plans need to be constantly revised to accommodate new assessment information (data informed instruction), and lessons need to be customized to suit the learning needs of individual students (Differentiated Instruction). In order to implement both data informed and differentiated instruction, teachers receive professional development experiences and administrative guidance in designing purposeful assessments, making objective observations, and adjusting instruction and curriculum to best serve student needs.

We have chosen the following curricular programs, with the following curricular progression and skills that are aligned to CCSS and state standards, to form the core basis of our instruction:

LITERACY AND ELD (CORE): As the CA ELA/ELD framework outlines, “All teachers with EL students in their classrooms will use the CA ELD standards to determine how to support their students in achieving the CCSS for ELA/Literacy and the content standards specific to each discipline.” We employ an asset-based lens (i.e., looking at strengths) towards multilingualism that linguistically and culturally diverse students bring to school. We support students in maintaining their primary language, as it serves as both an asset and a connection to their homes and communities while continuing to develop their skills in English as an additional language. Classroom teachers are responsible for providing designated ELD instruction. In instances when EL students require additional support, EL students work with an additional adult (e.g., Teaching Associate, reading specialist, etc.) to receive support in ELA/ELD, grouped together by ELD level when appropriate and during a time of the day when whole-class ELA instruction is not occurring. CWC Hollywood uses a high quality curriculum to provide standards-based instruction in all areas of literacy. The following curricular materials are used to teach reading and writing:

- The Continuum of Literacy Learning, TK-5 (Heinemann): The Continuum of Literacy and Learning is fully aligned with the CCSS. However, it is much more detailed than these state and national standards and, as such, it presents a means to make the standards more specific as a basis for instructional objectives. There are seven (7) continua which focus on each area of Language Arts:
  - Interactive Read Aloud and Literature Discussion
  - Shared and Performance Reading
  - Writing About Reading
  - Writing
  - Oral, Visual, and Technological Communication
  - Phonics, Spelling, and Word Study
  - Guided Reading

Each continuum lists specific behaviors and understandings that are required at each level for students to demonstrate thinking within, beyond, and about the text. The seven (7) continua provide grade level expectations and are designed for planning group instruction. Fountas and Pinnell’s guide “addresses broad goals but presents finely detailed and specific statements of behaviors and understandings that literate students should demonstrate (and that the teacher should teach) at each grade level and at each level of a gradient of text difficulty (A to Z).”

The Continuum provides the framework for teaching expectations. In other parts of Element 1, we provide additional information on the instructional techniques that will be used to teach the objectives outlined in the Continuum and specifically selected based on assessment of student performance.

The primary resources to teach these objectives and to allow for student practice come from our book libraries. CWC Hollywood has book libraries comprised of leveled texts and literature. Our leveled reading library is composed of collections from Fountas and Pinnell Leveled Books\(^{15}\), in addition to balanced literacy publishers such as Wright Group, Rigby and Scholastic.

In kindergarten and grade 1, teachers rely primarily on leveled readers and large-scale print from big books and charts. Students in grades 2-5, in addition to the leveled readers, participate in literature units. In all cases, the units are based on CCSS and draw extensively on the types of text, (e.g. expository, historical fiction, realistic fiction) as required by CCSS and the California State Standards.

\(^{15}\) http://www.fountasandpinnellleveledbooks.com/

Students read, listen to, analyze and enjoy a wide variety of texts. The texts vary with the unit of study, and teachers access those texts from classroom libraries and online resources. Over the course of the year, this rich selection includes a wide variety of both fiction and non-fiction genres including literature, newspaper articles, and multiple forms of poetry. What remains consistent is that more complex texts are utilized for read-aloud and shared reading in which the teacher provides more support so that students can engage with more difficult texts. Students read grade-appropriate texts in literature circles and independent reading.

- The Units of Study in Opinion; Information and Narrative Writing (TK-5): The detailed curricular plans for each grade (TK-5) serves as the primary resource for establishing and supporting a writing curriculum within the structure of a writing workshop. These curricular materials, developed by Lucy Calkins and her colleagues at the Teachers College Reading and Writing Project, provide the basis for writing instruction within the language arts program. In writing workshop, students become powerful writers. They learn to observe the world within and around them, write drafts, revise, edit, and present polished and well-crafted pieces of writing. For our purposes, we focus on the writing strand and its College and Career Readiness Anchor Standards. The College and Career Reading Anchor Standards are identical across grades and are translated into grade-specific standards that present grade-appropriate end-of-year expectations.

- The Units of Study for Teaching Reading (TK-5): This series is a grade-by-grade curriculum in reading designed to meet ambitious 21st century global standards, and is designed by Lucy Calkins and her colleagues at the Teachers College Reading and Writing Project. Drawing on learning gleaned from decades of research, curriculum development, and working shoulder-to-shoulder with students, teachers, and school leaders, this reading series is rooted in the Project’s best practices. It includes state-of-the-art tools and methods for teaching reading, undergirded by the Project’s learning progressions in reading for literature and informational texts.

The overarching goal for TK-5 English Language Arts instruction is to ensure that students are able to develop and utilize improved communication skills, vocabularies, and writing abilities in an authentic manner. Using the ELA/ELD Framework as a guide, teachers organize instruction around the five (5) key themes:

- Meaning Making
- Language Development
- Effective Expression
- Content Knowledge
- Foundational Skills

These crosscutting themes signify the interrelated nature of the strands of both sets of standards and present them in an integrated context. Emphasis is placed on building and strengthening a balance of all of the English Language Arts skill sets, all aligned to the CCSS, in listening, speaking, reading, researching, and writing. The ELA curriculum is designed to provide a broad range of instruction in reading, literature, writing, listening and speaking, and language conventions.

These also emphasize the writing process necessary for clear and effective academic writing, as students work in various genres from narratives to research papers. Students become familiar with the elements and techniques of literature, including plot, setting, character, narrator and voice, theme, irony, foreshadowing, and symbolism. They learn to become literary critics of poetry, drama, short stories, and novels. These efforts are supported by grammar and vocabulary practice. Use of inquiry and the discovery process encourages students to fully challenge and engage their diverse learning styles. This experience-centered approach mirrors the learning required at the college level and in real life.

Across grades TK-3, ELA skills and content are addressed both in the regular classroom and in small, multi-age reading groups. Reading groups support the early development of phonemic awareness, phonics, and fluency. Classroom teachers integrate additional focus on vocabulary and comprehension with reading and writing instruction across the curriculum.

ELA in grades 4-5 incorporates literature circles and reader’s workshop approach to further develop vocabulary and comprehension with both fiction and nonfiction. In addition, students start to explore meaningful outputs of effective expressions by engaging in activities with authentic audiences utilizing strategies such as Reader’s Theater, playwriting, filmmaking, and storytelling.

MATHEMATICS (CORE): The math model that is implemented allows for teachers to facilitate learning around the grade level mathematical content standards while putting the Mathematical Practices of the CCSS at the forefront of the work. Curriculum tools are carefully designed to build on these skills, giving students opportunities to make sense of problems and persevere in solving them through multi-day, rich mathematical problems. An example of such a tool includes Everyday Math, which contains a number of features that distinguishes it from other math curriculum. These features include:

- Real-life Problem Solving
- Balanced Instruction
- Multiple Methods for Basic Skills Practice and Computational Fluency
- Emphasis on Communication
- Enhanced Partnerships Between Families and School

Additionally, Cognitively Guided Instruction (“CGI”) problem solving is incorporated throughout our math instruction. CGI is an educational philosophy that capitalizes on over 20 years of research showing that students come to school with rich informal systems of mathematical knowledge and problem-solving strategies that serve as a basis for learning mathematics. CGI differs from rote instruction in that it puts the focus on students’ mathematical thinking. Teachers learning to use CGI strategies experience intensive professional learning about how to engage students in mathematical dialogue. As a result of CGI, students are empowered to explain their reasoning, justify their solution strategies, and thus build a deeper collective mathematical understanding.

The general progression of content skill development might look like:

- TRANSITIONAL KINDERGARTEN/KINDERGARTEN: Students focus on two critical areas: representing and comparing whole numbers, and describing shapes and space. Students learn the number names and how to count in sequence, count objects, and compare numbers. They begin to understand that addition is putting together and adding to, where subtraction is taking apart and taking from.
- FIRST & SECOND GRADES: Students begin to represent and solve problems involving addition and subtraction within 20. Students work with addition and subtraction equations and extend their knowledge of the counting sequence. They develop their understanding of place value and the properties of operations to add and subtract. Students measure and estimate lengths in standard units and relate addition and subtraction to length.

- THIRD GRADE: The focus shifts to multiplication and division. Students represent and solve problems involving multiplication and division within 100 and develop an understanding of the properties of multiplication and the relationship between multiplication and division. Students begin to solve problems involving the four (4) operations, and identify and explain patterns in arithmetic. They develop an understanding of fractions as numbers, and solve problems involving measurement and estimation of intervals of time, liquid volumes, and masses of objects.

- FOURTH GRADE: Students continue using the four (4) operations with whole numbers to solve problems. They generalize place value understanding for multi-digit whole numbers and use place value understanding and properties of operations to perform multi-digit arithmetic. They extend understanding of fraction equivalence and ordering, then build fractions from unit fractions by applying and extending previous understandings of operations. They learn to use decimal notation for fractions, and compare decimals and fractions.

- FIFTH GRADE: Students develop an understanding of the place value system. They perform operations with multi-digit whole numbers and decimals to hundredths. They use equivalent fractions as a strategy to add and subtract fractions. They apply and extend previous understandings of multiplication and division to multiply and divide fractions. In Geometry, they learn to understand the concept of volume and relate volume to multiplication and addition. They also begin to graph points in the coordinate plane to solve real-world and mathematical problems.

SCIENCE (CORE): The Full Option Science System (“FOSS”) learning modules created for California are utilized in grade levels when needed for interdisciplinary projects. Delta Education has revised the FOSS kits to align with NGSS. Since the FOSS NGSS kits align with many social studies, language arts, and mathematics standards, their use ensures that students are taught a curriculum that meets California expectations for science education. In addition, FOSS incorporates strategies for taking advantage of opportunities to exercise math skills and practice some language skills in the context of science.

The FOSS system supports our constructivist model as it is based on the idea that the best way for students to appreciate scientific enterprise, learn scientific concepts, and develop the ability to think critically is to actively construct ideas through their own inquiry, investigation, and analysis. This mode of learning science creates students who are engaged with the scientific process of learning, which requires questioning, investigating, and analyzing.

In addition, the FOSS investigations are supported by science texts. Instead of beginning with text, FOSS science texts are intended to be read after initial investigations. A rich database of books for download and other supplementary materials, FOSS Science Stories, is available online for schools and school districts that use the FOSS system. Included in these materials are:

- Historical and biographical readings
- Fictional tales, myths, and stories about kids doing interesting things with science principles in an interesting context
- Expository reading to add detail and to extend the knowledge gained from direct experience
- Technical readings in which students follow instructions or technical explanations of scientific principle
It further supports literacy through expository writing, final assessments and oral reports.

The CWC Hollywood science curriculum is, at its core, inquiry-based. Students engage in science via exposure to real world concepts and cross-curricular themes, and regularly apply critical thinking skills and test new ideas and hypotheses through labs and experimentation. Specific content includes physical science, life science, and earth systems science. Students learn to explore the world around them through an inquiry-based approach. Across all grade levels, students ask questions, make observations and discoveries, gather data, analyze explanations, and communicate results and scientific arguments. The program is fully aligned to NGSS.

With our constructivist approach to curriculum development and instructional strategies, and through our unique constructivist framework, the science curriculum and scientific thinking is woven effectively throughout the curriculum and integrated meaningfully with the ELA, mathematics, and social studies curriculum.

At the elementary level, students engage in scientific exploration and observation through hands-on, integrated projects. Supporting instruction with FOSS kits, teachers develop thematic projects to address all of the standards content. Emphasis is placed on developing scientific methodology at increasing developmental levels.

Methods of all science courses include the tools of science (e.g., technology, hands-on materials) and support the development of the reading, writing, analysis, and communication skills students need to become science-literate. Students tackle problems and challenges in science in varied ways (e.g., investigations, models), using critical thinking and problem solving to reach decisions grounded in knowledge and logic.

The general progression of content skill development might look like:

- TK: Five senses, plant life, water: floating and sinking
- K: Materials and motions, trees and weather, and animals two by two
- GRADE 1: Sound and light, air and weather, and plants and animals
- GRADE 2: Solids and liquids, pebbles, sand and silt, and insects and plants
- GRADE 3: Motion and matter, water and climate, and structures of life
- GRADE 4: Energy, soil, rocks and landforms, and environments
- GRADE 5: Mixtures and solutions, earth and sun, and living system

SOCIAL STUDIES (CORE): Teachers use the “backwards design” method, beginning with identifying the state standards to be addressed and determining which materials should be used. Curriculum planning maps are revised on an on-going basis through teacher work groups and based on student assessment results.

The History/Social Studies curriculum at CWC Hollywood is based on California content standards and aims to provide students with rigorous, inquiry-based, and experience-centered lessons and classes that allow students to acquire core knowledge in history and the social sciences. At all grade levels, students work to “think like historians and social scientists” so they recognize connections to the present and the past in order to reach a greater understanding of themselves and the world around them.

Social studies is integrated across the curriculum through a project-based approach. Addressing all content standards, students study and explore themes and concepts of history, economics, and the broader social sciences by engaging in life-based activities, re-enactments, field trips, and research projects. Strong emphasis is placed on the integration of reading and writing skills.
across the curriculum through the use of first source materials, emphasis on comprehension skills for nonfiction, and research strategies.

The inquiry units are based on the themes outlined in the History-Social Science Framework and might look like:

- TK: Growing up Healthy
- KINDERGARTEN: Community and Relationships
- GRADE ONE: Diversity and Interdependence
- GRADE TWO: Understanding Change: Evolutionary, Technological and Social Justice Change
- GRADE THREE: Survival and Sustainability
- GRADE FOUR: Growth and Perspective
- GRADE FIVE: Understanding Systems

VISUAL AND PERFORMING ARTS (NON-CORE): CWC Hollywood hires individuals/companies for our performing arts instruction. These individuals/companies provide necessary equipment and materials as well (e.g., musical instruments). We facilitate visual arts instruction through available materials and supplies (paper, paints, pencils, scissors, etc.).

HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION (NON-CORE): The goal for the physical and health education curriculum is to promote healthy lifestyles among students and their families through the development of positive physical and mental habits. The physical education and health curriculum covers the following strands: movement skills and knowledge, self-image and personal development, and social development. In addition to the development and enhancement of physical skills, human development is a central part of the health curriculum.

The physical education program at CWC Hollywood emphasizes individual motor skills, fitness and good sportsmanship. Students in grade five participate in the standardized Physical Fitness Testing, and the California Fitnessgram, which includes aerobic capacity, body composition, abdominal strength, trunk extension strength, and upper body strength and flexibility.

Age-appropriate health education lessons are incorporated into the academic curriculum taught by the physical education teacher(s). As part of health education, students in grades K-5 learn about maintaining proper health by developing responsible lifelong habits in and out of the classroom. The knowledge and skills important for students to know and do might include: types of food and nutritional values, exploration of food labels, eating patterns among certain cultures, long-term consequences of dietary habits, and variables that affect dietary requirements, such as age, amount of activity level, weight and other health conditions.

SOCIAL AND EMOTIONAL LEARNING (NON-CORE): CWC Hollywood believes that Social and Emotional Learning (“SEL”) is integral to academic success and is one of the innovative elements of the Charter School’s program. A number of tools are blended together to create a SEL program that is aligned to the Graduate Dispositions framework and specifically develops skills in:

- Self-recognition and self-management of one’s emotions
- An understanding of others, including empathy and perspective-taking
- Decision making, problem solving and resolving conflict
Mindfulness will be at the core of our SEL program. Through designated SEL sessions and in an environment dedicated to social and emotional intelligence, children learn how to be happier and healthier, thereby working and learning effectively.

Social and emotional learning materials include the Cool Tools program and supplementary curriculum resources such as Second Step, MindUp, and Connected and Respected. Some assessments such as the SELWeb may be used to monitor student progress in this area.

TRANSITIONAL KINDERGARTEN: We believe that students who are enrolled in transitional kindergarten ("TK") should have time and space to develop intellectual and social-emotional skills and abilities so that they have a solid foundation and are confident to begin kindergarten the following year. When justified by enrollment, we have a separate TK classroom and curriculum so that we can meet the needs of each individual student and create a cohesive classroom community. We estimate that we will have one stand-alone classroom of TK each year in our enrollment roll-out. During this TK year, students work toward the kindergarten standards, using age and developmentally appropriate instructional strategies, and kindergarten curriculum materials.

SELECTION OF ADDITIONAL CURRICULAR MATERIALS

Teachers meet and advise the Principal as to areas of need and recommended books and materials for the following year. The curricular purchases are implemented by the administration and purchased well enough in advance to ensure timely implementation. Most importantly, all curricular materials must have a proven record with our targeted student population and must have been developed through sound, research-based methods that utilize the latest information on teaching, learning and brain functions.

We also draw on our experiences in prior years and at other CWC LA schools. CWC Hollywood assesses students' progress in each of the curriculur areas (as detailed in Elements 2 and 3 below). The analysis of student performance data, supplemented by observation of instruction and teachers' reflections, indicates if there are ways in which the curricular materials need to be revised or supplemented. Furthermore, as we select additional curricular resources, we turn to our network of successful schools to ask about the materials that they have used, their success with those materials, and the areas in need of being supplemented.

Curricular materials also are analyzed from the perspective of the whole educational program and in relation to lessons and assessments that are associated with curricular programs. Decisions will be made in light of the following questions:

1. Does its design and content clearly connect to or support a standards based curriculum?
2. Is interactive learning promoted and is the child's construction of knowledge encouraged?
3. Does it help achieve social, emotional, physical, and cognitive goals?
4. Does it encourage development of positive feelings and dispositions toward learning while leading to acquisition of knowledge and skills?
5. Is it meaningful for these children? Is it relevant to the children's lives? Can it be made more relevant by relating it to a personal experience children have had or can they easily gain direct experience with it?
6. Are the expectations realistic and attainable at this time, or could the children more easily and efficiently acquire the knowledge or skills later on?
7. Is it of interest to children and to the teacher?
8. Is it sensitive to and respectful of cultural and linguistic diversity? Does it expect, allow, and appreciate individual differences? Does it promote positive relationships with families?

9. Does it build on and elaborate upon children’s current knowledge and abilities?

10. Does it lead to conceptual understanding by helping children construct their own understanding in meaningful contexts?

11. Does it facilitate integration of content across traditional subject matter areas?

12. Is the information presented accurate and credible according to the recognized standards of the relevant discipline?

13. Is this content worth knowing? Can it be learned by these children efficiently and effectively now?

14. Does it foster children’s exploration and inquiry, rather than focusing on “right” answers or “right” ways to complete a task?

15. Does it promote the development of higher-order abilities such as thinking, reasoning, problem solving, and decision-making?

16. Does it respect children’s physiological needs for activity, sensory stimulation, fresh air, rest, and nourishment/elimination?¹⁶

Curriculum, materials, and instructional activities are selected by teachers, the Principal, and relevant outside consultants (e.g., special education consultants) based on their relevance and appropriateness, alignment with standards, our definition of an educated person in the 21st century, and goals of the school as a whole. Choices must be compatible with the Charter School’s emphasis on active learning strategies, investigation, and assessments. Supplementary and enrichment resources are chosen at the discretion of the teacher, and must be used in a way that is compatible with the Charter School’s educational philosophy.

All instructional activities are developed in alignment with the stated goals and measurable student outcomes of CWC Hollywood.

INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS AND STRATEGIES

The following subsections present CWC Hollywood’s approach to instructional strategies. We begin by emphasizing our belief that teachers should have a repertoire of strategies at their disposal and offer numerous examples. Then we present two of those instructional techniques in more detail: balanced literacy and project-based learning.

RICH REPERTOIRE OF INSTRUCTIONAL TECHNIQUES

Constructivism is a theory about learning, not a description of teaching. No ‘cookbook teaching style’ or set of instructional techniques can be abstracted from the theory and proposed as a constructivist approach to teaching. Instead, teachers use instructional techniques flexibly to promote the construction of students’ understanding.

The skilled teachers at CWC Hollywood utilize a rich repertoire of instructional strategies. In consideration of what s/he plans to teach and what students already know and previous instruction, s/he selects the appropriate instructional technique. In addition to the project-based learning and balanced literacy methods presented below, methodologies draw from:

¹⁶ National Association for the Education of Young Children (“NAEYC”) and the National Association of Early Childhood Specialists in State Departments of Education (“NAECS/SDE”).
Dynamic and Varied Grouping: The practice of “pigeon-holing” students in stagnant groups for an entire school year or semester is often a detriment for the student. Research supports practices where instructional groupings are varied from homogeneous to heterogeneous and changed often, as the students’ capacities develop (numerous citations, such as Tieso, 2005). Parents of young children recognize that their children can make great leaps in development seemingly “overnight” – our groupings of students will be fluid in recognition of this reality.

Targeted Re-teaching: When formal or informal assessments reveal that one or more student(s) are struggling with a particular skill or concept, those students receive targeted instruction that re-teaches that skill or concept. This instruction may be a single, brief lesson to correct a misconception, or multiple sessions to address a more complex concern. Our staffing structure allows for a variety of small group instructional methods by offering small group instructional support by the teacher while the assistant (where applicable) monitors independent work, partner games and activities, and technology-guided instruction throughout the classroom.

Small Group Intervention: CWC Hollywood is intentionally designed to have a low teacher-to-student ratio to enable extensive small-group instruction every day. Teachers and teaching associates (where applicable) lead small group intervention lessons for students with specific needs.

Peer Tutoring and Cross Age Tutoring: Tutoring fellow students in one’s own classroom and at other grade levels is an effective strategy for enhanced learning in literacy, as well as in academic areas. While a variety of both cross-age and peer tutoring models are used successfully to benefit both the student tutor and the student being tutored, student-to-student tutoring will not be the primary means for supporting students who are struggling academically. That remains the responsibility of the classroom teacher (supported by the Teaching Associate, where applicable). The teacher monitors students’ progress according to the assessments and assessment procedures outlined in Element 2 and Element 3.

Metacognition: Teachers share their thoughts on how they approach and complete a task or arrive at a conclusion, helping students become aware of their own thinking. This is called metacognition. Successful students are able to understand and be aware of the most effective strategies they need in order to study and learn. Teachers help less successful students by modeling effective learning strategies for them, showing them how and when to use these strategies and teaching them why they are important for their success.

Direct Instruction: As an instructional strategy, direct instruction responds to students’ needs by focusing directly on the skills required to be successful in school and ensuring that these skills are learned (Better Thinking and Learning, Maryland State Department of Education). Students can learn high-level concepts if they know how to learn, how to question, how to access prior knowledge, and how to integrate new knowledge. The elements of Direct Instruction include:

- Clearly communicating goals for students
- Structuring academic tasks for students
- Demonstrating the steps necessary to accomplish a particular academic task
- Monitoring student progress
Providing student practice and teacher feedback to ensure success

Holding students accountable for their work through frequent teacher review

TEACHER LECTURE: A familiar and effective method for teaching when used judiciously and appropriately is teacher lecture. Synthesized research on learning processes presented in How People Learn (1999) confirms that “experts’ abilities to think and solve problems depend strongly on a rich body of knowledge about subject matter.” (p. 9) Facts, acquired through lecture, text or empirical research is an essential component of constructing knowledge.

Teachers who select to join the faculty have demonstrated skill in a variety of instructional strategies. CWC Hollywood supports the ongoing development of their pedagogical skill through extensive professional development and coaching.

CWC Hollywood’s academic model demands high-quality teaching and expert teachers. As such, professional development and a selective hiring process are core components of the Charter School’s design. By providing high-quality professional development, as well as time for teachers to meet, discuss, and learn what works best with their students, CWC Hollywood enables teachers to use the most effective strategies for helping all of their students become active, motivated learners who master the knowledge necessary for life-long learning and success.

Similar to curriculum selection, CWC Hollywood teachers are provided substantial support around planning and selection of effective teaching methodologies given each unit or standard being taught. This includes hiring teachers who have demonstrated experience and success making these teaching methodology decisions in the classroom, providing robust professional development during the Summer Institute and on early release days, support during grade-level team meetings, coaching support from site-based leadership, and support from our Regional Support Office team.

BALANCED LITERACY

CWC Hollywood has adopted a balanced approach to teaching literacy. The instructional methodologies that make up that approach serve as a critical technique for teaching reading and writing.

The Continuum of Literacy Learning, which is aligned with Common Core State Standards, serves as our primary curriculum resource. As described above, the guide is divided into seven (7) continua. In each category, the Continuum provides “behaviors and understandings to notice, teach and support.”

At CWC Hollywood, we teach those behaviors and understandings using a variety of instructional techniques. In this section, we describe the primary methods that CWC Hollywood uses to implement the Continuum of Literacy Learning—that is, balanced literacy techniques, including the workshop approach. In addition, teachers at CWC Hollywood incorporate standards-driven instruction that supports the development of the behaviors and understandings named in the Continuum in other subject areas, and use additional methods as needed.

Balanced literacy instructional techniques include methods for teaching reading and writing, as indicated by the examples below:
Reading

- INTERACTIVE READ ALOUD: The teacher reads the text aloud and takes the opportunity to engage students with texts that are more complex than they can read for themselves.
- LITERATURE DISCUSSION: These discussions begin as brief “turn and talk” moments in interactive read aloud. This sets the stage for transitioning into brief small group discussions and then into independent book clubs as students mature.
- SHARED READING: Students read aloud from a common enlarged text. In primary grades, this might be a big book or a chart. In the upper grades, the teacher might project an article to highlight key text features.
- CHORAL READING: A group of people read together from a common text, with the emphasis on interpreting the text with the voice.
- READERS’ THEATER: Readers reenact a text, assuming individual roles.
- GUIDED READING: The teacher brings together a group of students who are similar in reading level based on assessment.
- READING WORKSHOP: The structure of reading workshop includes (1) a mini-lesson on a specific principle; (2) independent, individual reading with some small-group work and teacher conferences; and (3) sharing and a restatement of the mini-lesson principle.

Writing

- MODELED WRITING: The teacher demonstrates the process of writing in a particular genre, while thinking aloud to reveal his/her mental processes while writing.
- SHARED WRITING: The teacher and students compose a text together. The teacher is the scribe. The text becomes a model, example or reference for student writing and discussion.
- INTERACTIVE WRITING: This method is very similar to shared writing, with the addition of asking students to write some portion of the text. This technique is only used with beginning writers and focuses on the features of letters and words.
- WRITING WORKSHOP: The structure of writing workshop includes (1) a mini-lesson on a specific principle; (2) independent, individual writing with some small-group work and teacher conferences; and (3) sharing and a restatement of the mini-lesson principle.

Taken together, the balanced literacy instructional techniques are structured according to the principle of the gradual release of responsibility, in which responsibility is released from the teacher to the student.

As such, the contexts vary according to the degree of teacher support and learner control. Fountas and Pinnell assert that, “each element requires a different level of support from the teacher and respects the level of control or independence of the children.” (Fountas & Pinnell, 1996, p. 25.) The following figure Balanced Literacy – Reading Techniques illustrates this relationship. For example, while reading aloud, the teacher does the majority of the work and the students respond. (S)he reads the book aloud to the students and then engages them in a discussion. During shared reading, the teacher leads the students in reading from an enlarged text that they all can see. The students may chime in as the teacher is reading or the teacher may ask the students to read certain portions of the text on their own. While the teacher is still primarily responsible for the reading, (s)he is beginning to release some of the responsibility to the students. In contrast, during guided reading, the student is responsible for reading the entire text to him/herself, though the teacher supports him/her in doing so. The teacher introduces the book and then during the reading is “highly selective” with regards to the support that (s)he offers. (Fountas & Pinnell, 1996, p. 131) As such, the responsibility for the reading rests primarily on the student. The ultimate goal of this reading instruction is independent reading, in which the students selects and reads independently. Over time, the texts for each type of instruction should become more difficult. As a student becomes a more skilled reader, (s)he should be able... to read independently a book that was once only accessible to him/her if his/her teacher read it aloud. (Gaffney & Anderson, 1991)

The writing components can be similarly represented as a gradual release of teacher support to learner control, as demonstrated in the following figure. In shared writing, the students and teacher compose the text together, but the teacher alone writes down their composition. In interactive writing, once again the teacher and students compose together. However, using this method, the teacher assigns some of the responsibility for writing the text to the students. What (s)he asks students to write and what (s)he writes herself should depend on the students' instructional needs. For example, in the case of students who are just beginning to write, (s)he may ask them to write only the initial sounds while (s)he constructs the rest of the word. For more advanced writers, the lesson might focus on finding authentic voice or using evidence effectively. In writing workshop, the teacher releases more of the responsibility to his/her students. Though (s)he guides the process and provides support through mini-lessons and conferences, the students are responsible for composing and constructing their own pieces. Once again, the ultimate goal of all of this writing instruction—shared writing, interactive writing, and writing workshop—is to foster independent writing in which students compose and construct written pieces on their own.
Learning is a process of making connections, of understanding how things are related. As reflective learners, children connect what they’ve learned to their own lives. Rather than studying math and then separately studying science and then separately studying language arts standards, project-based learning integrates the skills and knowledge attainment through meaningful, “real” scenarios. Thoughtful questions and activities help children synthesize their new knowledge and apply it to new situations. Real learning is generative. One question often leads to another. As students progress through our transitional kindergarten through 5th grade program, they internalize this process and work more efficiently, as well as deepen their learning through the implementation of their projects.

CWC Hollywood, similar to the other schools in the CWC LA region, defines project-based learning as a curricular and pedagogical strategy that organizes students’ mastery of state standards in the academic disciplines around projects. It is important to understand that project-based learning does not replace content area time but rather is part and parcel of that same objective to achieve state standards mastery across all core disciplines. The projects are another means to the desired ends. Thus, project-based learning aligns well with a standards-based curriculum, as educators in several research studies have demonstrated (Dresden & Lee, 2007; Helm & Gronlund, 2000; Schuler, 2000). In this framework, students fulfill explicit educational goals as they are actively involved in planning, problem-solving, decision-making, and investigation; they work relatively autonomously, as well as cooperatively, over extended periods of time; they reflect on their work, receive feedback, and incorporate the feedback; they are guided by teachers’ facilitation, not direction, to develop skills; and their final product represents the skills and knowledge they gained (Jones, Rasmussen, & Moffitt, 1997; Thomas, Mergendoller, & Michaelson, 1999; Moursund, 1999; Diehl, Grobe, Lopez, & Cabral, 1999).

For ELs and socioeconomically disadvantaged students, project-based learning takes on additional importance. The collaborative activities inherent to project-based learning provide ELs with systematic opportunities to improve their English language proficiency in the context of authentic peer communication. Group interactions with the focus on the task rather than the language provides a nonthreatening opportunity for the second language learner to listen to other children's discourse and, once confident, to contribute to the conversation (Amaral et al., 2002; Echevarria et al., 2004). Research also indicates that the use of projects for the education of children living in poverty (1) increases their motivation for learning academic skills and the opportunity to meaningfully practice these skills, (2) helps children see themselves “as learners and problem solvers” and develops their self-esteem, (3) strengthens positive relationships between teachers and families, and (4) helps families become aware of resources available in their communities (Helm and Lang, 2003).

Furthermore, in diverse schools such as CWC Hollywood, project-based learning takes on an added dimension by developing skills for problem-solving across lines of difference. In painting a portrait of “Students Who are College and Career Ready in Reading, Writing, Speaking, Listening, and Language,” the Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts & Literacy in History/Social Studies, Science, and Technical Subjects includes the need to “come to understand other perspectives and cultures.” The standards guide further explains that students who are college and career ready “actively seek to understand other perspectives and cultures through reading and listening, and they are able to communicate effectively with people of varied backgrounds.”

In segregated schools, students are not exposed to learning opportunities that promote cross-cultural understanding. Evidence indicates that indirect programs that merely transmit information about other groups but are not able to utilize intergroup contact have little impact on actually changing the behavior of students. Skills needed to relate to students of other racial and ethnic groups require practice.

Racially diverse schools promote social cohesion and reduce prejudice by fostering cross-racial understanding in ways that are not possible in segregated school environments, as noted elsewhere in this charter.

Instructional Design of Projects

CWC Hollywood faculty develops projects that cover social studies and science standards, and incorporates language arts and mathematics standards, arts standards, and more, integrating learning outcomes derived from the multiple intelligences. All project-based learning curriculum modules integrate content standards and learning outcomes across content areas, focused on real problems, compelling themes and topics, and are linked to standards in social studies, history, literacy, visual, performing and media arts, mathematics and science. The projects also are aligned to the Graduate Dispositions. The materials offer a means of pursuing big ideas, ideas that students value. Students use new knowledge and skills to solve problems, explore, and gain and show understanding. Literacy and informational texts, the arts, writing, science, and mathematics all are powerful learning tools. Students build the repertoire of knowledge and skills they need to become life-long learners. These include the confident use of informational sources, reading and writing strategies, speaking and listening skills and strategies, arts skills and strategies, problem solving and thinking strategies, quantifying strategies, and collaboration skills and strategies as students develop each of their intelligences across a spectrum of domains.
The broad topics for these projects are teacher-created to support standards-based instruction and the specifics of each project integrate students’ own interests. The degree of their autonomy is dependent on the grade (and maturity) of the students. Over time, students learn to take more responsibility for their own learning processes and demonstrations of learning.

Teachers design projects that allow for greater opportunities for student responsibility, decision-making, and connection-building. Teachers’ projects connect to the standards, consider cognitive and social development, build on prior years and feed into subsequent years for vertical articulation, and align to the Graduate Dispositions. Each project integrates CCSS, NGSS, and/or State Standards across content areas. Teachers document the children’s learning through note taking, pictures, tape recordings, and video.

When students work on projects, they use the resources detailed in this charter across the different core content areas and supplemental resources, as students produce their own questions and enhance their own learning via computer-based research, library research, and other resources. A project’s central activities must involve the transformation and construction of knowledge (by definition: new understandings, new skills) aligned to CCSS on the part of students (Bereiter & Scardamalia, 1999). If the central activities of the project represent no new challenges to the student or can be carried out with the application of already-learned information or skills, the project is an exercise, not a project-based learning experience.

CWC Hollywood’s teachers use preexisting curricular materials and also develop their own projects and lessons so that they are aligned to state standards. Their process follows three (3) basic steps:

1. PLANNING THE PROJECT: Teachers identify specific state content standards the project is intended to address across disciplines and engage in “backwards design” to prompt students to engage in learning that will lead to the desired standards mastery.

2. BEGINNING THE PROJECT: Teachers elicit questions and problems from students and rephrases, as needed, to pose developmentally-appropriate, challenging questions or problems that become the “driving” question for the project (Krajcik, Blumenfeld, Marx, & Soloway, 1994; Marx, Blumenfeld, Krajcik, Blunk, Crawford, Kelly, & Meyer, 1994).

3. PROJECT TIME: In line with the “master-apprentice relationship,” CWC Hollywood’s teachers then “scaffold” instruction: breaking down tasks, using modeling, prompting, and coaching, to teach strategies for thinking and problem solving to help students become proficient at conducting the relevant inquiry activities (Blumenfeld et al., 1991), leading ultimately to mastery of the CCSS.

Projects are developed and implemented in alignment with the following research-based elements:

- Standards-based curriculum, instruction, and assessment planning linked to big ideas. (Mitchell, Wiggins)
- Intelligence as the development of a wide range of aptitudes rather than a single, fixed aptitude (Gardner, Resnick, Sternberg)
- Student-centered, inquiry-based instruction, (Danielson, Hayes Jacobs, Wiggins)
- Focus on Literacy: thinking, viewing, listening, speaking, reading, and writing all day long. (Allen, Harvey, Taylor)
- Focus on numeracy: time management, assessing data, economics and money management, space planning and design.
• Literary, visual, performing, and media arts inside the natural cycle of learning. When children express themselves through the arts, they are involved deeply in thinking processes and discovery.
• Family and community cultures embedded in classroom and school life with families as partners in the educational process and extensive community involvement. (Epstein)

TEACHING FOR UNDERSTANDING

In creating project-based learning units, CWC Hollywood draws inspiration from its first nine years of work, the other schools in the CWC LA region, and the planning resources and 21st century skills created by the Buck Institute of Education. CWC Hollywood relies on Teaching for Understanding, an educational pedagogy that uses the following four (4) questions as a foundation for its framework:

• What topics are worth understanding?
• What about these topics needs to be understood?
• How can we foster understanding?
• How can we tell what students understand?

These same guidelines can be applied to teaching at all grade levels, even through higher education.

Curriculum development at the existing schools in the CWC LA region has taught our team the importance of considering curriculum development in hiring decisions. We recognize the importance of hiring teachers who have an interest and passion in curriculum development and design. CWC Hollywood recruits and hires teachers whose skill sets and passions align with the need and design of our Charter School. We know that some teachers find the work of developing curriculum intellectually exciting and professionally satisfying. These teachers are often stifled in schools that demand less personal responsibility and allow less professional judgment in curriculum decisions. We demand more of both and seek to hire teachers accordingly.

BUILDING INSTITUTIONAL KNOWLEDGE

At the end of each project, teacher teams create a portfolio that includes the unit and lesson plans, pictures of student work, work samples, and/or any other artifacts from the unit. The goal is to create full units with all the necessary artifacts so that CWC Hollywood has institutional memory from which future teachers can benefit.

HOW THE CHARTER SCHOOL’S INSTRUCTIONAL METHODOLOGIES AND CURRICULUM ENSURES MASTERY OF THE STATE STANDARDS

CWC Hollywood’s instructional methodologies, curricula, and courses have been aligned to the State Standards. Our faculty receives training and guidance in continually refining curriculum and teaching practices aligned to the CCSS and other state content and performance standards. Through ongoing professional development, collaboration, and support, our teachers develop a broad toolbox of strategies, and become experts at aligning those strategies to the standards and assessments for units, lessons and projects.

In addition, every grade level collaborates in order to map out the explicit integration of the standards referenced above in our constructivist-driven curriculum. School leaders provide feedback to teacher-created maps for adequate depth, breadth, and rigor. In addition, instructional leaders review formative and summative assessments for depth and complexity as well as incorporation of a variety of learning modalities. The scope and sequence of academic standards and supporting curricula at CWC Hollywood may be modified as necessary and/or appropriate.

Through a project-based structure as described above, students receive both individualized support and instructional strategies as they work to master the interrelated skills and knowledge in the content and performance standards. This approach leads to student mastery of higher level thinking skills. Students deeply understand what they learn, and interdisciplinary reading, writing, spoken language and arts foster this mastery. Within this context, EL students have many scaffolded opportunities to use English purposefully and interact with content and ideas in meaningful ways – all driven by the SDAIE and SIOP instructional frameworks for ELs. Students who perform below grade level receive instructional supports for learning that engage students in presenting information in multiple ways and allow for diverse avenues of action and expression. Teachers provide this extra support and scaffolding through in-class strategies, team collaboration, as well as after school support programs, including the potential use of online adaptive programs designed to remediate basic skills.

CWC Hollywood approaches curriculum design with the following criteria:

- Align curriculum to the State Standards;
- Ensure rigorous instruction, while leveraging the use of technology as a tool;
- Provide many opportunities for students to participate in presentations of their learning in both individual and group settings;
- Provide learning opportunities to deepen connections to the academic content and performance standards, including CCSS through regular instruction in the arts, music, and other enrichment opportunities; and
- Integrate connections to social-emotional supports.

HOW THE INSTRUCTIONAL PROGRAM SUPPORTS STUDENT DEVELOPMENT OF TECHNOLOGY SKILLS

CWC Hollywood is committed to ensuring that all students have technology access and skills to thrive in the 21st century. CWC Hollywood students have opportunities to interact with technology to enhance creativity and innovation, communicate and collaborate with others, do research and advance their information fluency, promote critical thinking, problem solving and decision making skills, and develop an understanding of the responsibilities and possibilities of digital citizenship.

The goal and utilization of technology is two-fold: to increase technology readiness as well as utilize technology as a tool to differentiate and deepen learning in the classroom. Each classroom will have a set of devices (approximately 4-6 Chromebooks, iPads, etc.) that teachers utilize to meet these objectives. Starting in kindergarten, we utilize programs such as DreamBox Math to provide targeted and differentiated support in core areas. As students get older, we add the additional element of using technology to deepen their understanding through computer-based research. Concurrently, we also gradually introduce computer readiness skills (such as keyboarding) and Internet safety. We introduce keyboarding and computer safety starting in the elementary grades through a web-based typing program.

To this end, CWC Hollywood has adopted the following software programs to support student development of technology skills.
NWEA MAP TESTING: As described elsewhere in this charter, NWEA is a national organization that provides standardized measures of student success. This assessment is provided on computers and therefore helps prepare CWC Hollywood students for the CAASPP assessments by familiarizing them with online assessments.

DREAMBOX LEARNING: This adaptive learning technology is CCSS-aligned and provides rigorous curriculum in a highly engaging way. The program evaluates each student’s actions and dynamically adapts in real time, providing a learning experience that is tailored to each student’s unique needs. The content, pace, and sequence all is used to customize the experience to create the appropriate level of rigor.

WEB-BASED TYPING PROGRAMS: Web-based typing programs such as Typing Pal work to improve the accuracy and rate of students’ typing skills. Their pedagogical approach is designed to maximize student engagement. As it is accessed through the Internet, students are always using the most up to date version of the program.

In addition to these school-wide resources, teachers use a wide variety of online resources and software tools in their classrooms to support their curriculum.

TRANQUISIONAL KINDERGARTEN

Subject to future changes in the state’s funding of TK, students who enroll in CWC Hollywood whose 5th birthday falls between September 2 and December 2 are offered a space in one of our TK/kindergarten combination classes or a stand-alone TK class if offered based on enrollment. During the subsequent school year, a TK student may become a kindergartener.

Implementation of this plan has been as follows:

1. Identify students who are eligible for TK based on their birth date.
2. Contact those families who qualify for TK and notify them that, should they enroll at CWC Hollywood, their student will take part in the TK program.
3. Provide an appropriately differentiated curriculum in the TK/kindergarten or stand-alone TK class(es) to support age and developmentally appropriate learning and instruction for all enrolled students. The TK program is aligned to the California Preschool Learning Foundations, and as described above, regardless of whether the TK program is combined with kindergarten or stand-alone, students work toward the kindergarten standards, using age and developmentally appropriate instructional strategies, and kindergarten curriculum materials.

ACADEMIC CALENDAR AND SCHEDULES

DRAFT SCHOOL YEAR CALENDAR

We plan to base our calendar on LAUSD’s estimated 2020-21 school year calendar. A sample draft calendar is included below. The alignment with LAUSD will make it far easier for working families to enroll in our Charter School, particularly those who rely on public day care options. It should be noted that this is a draft version of the school year calendar and adjustments to this draft calendar may be made, although annual instructional minutes requirements required by Education Code Section 47612.5 will always be met.
SAMPLE DAILY SCHEDULES

The daily schedules below present examples of how CWC Hollywood structures the school day for transitional kindergarten/kindergarten through 5th grade. The final schedules will be determined based on factors such as the configuration of the Charter School facility, availability of enrichment teachers and opportunities for teaming across classrooms.

CWC Hollywood will meet or exceed annual instructional minutes requirements described below. Any change to the schedule will continue to result in the instructional minutes provided below being met.

INSTRUCTIONAL MINUTES

The CWC Hollywood daily schedule and annual calendar amounts to an annual offering of at least as many, or more, than the minimum number of instructional minutes and days set forth in Education Code Section 47612.5 and Title 5, California Code of Regulations Section 11960. These sections require all students to be offered a minimum of 175 school days and, more specifically, kindergarten students to be offered 36,000 minutes, grades 1-3 to be offered 50,400 minutes, and grades 4-5 to be offered 54,000 minutes, annually. The table below represents the instructional minutes offered in the instructional program (“Total Number of Instr. Minutes”), subject to potential changes in the schedules above:

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

CORE BELIEFS

We apply our beliefs about how learning best occurs presented in Element 1 not only to instruction for students but also to professional development for teachers. We offer professional development that is targeted to individual teachers’ needs as well as offerings that are required for all staff.

Just as our teachers design curriculum based on their individual student’s needs, so too does our Principal. CWC Hollywood’s Principal designs professional development activities to meet the specific needs of individual teachers. The Principal adjusts the professional development plan to accommodate the needs of incoming faculty members, respond to insights gleaned from practice, and develop techniques to respond to identified student needs.

The principle of the Gradual Release of Responsibility is also applicable for structuring adult learning. We:
- Present tools and techniques
- Support teachers as they strive to integrate those into their rich repertoire of instructional techniques
- Guide analyses of effectiveness
- Provide feedback as needed
- Monitor independent implementation

In addition to developing their competencies teaching students, teachers have opportunities to develop their skills supporting their peers. Therefore, in addition to participating in professional development, key teachers are asked to take on the role of being a resource to their peers. We identify individuals as team leaders in specific areas. For example, a teacher might receive more extensive training in math and be responsible for setting up the mathematics instructional calendar and supporting professional development in mathematics.

Opportunities for faculty collaboration are built-in throughout the weekly schedule. As presented in the sample schedules above and described further below, the shortened day allows staff to gather with the Principal, other administrators and/or regional leaders for structured whole-school planning, cross-classroom curriculum design, reflection, and targeted professional development. This block is crucial to communicating and executing the vision of the Charter School. It also provides ample time for teachers to plan curriculum as demanded by our project-based learning approach.

STRUCTURES

The Principal bears primary responsibility for creating our professional development plan and specific activities for our faculty based on their individual needs and experience levels. These activities encompass detailed instruction in our educational philosophies, assessment methodologies, utilization of our data systems, and more.

Specific professional development activities to support faculty in their professional growth include:

- SUMMER INSTITUTE: During a summer institute, all faculty receive in-depth training on our educational philosophies, review research studies, and collaboratively plan curriculum and lessons. This is an intensive few weeks to establish a strong school culture and ensure that every year all teachers and staff – both returning and new – are fully prepared for the first day of school and the work throughout the school year. Deep planning around curriculum, assessment, unit and lesson design takes place among teacher teams, led by CWC Hollywood’s leadership team, teacher leaders, regional support staff, and outside experts. This also is a time when practices between the CWC LA schools can be shared to ensure that the region is learning from best practices and sharing them with others. New staff have nearly three (3) weeks at the summer institute and returning staff have nearly two weeks. If a staff member is absent during summer institute they are provided all reading materials. In addition, they receive targeted support from their grade level team and administrators. Weekly professional development deepens the understanding gained during summer institute, allowing for further support for those who were unable to attend summer institute.

- FACULTY RESOURCES: An administrator compiles a resource library for the faculty that includes online and hard copy reference materials, research studies and sample curriculum and lesson plans.
• PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT MEETINGS: All faculty meets regularly on the early release day to continuously develop, refine and evaluate curriculum and lesson plans based on individual students’ needs, teacher needs and the progress of the school as a whole in a collaborative, supportive environment. Our Charter School calendar also includes approximately five (5) full work days throughout the year for intensive development, either via outside conferences or internal full-day workshops. Professional development includes sessions in which one faculty member shares his/her expertise on a particular topic or staff shares “best practices” with each other; Principal-led sessions; guest lecturers including experts from specific programs and partners at other schools in Los Angeles; and site visits to model/partner schools.

• DAILY PLANNING TIME: Teachers are given ample planning time. Students' participation in specialty/enrichment classes allows time for planning during the school day. In addition, portions of the on-going professional development on shortened days allows teachers to work in partnership with their peer teachers within and across grade levels. While our teachers – and indeed all teachers – spend countless hours outside of school preparing, planning and, reviewing student work, this time allotted during the school day enables our teachers to work collaboratively as a team in designing lessons that best suit individual students in a supportive, professional atmosphere.

TEACHER RECRUITMENT

CWC Hollywood believes that recruiting, developing, supporting and retaining high-quality teachers (appropriately credentialed teachers who have the skill and experience to implement the instructional program described throughout this charter, and who also possess the mindset to continually grow and improve their own practice) are essential to the success of our Charter School. School leaders select teachers based on the qualifications outlined in Element 5.

Recruitment of teachers utilizes multiple methods: professional networks, online sites and local universities with education credentialing programs. We make use of our professional networks (such as Teach For America, local charter schools, the California Charter Schools Association, and university connections) to publicize open positions. Postings appear on multiple sites (such as Ed Join, Craigslist and CWC Hollywood’s website) and are forwarded through university alumni and charter school groups. We also have highly prominent and respected educators on our Board and within our network who assist in spreading the word about our recruitment. Finally, CWC Hollywood hires Teaching Associates as teachers, when they meet the requirements of the position.

When a position is available, CWC Hollywood reviews the criteria and qualifications for the open teaching position and advertises it along with a job description. Based on a review of resumes, school leaders (and current teachers) interview likely candidates and observe them teaching a sample lesson. As needed, additional processes such as analysis of student performance data or videotaped instruction are utilized to select final candidates.

Our thorough and rigorous selection process ensures that selected candidates are aligned with our mission and philosophy and bring a strong repertoire of skills as well as a willingness and capacity for ongoing development.
PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT CONTENT AND OUTCOMES

Professional development includes:

- Presentation of the theoretical underpinnings of our philosophy and curricular approaches
- Activities to assist teachers in internalizing the theories
- Introduction to curricular tools
- Opportunities to plan using the curricular tools, with support
- Introduction to assessment tools
- Training in analyzing assessment data and determining the implications for instruction

Through professional development, teachers develop:

- An understanding of the theoretical underpinnings of our philosophical, pedagogical and curricular approaches
- Skill in analyzing student assessment data to assess students’ progress and determine implications for future teaching
- Familiarity and dexterity with utilizing curricular tools to accomplish student achievement goals
- Capacity and comfort in reflecting with their peers as they strive to become even better teachers

While the specific agendas, trainers, and materials are determined by our Principal or their designee, among other things, our teachers study the following in the context of the foregoing activities:

- Curricular tools outlined in Element 1
- Instructional strategies described in Element 1
- Techniques for meeting a variety of student needs as presented in Element 1
- Assessments presented in Element 2 and Element 3

The Principal utilizes feedback from teachers, observations of instruction, and student performance data in determining the specific content and timing of professional development.

Included below is a sample professional development plan for year one of the new charter term that can be customized for future years of the charter term. We include in this plan a sample list of topics that would be covered during CWC Hollywood’s Summer Institute and professional development meetings that take place during early-release Wednesdays. MEETING THE NEEDS OF ALL STUDENTS

At CWC Hollywood, we take the challenge seriously as educators to help every student achieve. We firmly believe that with strong teaching in the classroom supported by targeted intervention\(^\text{17}\) as needed, every child can meet or exceed grade level expectations that are academic, social, or behavioral in nature. We recognize that students learn in different ways and we adjust our teaching to maximize the learning potential of every child. To promote academic success, we support students in expanding their skills and help them develop strengths in areas in which they struggle.

Since our constructivist, project-based educational program inherently values and accommodates differentiated learning, our special needs populations (academically low achieving, special education, gifted, EL, and low socioeconomic level students) will automatically receive focused attention around their needs and strengths, as teachers implement individualized instruction based on data-driven assessments. Following are the additional components of our academic program that ensure that students are offered the most effective education possible:

\(^{17}\) For CWC Hollywood, targeted intervention means that we monitor students’ progress according to the assessments and assessment procedures outlined in Element 2 and Element 3. When those assessment results indicate that a student (or students) needs additional assistance, supplemental small group (or individual) instruction will “target” the specific concepts or skills with which the student(s) is struggling. When a student tests below average or below grade level on the NWEA, CAASPP, F&P reading assessments, and other classroom assessments, this is an indication that this student will need additional assistance. Interventions will be provided first by the classroom teacher and/or Teaching Associate (where applicable) and, when greater need is identified, by additional support staff.

1. Small class sizes and low teacher-to-student ratios (approximately 26 students per classroom), which allow the teachers to truly know their students
2. Ample instructional planning time so that teachers can modify and create lessons and curriculum to meet the needs of individual students
3. A culture among teachers of openness and collaboration, including regular team planning sessions and professional development activities, allowing teachers to learn from each other’s varying expertise in handling learning differences
4. Ongoing communication between teachers and parents and a commitment to work together for the education of their children
5. Various forms of assessment that are used to guide instruction
6. Learning goals that are clearly articulated
7. High expectations for all students

CWC Hollywood has carefully created procedures and provides staffing resources to ensure that the needs of all students are met, including those who need additional support beyond the classroom to meet grade-level standards. Two core structures ensure that we monitor and address the needs of all students: Coaching Cycles and Student Success Team meetings.

COACHING CYCLES

The Principal, Assistant Principal and other coaching team members at CWC Hollywood meet with teachers to review the progress of every child in the class. In doing so, they review the teacher’s practices and students’ performance in key assessments described more fully below in Element 2 and Element 3. During these meetings, the teacher discusses goals for the year, as well as the progress of each student and any changes that have been noticed since the last meeting, taking note of any strengths and areas of concern that may be academic, social, or behavioral in nature. Over time, these notes provide evidence of trends, patterns, or events that have influenced the teacher’s practices and/or students’ successes and can be used to better understand learning needs, individual styles, classroom differentiation strategies and appropriate interventions when necessary. The coaching team member and teacher engage in a reflective, rigorous conversation, and when faced with a student who poses a particular challenge, they will initiate a Student Success Team meeting.

STUDENT SUCCESS TEAM MEETINGS

For students identified based on their assessment data and/or teacher or parent request as needing additional support, a Student Success Team (“SST”) meeting is held. If a parent or teacher has a concern, a special meeting to discuss this topic is held, which can also lead to an SST. The SST typically includes the Principal, Assistant Principal, and/or other staff such as the Lead Teacher, Teaching Associate, Counselor, or other individual who works with the student. The 1-2 teachers who are familiar with the student are included, and the student’s parent/guardian may attend. The SST works with parents/guardians, teachers and the students themselves to identify their learning needs and together they develop a plan for academic and social success. It is this plan that determines when, how often and for how long the team will meet. This decision is made separately for each individual situation, and the team continues to meet at a frequency the group determines based on the needs of the child until the child has achieved success or meets the goals set. During the meeting, the team records all pertinent information for the student. Goals are established and interventions put in place to support the child. Responses might include instructional modifications, new behavioral strategies in the classroom, greater follow-up strategies implemented in the home, or a new approach to differentiation of instruction. This practice is an effective problem-solving strategy to address issues as they arise, and to monitor student progress. Progress monitoring, including ensuring that follow-up meetings are scheduled, is led by a member of the SST to be designated at the initial SST meeting.

In addition, CWC Hollywood’s instructional program provides additional opportunities for students with a range of needs in its after school program. During this important time, students may receive intervention support or take additional enrichment classes based on an area of interest to him or her. In this way, students are able to both reinforce skill development and/or receive additional acceleration opportunities.

ENGLISH LEARNERS

A core part of CWC Hollywood’s mission is to meet the educational needs of all students in an environment that fosters an appreciation and understanding of other languages and cultures. Students at CWC learn the California ELD Standards in tandem with the Common Core State Standards for ELA/Literacy. Students are engaged in the type of rich instruction called for in the Common Core State Standards for ELA/Literacy, with appropriate scaffolding that attends to their particular language learning needs. They are fully supported as they:

- Read, analyze, interpret, and create a variety of literary and informational text types
- Develop an understanding of how language is a complex, dynamic, and social resource for making meaning
- Develop an understanding of how content is organized in different text types across disciplines using text organization and structure, language features, and vocabulary depending on the purpose and audience
- Become aware that different languages and varieties of English exist
- Recognize their home languages and cultures as resources to value in their own right and to draw upon in order to build proficiency in English
- Contribute actively to class and group discussions by asking questions, responding appropriately, and providing useful feedback
- Demonstrate knowledge of content through oral presentations, writing, collaborative conversations, and multimedia work
- Develop proficiency in shifting registers based on task, purpose, audience, and text type

ELs and students at risk of becoming LTEALs are supported through strong tier 1 instruction and utilize a variety of instructional techniques and research-based approaches to be used specifically with ELs: Specially Designed Academic Instruction in English (“SDAIE”), Project GLAD, and Sheltered Instruction Observation Protocol (“SIOP”). These curricular resources and frameworks are also harnessed for designated ELD on top of additional teacher-developed curriculum.

CWC Hollywood adopts its own English Learner Master Plan. CWC Hollywood complies with federal and state mandates regarding EL education and re-designation of EL students. Classroom teachers are responsible for providing designated ELD instruction at least several times per week, and CWC Hollywood endeavors to align designated ELD instruction with the number of minutes of instruction recommended by the CDE. In instances when EL students require additional support for designated language development, EL students may work with an additional adult (e.g., intervention teacher, Teaching Associate, etc.). Designated ELD instruction occurs for all ELs until they are identified as RFEP. These designated ELD lessons focus on increasing students’ proficiency in English, as measured by the CA ELD Standards and ELPAC. This designated ELD time is protected during the regular school day when teachers use the CA
ELD Standards as the focal standards in ways that build into, and from, content instruction to develop the critical English language skills, knowledge, and abilities needed for content learning in English.

CWC Hollywood meets all requirements of federal and state law relative to ELs, including Long-Term English Learners (“LTELS”) or ELs at risk of becoming LTELS, as it pertains to annual notification to parents, student identification, placement, program options, EL and core content instruction, teacher qualifications and training, re-classification to fluent English proficient status, monitoring and evaluating program effectiveness, and standardized testing requirements. Students who are at risk for becoming LTELS are tracked and monitored individually to ensure they are making adequate progress in their language acquisition from year to year. School staff meets regularly to monitor the progress of this group of students. Student progress is monitored every trimester when NWEA data is available as well as at other points when additional data is readily available (e.g., F&P reading levels, the latest ELPAC scores, the end of a writing unit, and other authentic work samples from EL instruction). Based on a comprehensive analysis of this variety of student work and student data, students’ specific needs are identified and individualized goals for each student are set by the students’ Lead Teacher and other individuals who are supporting those students, if relevant (e.g., SST team).

CWC Hollywood ensures proper placement, evaluation, and communication regarding ELs and the rights of students and parents. Those requirements include, but are not limited to, the following items:

- Home Language Survey: All incoming families complete a Home Language Survey upon enrollment at CWC Hollywood. If parents indicate that a student’s primary language is other than English, students with no previous experience in LAUSD are administered the Initial English Language Proficiency Assessments for California (ELPAC) to determine their English Proficiency.

- ELPAC: The ELPAC is administered to all students whose primary language is not English who have yet to be reclassified. The results from this test are examined alongside other assessments. The ELPAC is one of the measures used to determine whether students redesignate from ELs to Reclassified Fluent English Proficient students. Reclassification will be one of the Charter School’s primary goals and measures of success. CWC Hollywood follows the state’s guidelines about the administration of ELPAC.

- ELD Monitoring: Students identified as ELs have their performance tracked both by standardized test scores and through CWC’s other assessments and measures. In all of the areas above, the goal for an EL is to demonstrate proficiency in the newly adopted ELD standards.

At each reporting period, teachers track student progress toward each ELD standard. Given the ELD standards’ alignment to the CCSS ELA standards, teachers compare students’ performance and proficiency within ELD specific assessments to their performance on other CCSS aligned ELA assessments (e.g. the NWEA MAP assessment and/or CAASPP). CWC Hollywood participates in this type of data analysis and comparison throughout each school year as part of the Charter School’s protocols to regularly examine and analyze subgroup data.

RECLASSIFICATION GOAL: It is CWC Hollywood’s goal that students are reclassified within three (3) years through targeted instruction and assessment. For students enrolled at CWC Hollywood beginning in transitional kindergarten, this allows for re-designation well before they are designated an LTEL. For students who are enrolled in subsequent years whose language development is still in the beginning or early intermediate stage, students are provided additional intervention with a goal that they will stay on target to advance 1-2 levels or more per year such that they can be reclassified in their TK-5 career. Students’ progress toward reclassification is documented in their cumulative files so that this information can be provided to a student’s new schools should that student disenroll before being reclassified.
The Principal monitors the Charter School’s reclassification rate, and, in collaboration with the Executive Director or designee, makes adjustments to the academic program if the goal is not being met. In addition, the Principal and members of the leadership team continually monitor (for the duration of students’ enrollment at CWC Hollywood) the progress of RFE students to ensure that they are successful after being reclassified, as well as ELs and students at risk of becoming LTELs to help ensure that these students are making progress toward reclassification. Specifically, CWC Hollywood monitors students who have been reclassified by regularly (when the assessment data in the reclassification criteria are available) gathering and reviewing subgroup and student-level data to track their progress after reclassification. Additionally, as with all students who require additional intervention, CWC Hollywood provides appropriate and additional supports if and when any reclassified students are not meeting grade-level standards. This might take the form of additional and targeted one-on-one and small group work with the teacher, Teaching Associate, and/or any support staff or designated or integrated ELD programs as outlined in other sections of this charter. If additional learning issues arise with reclassified students, teachers are encouraged to engage in the SST process for that student to identify any other additional interventions that may be required.

Students who are at risk for becoming LTELs are tracked and monitored individually to ensure they are making adequate progress in their language acquisition from year to year. School staff meets regularly to monitor the progress of this group of students. Student progress is monitored every trimester when NWEA data is available as well as at other points when additional data is readily available (e.g., F&P reading levels, the latest ELPAC scores, the end of a writing unit, and other authentic work samples from ELD instruction). Based on a comprehensive analysis of this variety of student work and student data, students’ specific needs are identified and individualized goals for each student are set by the students’ Lead Teacher and other individuals who are supporting those students, if relevant (e.g., SST team). If students do not meet the goals that are set and are not making appropriate progress, a number of additional supports are provided, such as the implementation of the SST process and additional intervention supports. These students are provided with small group or one-on-one intervention support, additional coursework in literacy and language development, and in many cases the convening of an SST to develop a plan to provide wrap-around support for the student at school and at home in partnership with parents.

STRATEGIES FOR ENGLISH LEARNERS AND INTERVENTION

Given the variety of home languages spoken by students residing in Los Angeles and the instructional philosophy of the Charter School, CWC Hollywood prepares teachers for a multilingual environment through rigorous professional development provided during all of the professional development structures available at the school. ELs and students at risk of becoming LTELs are supported through strong tier 1 instruction and utilize a variety of instructional techniques and research-based approaches to be used specifically with ELs: Specially Designed Academic Instruction in English (“SDAIE”), Project GLAD, and Sheltered Instruction Observation Protocol (“SIOP”) (described further below). In some cases, ELs and students at risk of becoming LTELs are provided supplementary intervention time to support their language acquisition. Classroom teachers are responsible for providing designated ELD instruction at least several times per week, and CWC Hollywood endeavors to align designated ELD instruction with the number of minutes of instruction recommended by the CDE. In instances when EL students require additional support and designated language development, EL students work with an additional adult (e.g., teacher, Teaching Associate, advisory lead, etc.). Designated ELD instruction occurs for all ELs until they are identified as RFE. These designated ELD lessons focus on increasing students’ proficiency in English, as measured by the CA ELD Standards and ELPAC. This designated ELD time is protected during the regular school day when teachers use the CA ELD Standards as the focal standards in ways that build into, and from, content instruction to develop the critical English language skills, knowledge, and abilities needed for content learning in English. To accomplish this, EL students likely are grouped together by ELD level for targeted instruction throughout the day. CWC Hollywood convenes an ELAC, as applicable.

SPECIALY DESIGNED ACADEMIC INSTRUCTION IN ENGLISH
SDAIE is a teaching approach that can be used across the curriculum to support EL students. It emphasizes the importance of supporting ELs in acquiring academic-related skills and knowledge, while at the same time learning English through comprehensible second language input. The practice is based upon linguistic theories laid out by a number of researchers including Dr. Steven Krashen and Dr. James Cummins, who developed “Contextual Interaction Theory.” At the heart of the theory are two major components that impact the SDAIE classroom: “comprehensible second language input” and a “supportive affective environment.”

Rather than focusing on language development, SDAIE focuses on content comprehension. Language is acquired because of the context in which it is contained. Teachers build vocabulary with their students and have high expectations for success of language acquisition and the concepts.

SDAIE encompasses solid teaching techniques that benefit all types of learners, offering particular support to students who are ELs. The four (4) major components of this teaching approach are:

- A VISUAL APPROACH TO CLASSROOM PARTICIPATION: Teachers use models, kits, manipulatives, and gestures to show students what they are talking about.
- A HANDS-ON APPROACH TO CLASSWORK: Students learn faster with the use of manipulatives and task-oriented projects for them to build new vocabulary into their word banks.
- COOPERATIVE LEARNING STRATEGIES: Teachers structure learning opportunities through project-based learning and during workshop instruction. One purpose of these opportunities is to allow students to work together, be held individually accountable, and develop positive social skills through collaboration. Students are more likely to try to practice their English skills in smaller groups.
- GUARDED VOCABULARY TECHNIQUES: Teachers make conscious choices regarding the language used and how vocabulary will be introduced, practiced, and incorporated into all components of their lessons. Paying attention to clearly enunciate words and phrases, teachers avoid idioms, colloquialisms and abbreviations.

The SDAIE approach seeks to teach both content and language in a cognitively demanding environment. The nature and goals of SDAIE lessons are to provide equal access to the curriculum of study. SDAIE strategies are consistent with multiple intelligence strategies, project-based learning theories, and special education disciplines.

PROJECT GLAD
Project GLAD is an instructional and professional development model in the area of language acquisition and literacy. Project GLAD strategies are specific methods of instruction for a successful English immersion education in a multi-lingual classroom.
According to its materials, the major components of this pedagogical approach include:

1. Teach to the highest:
   - A classroom environment that values the student and provides authentic opportunities for use of academic language and maintains the highest standards and expectations for all students.
2. Brain research, metacognition, and second language acquisition:
   - A time to activate and focus prior knowledge: inquiry charts, brainstorming, and clustering
   - An opportunity to ensure a common base of understanding and scaffolding: direct experiences, films, visuals, and teachers' read-alouds.
   - Students taught how and encouraged to organize thoughts and texts utilizing multiple intelligences: graphic organizers, summaries, visuals, or contextual and semantic clues.
   - Metacognitive aspect of teacher and students modeling of how an answer was obtained, not merely the correct answer.
   - A student set purpose for learning: motivating, stated result or goal, student choices, inquiry charts.
   - Chances to negotiate meaning from language and text: co-op activities for problem solving, social skills; heterogeneous grouping.
3. Reading and writing to, with, and by students:
   - Reading that stresses the purpose and joy before the skills; that begins with writing and reading one's own language; continues with immense amounts of being read to; time for silent sustained reading and silent sustained writing with oral book sharing and quick shares.
   - Direct teaching of concepts, vocabulary, or necessary skills; text patterns, academic language, writing patterns; decoding skills.
   - Writing that stresses the metacognitive use of reading and writing as a process; use of clustering/brainstorming to initiate writing; acceptance of developmental level of writer; editing and revising done only in appropriate place in the process. No over-editing in early drafts; not all writing brought to editing stage; use of conferencing methods to guide students through the process; use of logs for personal responses to texts or issues; use of interactive journals.
   - Big Books on walls, shared reading/writing experiences are only a few strategies for a language functional environment; use of personal interaction values oral ideas and cross-cultural respect.
4. Strategies to foster respect, trust, identity, and voice (Cummins, Berman, Baron).
5. Ongoing assessment:
   - Use of a variety of assessment tools to provide reflection on what has been learned, how it was learned and what will be done with the information.
   - Assessment, ongoing and summative, based on strengths, as well as needs.

SHELTERED INSTRUCTION OBSERVATION PROTOCOL
Sheltered Instruction Observation Protocol ("SIOP") is a research-based and validated instructional model that has proven effective in addressing the academic needs of ELs throughout the United States. The SIOP Model consists of eight (8) interrelated components:

1. Lesson Preparation
2. Building Background
3. Comprehensible Input
4. Strategies
5. Interaction
6. Practice/Application
7. Lesson Delivery
8. Review and Assessment

Using instructional strategies connected to each of these components, teachers are able to design and deliver lessons that address the academic and linguistic needs of ELs.

SDAIE, Project GLAD and SIOP are all intrinsic to constructivism, project-based learning, and multiple intelligences theory. These coordinated approaches ensure that all CWC Hollywood students acquire English language skills in reading, writing, listening, speaking, viewing, and thinking, and proficiently meet grade-level ELA standards.

Students at risk of being classified as an LTEL have very specific language learning needs and require a program with specific interventions. In order to meet these unique needs, these students are primarily scheduled in heterogeneous classes taught at their grade-level alongside students who are fluent in English. CAASPP and other school assessment data are utilized to determine student classroom placement each year, and other classroom-level data are utilized to determine daily groupings of students. Teachers regularly group students based on their need, utilizing CAASPP data, ELPAC results and all other forms of assessment described in this charter. This ensures that students at risk of being classified as an LTEL have access to rigorous, grade-level instruction and can benefit from participating in rich academic discourse. All teachers who teach these students use SDAIE strategies to provide support and differentiation across all academic disciplines. A strong emphasis on developing academic language is provided in these classes. Given that students at risk of being classified as an LTEL can feel discouraged in school, teachers place significant emphasis on engaging these students with high interest lessons and texts, strong relationship building, and positive outreach to students' families. Additionally, teachers ensure that these students are actively engaged and participate in classroom discussions and small group work to ensure that they are able to take advantage of all opportunities to develop their language and literacy skills.

MONITORING AND EVALUATION OF PROGRAM EFFECTIVENESS

Each school year, school leadership takes steps to ensure CWC Hollywood’s program is effective for our EL population. As part of this program monitoring, leadership partakes in an annual analysis of our ELD program and goes through the following items to evaluate, refine and adjust instructional practices for the coming school year. Progress monitoring is conducted by staff on an on-going basis, including an administrator (Principal or Assistant Principal) and teachers of select EL students and students at risk of being classified an LTEL. The Principal or designee is responsible for progress monitoring.

- Analyze adherence to academic benchmarks as dictated by the newly adopted ELA standards
- Monitor academic data of each EL student and student at risk of being classified an LTEL and his/her progress based on the number of years within our program to determine if (s)he has experienced adequate yearly progress and assess what additional supports (s)he might need; targeted focus will be placed on students at risk of being classified an LTEL
- Monitor academic data of the entire EL subgroup to evaluate CWC Hollywood’s approach and success with this portion of our student population
- Continue to monitor the academic data of RFEP students to ensure their continued success and progress within all areas of academic development
- Monitor and support teachers to explicitly identify and teach concrete language

GIFTED AND ACADEMICALLY HIGH-ACHIEVING STUDENTS

Some students need support to meet grade level standards, while other students need challenges in class to continue to grow academically. This will be particularly true for students who are high-achieving or designated as gifted and talented. Though gifted students present instructional challenges, a separate, segregated classroom experience is not necessary.

As a general rule, we do not believe that any one assessment should be used to classify children or determine what resources are provided for a child’s learning. Therefore, we will offer differentiated instruction for all students who excel, not just those identified as gifted and talented at CWC Hollywood. For intellectual ability, CWC Hollywood may refer children to the District for GATE testing when their NWEA assessment scores are in the 98th or 99th percentile in both ELA and math for two consecutive years. The onsite designee for families should contact regarding GATE is the Principal or designee. Any designee for GATE would be advertised to the community via regular communication channels and/or the Family Handbook.

Our project-based curriculum with an emphasis on Gardner’s multiple intelligences is designed to allow all students to pursue their learning in an in-depth way and at a challenging pace. Giftedness involves the interaction of three (3) sets of characteristics: above average intellectual ability, creativity, and task commitment. (Renzulli 1986) CWC Hollywood works to ensure that potentially high-achieving students are not simply given additional work to do but rather are effectively engaged and supported in their learning at an appropriate level.

In the classroom, gifted children tend to:

• Get their work done quickly and may seek further assignments or direction
• Ask probing questions that tend to differ from their classmates in depth of understanding and frequency
• Have interests in areas that are unusual or more like the interests of older students

These students potentially differ from their classmates on three (3) key dimensions: 1) the pace at which they learn; 2) the depth of their understanding; and 3) the interests that they hold. (Maker, 1982.)

In working with high achieving students, CWC Hollywood teachers draw on the work of Sandra Kaplan (2013) whose educational research advocates a “depth and complexity” approach to providing appropriate challenges for gifted students. She suggests the following ways for teachers to enhance the curriculum for a gifted student:

1. Present content that is related to broad-based issues, themes, or problems
2. Integrate multiple disciplines into the area of study
3. Present comprehensive, related and mutually reinforcing experiences within an area of study
4. Allow for the in-depth learning of a self-selected topic within the area of study
5. Develop independent or self-directed study skills
6. Develop productive, complex, abstract and/or higher level thinking skills
7. Focus on open-ended tasks
8. Develop research skills and methods
9. Integrate basic skills and higher level thinking skills into the curriculum
10. Encourage the development of products that challenge existing ideas and produce "new" ideas
11. Encourage the development of products that use techniques, materials, and form
12. Encourage the development of self-understanding
13. Evaluate student outcomes by using appropriate and specific criteria through self-appraisal, criterion-referenced and/or standardized instruments

At CWC Hollywood teachers learn to design curriculum and present instructional strategies that meet the varying needs of all learners, including gifted students. Furthermore, diversity exists within a gifted population, as demonstrated through the range in relative strengths and weaknesses, interests, work output, and personality traits of students. Some gifted students may also be ELs and/or reclassified students, in which case the progress monitoring of these students overlaps with those described above for ELs. Staff uses a variety of teaching styles in order to encourage all students to reach his or her potential. Dynamic grouping, flexible pacing of instruction, project-based work, student-directed learning, and individual investigations are some of the specific techniques employed in our classrooms. In most cases, differentiated instruction for gifted students is provided in their classroom that includes students who are not designated gifted because a separate, segregated classroom experience is not necessary to support the needs of gifted students. In some cases, gifted students are in groups with other high achieving students in a classroom (such as an elective) as a strategy to address their needs with a more targeted approach. Progress monitoring is conducted by staff on an on-going basis, including an administrator (Principal or Assistant Principal) and teachers of select gifted students, who assess the needs of gifted students and what programs are necessary to support those children in each of their classes. Parents also are consulted on a regular basis to ensure that there is alignment on the approach. CWC Hollywood is committed to allowing students to move fluidly and appropriately to push and challenge each student to learn in his or her appropriate zone of development.

UNDERACHIEVING GIFTED

Students who perform well on assessments but encounter more extensive challenges in project-based work, task completion, and other assignments that require self-regulation may be considered underachieving gifted. Some underachieving gifted students may also be ELs and/or reclassified students, in which case the progress monitoring of these students overlaps with those described above for ELs. Staff are notified of this issue during family conferences. For these students who are gifted but do not have the task commitment, we apply similar tactics that address our “at-risk” population. By fostering active student involvement in their own learning we increase student interest and enthusiasm. Teaching self-monitoring and self-management skills helps these students set their own goals and persevere when working on a project. Grouping them with more motivated students – both gifted and struggling – also provides a peer attitudinal model to help engage them in their own learning.

STUDENTS ACHIEVING BELOW GRADE LEVEL

CWC Hollywood staff monitors student performance to ensure that students who are at-risk of failing to perform at grade level are appropriately supported. Students who are identified as high- or low-achieving are identified through a combination of interim benchmark assessments, unit or lesson assessments, teacher observations and/or parent observations. CWC Hollywood monitors an individual student’s performance throughout the year according to the assessment procedures presented in Element 2 and Element 3. In the case of students who are performing below expectations, CWC Hollywood teachers use that information to select instructional modifications. Some of these students may also be designed an EL and/or student at risk of being classified as an LTEL, in which case the supports and progress monitoring overlap with those described above.

When the classroom teacher’s instructional modifications do not produce the desired results that would put the student on track to perform at grade level, additional steps are taken. If a teacher or parent has a concern, a special meeting is called to discuss the situation. This may lead to referring the student to the Student Success Team, and when needed, students are evaluated on a case-by-case basis by the Student Success Team. Student support plans are developed, which might include additional in-classroom and out-of-classroom intervention supports, depending on each student’s situation. Ultimately, we believe that the greatest responsibility for successfully educating these students lies within the core classroom day. Through professional development and collaborative support, teachers receive training on effective intervention strategies targeted towards the areas of greatest need. In order to reach the greatest number of our students falling within this category, teachers are trained to utilize the following best practices:

HIGH EXPECTATIONS: Because of a strong belief in each student’s potential, teachers are committed to identifying the student’s strengths to help him/her reach this potential and utilizing the most effective techniques to do so.

VARIED ASSESSMENT: As all students possess and utilize different strengths for their learning, a teacher who allows for a variety of assessments is more apt to find out what students have truly learned, not just how they take a test. Portfolios, oral presentations, open-book tests, group projects, and graphic maps are only some of the many avenues available for teachers to tap into their students’ knowledge. The wider the variety of assessment the teacher uses and the more authentic and ongoing it is, the truer the picture the teacher will get of his/her student’s understandings. (See Element 2 for explicit details about our assessment methodologies.)

DATA-INFORMED INSTRUCTION: Teachers, supported by school leaders, analyze standardized and classroom-based assessment data. Through this analysis, they identify trends of mastery and difficulty for individuals, groups of students, and the class as a whole. They identify skills, concepts, and strategies in need of further instruction. Based on the trends, they determine whether whole class re-teaching, small group intervention, individual one-on-one support or another action is the appropriate response.

DYNAMIC AND VARIED GROUPING: Instructional groupings are varied from homogeneous to heterogeneous and changed often, as students’ capacities develop. Students can make great leaps in development seemingly “overnight” – our groupings of students are fluid in recognition of this reality.

SMALL GROUP INTERVENTION: CWC Hollywood has a low teacher-to-student ratio that enables extensive small-group instruction every day. Teachers and Teaching Associates lead small group intervention lessons for students with specific needs. Checks for understanding (exit tickets, questioning, quick writes, etc.) are built into small group lessons for ‘in the moment’ assessments, in addition to the assessment practices outlined in Element 2 and Element 3. The classroom teacher, supported by Teaching Associates, assesses student progress to determine when small group intervention is necessary and when it is no longer be necessary because the student(s) have learned the identified skill or concept.

TARGETED RETEACHING: When formal or informal assessments reveal that one or more students are struggling with a particular skill or concept, those students receive targeted instruction to provide them another opportunity to learn it. This instruction may be a single, brief lesson to correct a misconception, or multiple sessions to address a more complex concern.

METACOGNITION MODELING & EXPLICIT STRATEGY INSTRUCTION: Teachers who share their thoughts on how they complete a task or arrive at a conclusion help students become aware of their own thinking. This is called metacognition. Successful students are able to understand and are aware of the most effective strategies they need in order to study and learn. Teachers help less successful students by modeling effective learning strategies for them, showing them how and when to use these strategies and teaching them why they are important for their success.

DIRECT INSTRUCTION: As an instructional strategy, direct instruction responds to students’ needs by focusing directly on the skills required to be successful in school and ensuring that these skills are learned. Students can learn high-level concepts if they know how to learn, how to question, how to access prior knowledge, and how to integrate new knowledge.

The utility of these best practices is not limited to students who are having difficulty. They represent quality teaching for all students.

CLASSROOM MODIFICATIONS FOR AT-RISK STUDENTS

The following modifications may be used by the classroom teachers, in coordination with the Student Success Team, for students who are at-risk, including foster youth or students with other potential risk factors, depending on each student’s specific needs:

- Materials. Utilize materials that customize to the student’s need, such as using highlighted or underlined reading materials, visual aids, concrete manipulative materials, or supplies that adjust to the specific needs of the student.
- Methods. Customize instructional strategies to the student’s need, such as providing modeling, coaching and scaffolding, visual clues, customized content delivery approaches, organizational aids, peer tutors, note taking supports, customized language for directions, or manipulatives.
- Assignments. Provide assignments that allow students to be more successful, using strategies such as giving directions in small, distinct steps (written/picture/verbal), lowering difficulty level, reducing paper and pencil tasks, providing extra cues or prompts, developing compensatory procedures through an alternate assignment or strategy, and avoiding penalizing for penmanship.
- Pacing. Adjust the pacing of work in order to facilitate success through reduction of paper and pencil tasks, extended time requirements, varied activities, provision of breaks, and developing strategies to preview materials.
- Testing. Adjust testing by providing tests orally, reading the test to the student, using visuals or pictures, giving similar questions in the classroom setting before the test, allowing dictation, shortening the test length, and administering the test outside of the classroom setting.
• Environment. Adjust the student’s environment through preferential seating, altered physical room arrangement, concrete area definition, quiet space for the student, and elimination of visual distractions.

SOCIOECONOMICALLY DISADVANTAGED STUDENTS AND STUDENTS IN OTHER SUBGROUPS

As detailed extensively herein, we believe that all students can learn and succeed, and that socioeconomically “disadvantaged” students are entirely capable of academic excellence at the same levels as students whose families have more financial resources. Poverty is not destiny.

Data demonstrate that at CWC Hollywood and the other CWC LA schools, students who are socioeconomically disadvantaged outperform other socioeconomically disadvantaged students statewide and in the District.

While CWC Hollywood is sensitive to socioeconomic differences and ensures all students have full access to the educational, extracurricular, and social activities at the Charter School, CWC Hollywood has not found systematic research that correlates socioeconomic status with school achievement in a way that can lead to a pedagogical generalization. We believe that all students can learn when given the proper instruction and support. If students who are socioeconomically disadvantaged are low-achieving, struggle with learning differences or are identified as ELs, CWC Hollywood utilizes strategies described in other sections of this petition. Some socioeconomically disadvantaged students may also be designated as an EL and/or student at risk of becoming an LTEL, in which case the supports and progress monitoring overlap with those described above.

CWC Hollywood identifies whether or not a student qualifies for free or reduced price lunch per the National School Lunch Program’s criteria. Forms that identify whether or not a student qualifies for free or reduced price lunch are provided each year to all families at the Charter School. Teachers and Teaching Associates monitor the academic growth of all students, including those identified as low-income, using all of the tools within our comprehensive suite of assessments. This monitoring includes our ongoing protocols to analyze academic data. During professional development, the CWC Hollywood team focuses on developing specific action plans to address students, including those within this subgroup, who are not performing at grade level. CWC Hollywood’s Student Success Team also is responsible for identifying students and families who need additional resources or supports, including referrals to community service organizations.

CWC Hollywood serves a diverse student population, both ethnically and socioeconomically and is sensitive to the needs and strengths of all of our families. Establishing an inclusive learning environment for all students is at the heart of CWC Hollywood. We believe that learning should be accessible to every student, regardless of background, and that teaching and learning should honor all experiences. To that end we will:

• MAKE RECOGNITION AND APPRECIATION OF DIVERSE BACKGROUNDS, CULTURES, AND PERSPECTIVES (INCLUDING THOSE REPRESENTED BY STUDENTS AND FACULTY) A CONSTANT THEME OF OUR CLASSROOM: The most effective schools not only highlight those backgrounds and cultures that are represented in the classroom but also recognize and appreciate other backgrounds and cultures that may be new and unfamiliar to the students. Many cultures and backgrounds are brought to students from outside the classroom through strategic choices of books, materials, and lessons.
• TEACH AND MODEL NORMS OF POSITIVE, INCLUSIVE INTERACTIONS AMONG MEMBERS OF THE CLASS: The most effective schools work to form a culture of community within each classroom. Teachers work with students to establish a respectful tone between every member of the classroom community by teaching students to value differences and resolve conflicts appropriately. Teachers model this behavior when interacting with students and other adult members of the community and by responding to comments that may not honor the diversity of the community.

• PROVIDE LEARNING EXPERIENCES FOR ALL FAMILIES: As an effective school community, we work to support all families. Our faculty establishes workshops that address the needs/desires of the families in our school, and which provide language support and translation as needed. The focus of the workshops is to provide guidance, resources, and training to families.

• OFFER EXTENDED SERVICES: CWC Hollywood offers a whole day program from TK on, and a before- and after-care program for all grades to ensure full-day coverage for all grades, in order to accommodate working families. The curriculum in art, music, and physical education, as well as field trips that allow students to experience real-life examples of what is being studied in the classroom and other enriching activities, expose disadvantaged students to learning and enrichment opportunities they might otherwise not have had. Such wrap-around services can assist in leveling the playing field from an economic standpoint, and yet we emphatically do not believe that academic expectations or ultimate performance are tied to socioeconomic status.

Students in other subgroups (e.g., foster youth, homeless youth, students with disabilities) are supported in similar ways to those described above. For example, students in other subgroups receive on-going monitoring and provision of additional targeted customized support. Students are identified through conversations with families about their needs.

A TYPICAL DAY

As visitors walk the halls of CWC Hollywood, they hear sounds that are as diverse as our students themselves. Our program is designed to meet the needs of all students and our community is purposefully planned to support student learning. Those used to a quiet, orderly classroom of children sitting in rows of desks, all looking at the same page in a textbook, may at first be startled by the level of activity at CWC Hollywood. Students of all ages are engaged in animated debate and discussion about group projects, science experiments, and mathematical equations – working at individual desks, round tables, and even on the carpeted floor. At CWC Hollywood, the many different seating options allow for all students to select a workspace best suited to their needs.

Students are engaged in using manipulatives to solve math problems, creating models and dioramas, and charting results from their tests of hypotheses. Student musicians, singers, dancers, artists, writers, and actors are heard creating, practicing, performing, reading aloud, and critiquing. All of these serve as processes for learning and a means to demonstrate their understanding of the arts and core academic content. Students are engaged with educational software on classroom computers or tablets, or researching on the Internet and taking notes. Students explore and experiment in the garden, planting indigenous foods of Native Americans as they study our nation’s history and development. There also are quiet times, when only hushed tones are heard as a class full of students and teachers read, write and reflect, individually or in small groups, or students engage in a class-wide mindfulness activity.
Common Core State Standards and California State Content Standards form the clearly defined path for teachers to create the curriculum. The planning process provides for opportunities for student-initiated questions, variations, diversions, or alternate methods of learning that are inspired by the experiences of the students. As students engage in active learning and make the curriculum their own in their journey to mastering the Common Core and State Standards, teachers are formally and informally assessing their progress. The insights gleaned from that assessment inform both modest changes in instruction (such as supplemental small group lessons) to more substantive changes (such as reordering lessons or purchasing additional curricular materials), as needed. Students learn content and skills through a variety of different methodologies to ensure that each student’s intelligences, learning styles, talents, and challenges are addressed. Teachers continuously tailor instruction to meet the needs of the particular students in each class. Class structures vary from whole class direct instruction to individual pursuits to small group collaboration and instruction, and any other permutation that fits the intellectual exploration at hand. CWC Hollywood teachers are expected to utilize a variety of instructional methods and ongoing formative and summative assessments to continuously determine whether, in fact, the lessons have had the desired outcome: student mastery of standards.

This virtual tour of the Charter School reveals myriad approaches and structures at play. Based on their reflective analysis of student behaviors, classroom dynamics, and learning outcomes, teachers draw on their rich repertoire of instructional strategies to meet the individual needs of their students. A seamless blend of whole group lessons, small group instruction, and individual student conferencing takes place on a daily basis.

In a first grade classroom, during a Readers Workshop block, many learning activities are happening simultaneously—and each one focused on ensuring that the students are prepared to meet the CCSS while also receiving targeted instruction to meet their individual needs as a learner. During this workshop block, some 1st grade students read self-selected stories at their own reading levels. At the same time, a small group of students works with a Teaching Associate to review strategies for figuring out tricky words before they start their independent reading as they strive to master the performance indicator “Know and apply grade level phonics and word analysis skills in decoding words.” As she finishes with that small group, the Teacher Associate calls a second group of three (3) emergent readers who are ELs. She leads them in reading a rhyming pattern book and focusing on phonetic awareness and vocabulary development. In a circle on the carpet, the teacher conducts a guided-reading lesson, modeling how expressive, fluent, oral reading promotes comprehension and enjoyment -- or in kid language reading like you’re talking makes the story more fun to read and easier to understand. While on the surface the purpose may appear to be having a good time, the teacher knows that she is driving towards the performance indicator “Read with sufficient accuracy and fluency to support comprehension.”

Following this Readers Workshop block, this same 1st grade classroom continues to a Specials block where they experience either Spanish, Visual Arts or Music. During that same block, EL students in need of designated ELD are pulled to do additional language development such as being exposed to, and given time to practice, the use of Tier 2 and 3 vocabulary that supports students’ engagement in a science block later that day.

After spending a few moments in several classrooms, it becomes clear that classroom spaces are set up to facilitate student access to resources, including supplies, a word wall, sample texts and their own folders of past work. Student-created resource materials are displayed throughout the classroom and children are encouraged to move throughout the room purposefully to access materials as needed. Students are taught how to find answers without always turning to an adult for support. The teacher alternates roles throughout the day, sometimes delivering instruction and frequently facilitating independent learning activities for individual and small groups of children. While much of this is visible to an observer, what may not be as apparent to a visitor are the standards that drive every aspect instruction across the Charter School.

In a third grade classroom, students finish working independently and in pairs to complete the days’ Math Challenge in their journals. Then, three (3) pairs of students share out to the class the steps in their different approaches to finding a solution. The teacher presents a 15-minute lesson on a third possible algorithm for solving 2-digit multiplication problems. Then, students divide into their math groups. One group works on their ongoing statistics project, graphing the results of their student poll and preparing an analysis of the data. One group works with the teacher on a comparison of the three (3) multiplication algorithms and taking a first step toward identifying the one that makes most sense to them as an individual learner. The other group uses the computers to access the online math practice and review materials to support and reinforce single-digit multiplication facts.

Later in the day, during their designated ELD block, 3rd grade EL students are pulled by the intervention teacher to learn about more complicated language functions like “cause and effect” and “compare and contrast” while practicing written and oral language production with the scaffold of leveled sentence frames.

As one walks the hallways and drops into classrooms, it is notable that rigorous learning activities and student engagement are apparent in all aspects of the instructional program. Teachers ask students to provide evidence for their reasoning. Children collaborate in small groups to work their way through the challenges presented by the teacher. Questions can be heard as they challenge each other to support their thinking and well-articulated statements soon follow as students work to refine their arguments.

Throughout the Charter School, students regularly interact with their peers in their own classrooms and across grades. Halls are filled with examples of students’ achievements and efforts, including detailed explanations to give context to each project displayed so that their fellow students, teachers, parents, and other visitors can learn from students’ work. The work displayed contains not only the finished product but also artifacts that reveal something about the learning process. Displayed work enables other students to reflect on and learn from the learning strategies of their peers, thereby developing their metacognitive skills.

The faculty and staff at CWC Hollywood consistently create and foster a school culture of joy, excitement, and celebration of learning and the work being done within and beyond the school walls by our students. The Principal greets each child by name and is warmly embraced by students who are eager to report on a recent accomplishment. Parents are a common presence in our Charter School, as enthusiastic supporters of student performances and demonstrations; volunteers in the classrooms, office, and lunch area; and serving as true “boosters” of our operation. This collaborative effort ensures that students feel enthusiastic about their school experience, supportive of their classmates, and supported by their teachers, peers, and parents in their learning and development.
ELEMENT 2: MEASUREABLE PUPIL OUTCOMES AND ELEMENT 3: METHOD BY WHICH PUPIL PROGRESS TOWARD OUTCOMES WILL BE MEASURED

“The measurable pupil outcomes identified for use by the charter school. “Pupil outcomes,” for purposes of this part, means the extent to which all pupils of the school demonstrate that they have attained the skills, knowledge, and attitudes specified as goals in the school’s educational program. Pupil outcomes shall include outcomes that address increases in pupil academic achievement both school wide and for all groups of pupils served by the charter school, as that term is defined in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 47607. The pupil outcomes shall align with the state priorities, as described in subdivision (d) of Section 52060, that apply for the grade levels served, or the nature of the program operated, by the charter school.” (Ed. Code § 47605(b)(5)(B).)

“The method by which pupil progress in meeting those pupil outcomes is to be measured. To the extent practicable, the method for measuring pupil outcomes for state priorities shall be consistent with the way information is reported on a school accountability report card.” (Ed. Code § 47605(b)(5)(C).)

MEASURABLE GOALS OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Charter School shall meet all statewide content and performance standards and targets. (Ed. Code §§ 47605(c)(1), 60605.)

Charter School shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations related to AB 97 (2013) (Local Control Funding Formula) and AB 484 (2013), as they may be amended from time to time, including all requirements pertaining to pupil outcomes.

STANDARDIZED TESTING

Charter School agrees to comply with state requirements for participation and administration of all state-mandated tests, including computer-based assessments. Charter School shall submit and maintain complete, accurate, and up-to-date California Longitudinal Pupil Achievement Data System (CALPADS) data in accordance with the requirements of California Code of Regulations, title 5, section 861. Charter School hereby grants authority to the State of California to provide a copy of all test results directly to the District as well as Charter School. Upon request, Charter School shall submit, in the requested format (e.g., CD), a copy of the results of all state-mandated tests to the District.

DEMONSTRATION OF ATTAINED SKILLS, KNOWLEDGE, AND ATTITUDES

STUDENT-LEVEL OUTCOMES

The skills, knowledge and attitudes listed in the charts below are measurable learning goals derived from State Standards and our definition of an educated person. The student academic achievement outcomes to be measured focus on students’ development of basic skills and conceptual understanding of all content areas. Outcomes include knowledge acquisition, problem solving, and reasoning skills.

The tables below list “measurable student outcomes,” as well as the means and frequency of assessing students. For the measurable goals and objectives of CWC Hollywood’s educational program, as well as specific performance targets aligned to state priorities, please see the “LCFF State Priorities” table included in Element 1, incorporated here by reference.

It is important to note that while our primary focus in all aspects of our curriculum is to ensure each student’s mastery of grade level standards in the core content areas, as a mission-based Charter School, we also will value qualities and skills above and beyond the CCSS. As detailed throughout this petition, our “backwards design” approach to lesson planning and our focus on data-informed instruction both work to clearly define and then assess which state standards and other objectives are desired and then achieved.

CWC Hollywood utilizes a variety of assessment tools in evaluating student achievement of stated objectives across all disciplines. Among the assessments used are teachers’ assessments of student work and mastery of applicable standards and other learning objectives via student work portfolios, teacher observation, and conversation with students. Assessments are used as a means of evaluating the implementation of instruction in classrooms. Data from assessments inform schoolwide priorities for professional development, as well as individual teacher supports needed during the year. Data is regularly analyzed as a way of developing these action plans throughout the year.

The skills, knowledge, and attitudes in the chart below are measureable learning goals derived from state and national standards, as well as school-wide learning outcomes. The use of in-house assessments and the frequency of assessment are also addressed. A description of the assessment tools can be found below the chart.

ADDITIONAL OUTCOMES

CWC Hollywood uses CAASPP, ELPAC, and other state required assessments to ensure that:

1. All students meet or exceed grade-level benchmarks
2. All academic growth targets are met

Based on successful test results of CWC LA’s students to date, we expect CWC Hollywood’s student test results to continue to meet or exceed standards in math and language arts on the CAASPP, as compared to schools in the District. We also expect all of our sub-groups to continue to exceed the performance of sub-groups at schools in the District.

In addition, students identified as students with disabilities will demonstrate progress toward their goals as documented and delineated in their IEPs.
ACCOUNTABILITY FOR STUDENT PROGRESS

As required by the Every Student Succeeds Act, the Principal works with the staff to ensure that all students have full access to the curriculum and that each subgroup in the Charter School will be making meaningful progress toward meeting grade level standards and objectives, and that all core teachers are properly credentialed. The Principal and faculty are accountable for academic achievement of the students at CWC Hollywood. The Principal is ultimately responsible for meeting target goals, and is held accountable by the Executive Director or designee and Board of Directors.

To meet the accountability targets, school leaders guide CWC Hollywood teachers in examining and analyzing pupil outcomes regularly. During the beginning of the school year, teachers participate in a professional development institute, which gives them the opportunity to analyze data from the previous school year and review report cards. When state testing data arrives, teachers review the data and reflect on their teaching methodologies. Teachers also engage in vertical articulation with one another. Throughout the school year, students are assessed regularly and student results are examined and discussed in grade level teams in order to determine if curriculum modifications are necessary.

VARIED AND AUTHENTIC ASSESSMENT

CWC Hollywood defines assessment as the systematic and ongoing process of collecting, describing, and analyzing of information about student progress and achievement in relation to curriculum expectations. We believe assessment serves a dual purpose: 1) to assess individual students or groups of students to note progress; and 2) to assess the quality of instruction to improve future learning. The data collected from assessments assists CWC Hollywood in analyzing progress so that staff can modify and refine the teaching/learning cycle to better meet student needs.

CWC Hollywood believes that assessment is vital to ongoing success and uses multiple measures of assessment to provide a richer and more in-depth view of each student’s progress. We use assessment data to evaluate the progress of the Charter School as a whole, drive instruction, create differentiated instructional programs for individual students, communicate with parents about their students’ progress, and help empower students to self-reflect about their own learning.

At CWC Hollywood, we believe that assessment is a valuable informational tool used to gather data about the students we serve. We use both ongoing and periodic assessment tools to provide a balanced assessment approach. Teachers use a variety of strategies to provide a clear picture of student progress and how the instructional approach can be adjusted to increase student achievement. Our balanced assessment approach utilizes both formative and summative assessment strategies to monitor student progress and report out on how students are meeting standards-based learning objectives. The following is a description of the assessment tools used:

1. NWEA MAP: In the areas of Math, Language Usage and Reading, students take the NWEA MAP assessments. This assessment is Common Core-aligned, nationally normed, and taken online (via student computers or tablets). Administered at least two times a year, the MAP tests adjust as a student works, generating assessment questions that get harder or easier depending on how each individual student fares. Therefore, one can determine not only if a student is at grade level but also how far below or above that child is. These features enable the timely collection and analysis of student data. At a leadership level, NWEA MAP assessments generate data reports and comparisons to see how students perform compared with national averages based on grade level and subject area. At the teacher level, data reports are broken down for each student so teachers can see what areas the student has mastered, which helps teachers align instruction specifically for what each student needs and is ready for at different points of the school year. Results also are reviewed by student race/ethnicity and student program (Free and Reduced Price Lunch eligibility, EL designation, and special education services). Students are expected to perform on or above grade level relative to the national average and to demonstrate growth that meets or exceeds the national average.

2. DEVELOPMENTAL READING ASSESSMENT (DRA) AND/OR FOUNTAS AND PINNELL BENCHMARK ASSESSMENT SYSTEM ("BAS"): The DRA and BAS are assessments that determine a student’s current reading level and progress along a gradient of text levels over time. They are designed to gauge student strengths and weaknesses against grade-level standards. The DRA and BAS provide: 1) quick feedback on how students are progressing; 2) information at the class or grade level on the strengths and weaknesses of particular writing strands; and 3) targeted strategies for helping students master grade-level skills.

3. ON-DEMAND UNIT ASSESSMENTS AND RUBRICS (AS PART OF THE UNITS OF STUDY IN READING AND WRITING CURRICULUM): The Units of Study for Reading and Writing are standards-based curricular materials for the teaching of reading and writing in a workshop-based classroom. Each unit identifies the core learning objectives for the genre under investigation and has an accompanying on-demand end-of-unit assessment. These assessments come with commonly used rubrics that help to determine students’ development with both reading skills as well as writing craft and conventions. They provide a means to monitor student progress during the year, as well longitudinally over multiple years.

4. RUBRICS BASED ON THE CRITERIA PRESENTED IN A CURRICULAR PLAN FOR THE WRITING WORKSHOP (K-5): The Curricular Plans are standards-based curricular materials for teaching writing workshop. Each unit identifies the core learning objectives for the genre under investigation.

5. MATH SUMMATIVE ASSESSMENTS: We use a variety of assessment tools to assess student learning. There are many opportunities to collect data to: 1) see how each student’s mathematical understanding is progressing; and 2) to provide feedback to the teacher about each student’s instructional needs.

6. BACKWARDS BY DESIGN RUBRICS & CHECKLISTS: With the guidance of the Principal, teachers develop valid and reliable rubrics and checklists using the Backwards by Design approach to be used for evaluating student projects. These tools provide ongoing data about students’ progress towards meeting state and grade-level standards and incorporate additional learning goals for social and emotional learning. Teachers refer to these assessment tools as they observe students and analyze student work. Students also are guided in developing awareness of their own progress toward achieving standards mastery through on-going formal and informal conferences with their teachers.
7. OBSERVATION & DOCUMENTATION: Written observations of student learning are used to help teachers evaluate students as both individuals and participants in a group setting. Teachers are guided in documenting student progress against criterion-referenced checklists and benchmarks that are derived from content standards. Documentation plays a role in assessing student learning in all areas of the curriculum.

8. PORTFOLIOS: Portfolios can be used first and foremost as a means to demonstrate student growth over time. Consistent with our instructional philosophy, portfolios can give students opportunities for choice and to show their individual interests and talents. In addition to offering teachers a tool for gauging students' progress, strengths, and challenges, the portfolio design includes procedures to bring students and families into the assessment process. By asking students to reflect on their own performance, we empower them to recognize and be responsible for their own learning.

Teachers use these assessment tools to gather data several times per year to track individual student success and to give a profile of the overall success and development of achievement at CWC Hollywood. School leaders then analyze this data to identify trends and address specific needs.

Teachers are guided by Principal-designated professional development programs to specifically address the needs of learners who are not making adequate progress. Students who show a continued lack of progress toward meeting grade-level standards are referred to resources mentioned in Element 1.

USING STANDARDIZED TEST SCORES IN MEASURING PUPIL PROGRESS

CWC Hollywood believes that standardized tests provide only a part, albeit a key part, of the picture in determining student achievement. Our students will take all standardized tests required by the state and will participate in CAASPP testing starting in 3rd grade. These will be the chief accountability measures in place from the state and federal government. CWC Hollywood will comply with all changes to these testing requirements (e.g., additional grades taking additional portions of the test, etc.).

In addition to using standardized tests to evaluate the effectiveness of the instruction and educational program offered, CWC Hollywood considers standardized test scores to provide a small, but important, window into the achievement levels of students. CWC Hollywood demonstrates progress on the aggregate results of standards-based reports. Further, these reports and standardized test data are disaggregated to show how sub-groups (e.g., EL vs. non-EL) perform.

The following is a listing of the standardized assessments that are used by CWC Hollywood:

- CAASPP: CAASPP is administered during the spring to all students in grades 3-5. This test measures student progress in various subjects. CWC Hollywood will comply with all changes to these testing requirements (e.g., additional grades, taking additional portions, etc.).

- CAST: The California Science Test is administered once a year to all 5th graders in the state. CWC Hollywood will comply with all changes to the science testing requirements as they may evolve over the charter term.
• THE CALIFORNIA ALTERNATE ASSESSMENTS ("CAA") for ELA and mathematics are given in grades three through five. The CAAs are a part of the CAASPP system. Only eligible students may participate in the administration of the CAAs. IEP teams "shall determine when a child with a significant cognitive disability shall participate in an alternate assessment aligned with the alternate academic achievement standards." (Title 1, Part A, Subpart 1, Sec. 1111(b)(2)(D)(ii)(I)—Every Student Succeeds Act, 2015) CAA items are aligned with alternate achievement standards, which are linked with the CCSS for students with significant cognitive disabilities. The goals of the CAAs are to ensure that students with significant cognitive disabilities achieve increasingly higher academic outcomes and leave high school ready for postsecondary options.

• ELPAC: ELPAC is provided to students until they are reclassified. We follow the state’s guidance on the administration of the ELPAC.

• FITNESSGRAM: The Fitnessgram, California’s state testing in physical fitness, is scheduled and adopted as a measurement of physical fitness for students in grade 5. Other assessment tools also will be used to measure physical fitness in grades K-5.

CWC Hollywood meets all statewide standards and conducts pupil assessments required pursuant to Education Code Section 60605, and any other statewide standards authorized in statute.

DATA MANAGEMENT AND ANALYSIS

CWC Hollywood utilizes a student information system ("SIS"), which is currently Illuminate but is subject to change, that has the capacity to capture data and create a variety of reports and analyses on topics such as student achievement, student subgroup, grade-level, and classroom data, tailored to the needs of our Charter School and our instructional methodologies. We ensure that our SIS integrates with District systems and/or reporting requirements.

USE OF DATA TO INFORM DECISION-MAKING AT ALL LEVELS

Student performance data is utilized by all members of the CWC Hollywood community. Guided by the Executive Director (who is held accountable by the Board of Directors) or designee, the Principal is responsible for monitoring student progress towards identified goals and adjusting the academic program to meet those goals as needed. The Principal and CWC Hollywood staff work together to implement an effective reporting system to share data with students, families, and the community. Data is collected, analyzed and reviewed to monitor student progress toward meeting grade-level standards and to inform instructional practice. The descriptions below are ways in which data is utilized and shared.

SCHOOL-LEVEL DATA

School-level data is used to inform school-wide decisions by the Board of Directors, Executive Director or designee and/or Principal. Identifiable trends in student performance data form the basis for key leadership decisions, including changes to the academic program, resource allocation, professional development focus areas, and targeted instructional coaching for teachers. A variety of school-level data is shared with the community and Board of Directors. CWC Hollywood reports on mandated state testing and sub-group data (socioeconomically disadvantaged, EL, Latino, African American, etc.). CWC Hollywood uses the School Accountability Report Card ("SARC") to share other relevant data, where appropriate.
CLASS-LEVEL DATA

Class-level data is used to inform decisions within the classroom and across the Charter School, as needed.

In partnership with school leaders, teachers reflect on the progress each child is making and the appropriateness of the educational program being offered. Through this work, they are coached to modify instructional approaches based on student data. As a result of these reflections and meetings, teachers may choose to re-teach units and skills, condense upcoming lessons, or restructure student grouping. Teachers may also use the data to realign their curriculum or revise their pedagogical techniques for future units and/or school years.

School leaders analyze assessment data regularly. Gaps in student knowledge become the focus of teacher development in the classroom and help determine appropriate professional development experiences. The staff are trained on how to interpret both formative and standardized test data and are engaged in critical analysis of all assessment data in real-time – including that created and derived from their classroom activities – in order to determine how best to address any performance deficiencies or negative data trends, both for groups of students as well as individual children. Data analysis is yet another part of our strategy to ensure all students receive differentiated and meaningful instruction, based on their individual needs.

INDIVIDUAL STUDENT DATA

Individual student data are used to provide families, teachers and students with detailed information about each student’s achievement. In addition to tracking student progress toward grade level standards, individual student data can be used for in-depth analysis of student strengths and areas of concern. When necessary, this analysis is used to design intervention programs that meet student needs. It may also be used to help inform supplemental remedial instruction, special education evaluations, or more challenging enrichment.

Progress reports, based on state standards and school-generated goals and objectives, are issued at least twice each year. The progress reports explain both learning and behavioral objectives and mark the student’s progress toward mastery of the expectations. These reports can also be used as part of parent-teacher conferences.

GRADING POLICY

CWC Hollywood uses a developmental progress rubric report card at least two times per year (typically in the winter and spring, although this is subject to change based on CWC Hollywood’s on-going needs). The report, which is continuously revisited and updated on a regular basis by teachers and staff at CWC Hollywood, is based on grade level expectations, and the scale indicates whether a student is meeting expectations. For example, the scale may include four categories or levels (Beginning, Developing, Meeting and Exceeding), which reflect the degree to which each child has acquired the specific standards, skills, and behaviors that are included in each grade level report. CWC Hollywood continually updates the report card with staff while norming to ensure consistent grading across all instructional staff. The report card also may contain a narrative component, where teachers further discuss student progress toward meeting grade-level standards and goals.
PROMOTION POLICY

CWC Hollywood’s staff is dedicated to all students making suitable progress and achieving a level of proficiency that enables them to be promoted to the next grade level. Staff uses assessments, which include NWEA data, and classroom observations to differentiate learning so that each child makes progress and reaches proficiency. The Student Support Team also is available to offer tiered support for students who need support beyond classroom differentiation. However, there are cases when students do not achieve the desired level of proficiency (academically, socially and/or emotionally) and should be retained at the same grade level. In such cases, school leaders communicate with the child’s parent or guardian in the spring to present information on the student’s progress/proficiency in all areas and recommendations for retention. While family input is an important part of the decision process, CWC LA makes the final determination on student retention. Parents are informed in writing of the appeals process when the final decision to retain a student is made. The school engages in a multi-month process to assess each student’s situation and discuss any potential retention decision with parents. Documentation that allows the parents to provide input is provided to parents in advance of a final decision. Parents are informed in writing and in their primary language, if necessary, that they may appeal CWC Hollywood’s decision to the Executive Director within ten (10) days of receiving the school’s retention decision. The Executive Director provides a final decision by June 30th of the year in which an appeal is received. The Executive Director’s decision is final.

LONGITUDINAL ANALYSIS OF PROGRESS

Results from our assessment activities are collected and analyzed continuously in order to drive program improvement across all facets of the Charter School. We regularly report on and distribute information about Charter School progress to the community, including, but not limited to, summary data on the following key outcomes and milestones:

- Student progress toward the Charter School’s goals and outcomes from assessment instruments and techniques as described in this section
- Major Board decisions and policies established or changed by the Board during the year
- Major community accomplishments, including fundraising efforts, facility developments, community partnerships and more
- Additional information, including other information regarding the educational program and the administrative, legal and governance operations of the Charter School

Information provided to the community is aggregated and not provided at the student-level in order to protect student confidentiality. Information may be disseminated in various ways, including meetings with the Principal, regular communications from CWC Hollywood to families, community gatherings such as back-to-school night, on the website, and other ways parents access information from CWC Hollywood.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS COMPOSITION AND MEMBER SELECTION

BOARD COMPOSITION

The Board of Directors has the number of members pursuant to the organization’s bylaws (currently between three (3) and thirteen (13) members with nine (9) active members as of the submission of the CWC Hollywood charter). These members have a range of skills and expertise that they bring to the Board, including finance, fundraising, school leadership, instruction, strategic planning, real estate, legal and other skills. These skills help provide oversight of critical areas of need for the organization and also provide important perspectives during Board deliberations to ensure that a broad range of perspectives and best practices are taken into consideration. The Board currently has several parents who serve as Board members to ensure that CWC Hollywood maintains the parent perspective when making decisions.

MEMBER SELECTION

The process of selecting members of the CWC LA Board of Directors is described in the Bylaws of the organization. Board members serve a three (3)-year term after an election by the Board.

The CWC LA Board nominates directors for approval by the organization’s sole statutory member. When identifying Board members for nomination, the Board seeks a set of individuals who can bring significant expertise and for the parents, those who can also bring a parent perspective to the Board. The Board engages in a rigorous analysis of the skills needed on the Board (such as finance, strategic planning, fundraising, legal, policy, instruction, real estate, compliance and other areas) when engaging in a search for new members. Several members of the Board (less than what would constitute a quorum at any given time) actively engage with candidates before bringing a final candidate to the Board for consideration and nomination, subject to approval by the sole statutory member.

Please see the bylaws for additional information.

GOVERNANCE PROCEDURES AND OPERATIONS

CWC LA holds approximately one regular Board meeting each month, and currently rotates between school locations in the CWC LA region. CWC LA will establish a two-way teleconference location at each schoolsite and each resource center. Board meeting frequency is subject to change each year based on the Board’s annual approval of the regular Board meeting calendar and/or other needs identified by the Board. All Board meetings will be held in accordance with the Brown Act, and stakeholders and the public are welcome and encouraged to participate. The Board receives annual training in the Brown Act. Agendas are posted on the CWC LA website and at each of the CWC LA school sites, and an email announcement is also sent out advertising each meeting. Activities of CWC Hollywood will be addressed separately, when necessary, and there will be regular opportunities via public comment for stakeholders and the public to participate in the governance of CWC Hollywood. The calendar of regular Board meetings will be established by the Board by the end of each fiscal year for the subsequent year.

Board decisions are made at meetings when a quorum is present (defined as a majority of directors then in office). Meetings by teleconference are permissible as long as all members of the Board can hear one another and the requirements of the Brown Act are followed, including: a quorum of the Board must be located within the LAUSD jurisdictional boundaries; votes must be taken by roll call; meeting agendas are posted at all teleconference locations and each teleconference location is identified on the agenda; all teleconference locations must be accessible to the public; members of the public must be able to hear and be provided an opportunity to address the Board at each teleconference location.
Similar to above, please see the bylaws for additional information, and note that the provisions of this charter are subject to change should the bylaws be changed by the Board and shared with the District.

Charter School has set forth below its initial plan for achieving and maintaining the LAUSD’s Racial and Ethnic Balance goal of a 70:30 or 60:40 ratio. (Ratio represents the percentage of Predominantly Hispanic Black Asian Other (PHBAO) compared to Other White (OW)). GENERAL OVERVIEW

A student population that reflects the demographics of LAUSD – and the remarkably diverse neighborhood we serve – is integral to our mission. CWC Hollywood is committed to making diligent efforts to recruit students from a broad array of racial and ethnic groups so as to achieve a balance that is reflective of the general population residing within the communities served by the Charter School. As shared above, the expected demographics of CWC Hollywood’s student population largely reflect the demographics of the neighborhoods being served by the Charter School. CWC Hollywood maintains an accurate accounting of ethnic and racial balance of students enrolled in the Charter School and the Charter School’s efforts to achieve LAUSD’s racial and ethnic balance.

See Element 1 for a detailed discussion of the population we intend to serve.

MEANS OF RECRUITING A DIVERSE STUDENT BODY TO CWC HOLLYWOOD

CWC Hollywood builds upon the successful model of community partnerships and outreach that the Charter School has already developed in its first two charter terms, thereby facilitating the enrollment of a student population that reflects the community at large. In addition, CWC
Hollywood provides an admission preference for students who qualify for free or reduced priced meal programs, enabling the Charter School to ensure a balance of student socioeconomic status.

However, we must still be intentional and proactive in our outreach so that our Charter School closely approximates the demographics of the local community. We will build on the Charter School’s history of working with leaders of local community organizations, preschool programs, religious organizations and neighborhood leaders who are committed to assisting us in promoting our Charter School to area families, particularly those who are traditionally most in need.

Intentional and proactive activities include, for example:

A. Meet with the leadership of local preschools, day care centers, businesses, and service and community organizations in order to:
   1. Inform leaders and their constituents/clients/acquaintances of the Charter School’s mission, programs, and services;
   2. Hear and address the needs, questions and concerns of all community members;
   3. Foster an ongoing mutually beneficial relationship with other organizations that are serving the community.
B. Hold informational/orientation sessions for parents and community members at local preschools, religious centers, community centers, parks, libraries and more to reach out to families of young children and inform them about CWC Hollywood’s mission and operations.
C. Ensure placement of CWC Hollywood informational brochures and promotional fliers about school/community events in local preschools, religious facilities, libraries, businesses, and community organizations.
D. Form mutually-beneficial partnerships with organizations in our area to offer referrals and services to the children and families we serve.
E. Post information on our website as a source of information and outreach for the Charter School.

CWC Hollywood works diligently to ensure that individuals conduct these outreach efforts with appropriate language fluency for the target audience at each event/location.

In addition to utilizing the existing structures of organizations that serve the community, Charter School staff and volunteers publicize the Charter School to potential parents using the following means:

- INTERNET Our website serves a central hub for Charter School information, along with email blasts and other virtual communities that are contacted and/or created
- BRANDING The Charter School logo is used to identify the Charter School and CWC Hollywood uses its reasonable best efforts to ensure that the logo is prominently displayed on all distributed materials
- COMMUNITY EVENTS/FAIRS/FESTIVALS: The Charter School staff and volunteers attend local events including fairs, festivals, farmers markets, and other local events
- MULTILINGUAL PARK INFORMATION SESSIONS: prior to the lottery each spring, Charter School representatives hold multilingual events at local parks and/or playgrounds. Charter School representatives speak with potential parents about the Charter School, and hand out Charter School brochures/registration information
- MEET AND GREETS/TOWN HALL MEETINGS: we have larger events to have a dialogue with interested parents, and also have larger meetings when required. We view these meetings as crucial forums for parents to ask questions of, and offer guidance to, Charter
School staff

Our staff continually monitors the community for new community organizations and businesses with which to form relationships, and serves as the lead in conducting outreach with new contacts and forming new partnerships. Our Principal holds primary responsibility for planning orientation and outreach meetings and events with prospective families.

OUTREACH LANGUAGES

Outreach is conducted primarily in English and Spanish, though we continue to assess the need to provide outreach in additional languages. As noted previously, our target community is remarkably diverse and includes a multitude of nationalities.

ACHIEVING RACIAL AND ETHNIC BALANCE

As noted throughout this document, our mission is based on a concept of creating a truly diverse charter school that reflects the neighborhood it serves, and the broader demographics of Los Angeles. As detailed extensively in Element 1, our target community is one of the most diverse areas of this city. As “Citizens of the World,” we seek to embrace this diversity in our student enrollment and ensure a multi-cultural environment rich with unique experiences for our students to learn from one another. CWC Hollywood continuously monitors our progress toward achieving diversity, including a racial and ethnic balance, over the course of our charter term.

Our child-centered approach to education is particularly impactful for these children.

PREFERENCES IN ADMISSION

The Charter School designates an open enrollment period from the fall (approximately September or October) through the lottery date (typically 1-2 weeks after the end of the open enrollment period), which is in late winter unless notice is publicly provided to the community with a different timeline. Following the open enrollment period each year, applications are counted to determine whether the Charter School has received more applications than availability. In the event that this happens, the Charter School holds a public random drawing to determine admission, with the exception of existing students, who are guaranteed admission in the following school year. The following admission preferences shall be given:

1. Students residing within LAUSD.
2. Siblings of students admitted to or attending the Charter School. Siblings are defined as any two students who share a parent/legal guardian. (Legal documentation may be required.)
3. Children of the Founding Parents of CWC Hollywood, consistent with LAUSD’s Founding Parent/Founders Preference policy, and not to exceed 10% of the Charter School’s enrollment.
4. Students who qualify for free or reduced priced meal programs.
5. Students who are currently enrolled in, and students who reside in, the attendance area of the public elementary school where the Charter School is located.¹⁹
6. Children of CWC Hollywood employees (excluding those in contract/temporary/substitute positions) and CWC LA Board of Directors members, not to exceed 10% of the Charter School’s enrollment.
7. All other applicants.

LOTTERY TIMELINES

The Charter School designates a publicly advertised open enrollment period each year, and a deadline for consideration for the public random drawing in approximately January, February or March (typically 1-2 weeks after the end of the open enrollment period), unless notice is publicly provided to the community regarding a different timeframe. If at the end of the open application window, there are more applicants than capacity at any grade level at CWC Hollywood, admission, except for existing pupils, is determined by public random drawing (“lottery”).

Following the lottery, parents of students who are offered spots are notified by U.S. mail, phone call, text and/or email by either a member of the Regional Support Office team who manages the lottery system, or by member(s) of CWC Hollywood responsible for managing outreach to families. Parents of students who are not offered spots also receive notice by U.S. mail, text and/or email and informed of their placement on the wait list. When spots are offered to the initial pool, families are given a specified deadline in which to accept the spot and request an enrollment packet. Depending on the date of the lottery, this time period is at least five (5) days from the lottery but may be longer. The enrollment packet must be returned either electronically or via hard copy by the student’s parent or guardian within the deadline given by the Charter School (at least two weeks from the lottery). The Principal or designee coordinates the process and Charter School staff handles notifications and processing of enrollment materials. Independent observers are welcomed at all lotteries.

LOCATION OF LOTTERY

The location of the lottery is arranged to ensure maximum parent participation. Ideally the lottery takes place on Charter School grounds, although alternate sites may be used if the anticipated public participation is greater than the Charter School site could safely accommodate.

DATE AND TIME OF LOTTERY

The Charter School designates an open enrollment period from the fall (approximately September or October) through the lottery date (typically 1-2 weeks after the end of the open enrollment period) as described above. The lottery date is designed to maximize applications and attendance and is set based on a variety of factors, including school vacation schedules, private school application deadlines and response timeframes, other charter school lotteries, logistics at the Charter School site, and other factors. The lottery date is in January, February or March, and may vary slightly based on the factors named above, unless notice is publicly provided to the community regarding a different timeframe. The Charter School typically holds the lottery in the evening (around 5:00pm or 6:00pm) at the physical location of CWC Hollywood so that parents who work during the day will be able to attend.

At the lottery, the Principal or designee draws names for each grade in which there are more applicants than spaces available. The Principal or designee is present to ensure fair and accurate implementation of the lottery procedures. Students are assigned a number corresponding to the number of enrollment slots. Once all enrollment slots have been made available, remaining students are added to the wait list in the order in which they were randomly drawn. Records are kept on file at the Charter School documenting the fair execution of the lottery, such as documentation of the number of open seats and electronic records contained in CWC Hollywood’s lottery management system, which includes the information contained on the CWC Hollywood lottery form.

FAIR EXECUTION OF LOTTERY PROCEDURES

At all times, our enrollment and lottery process is transparent. Parents are encouraged to attend the public drawing and the time and place is scheduled in order to maximize attendance. The Charter School’s policies and procedures regarding enrollment are clearly publicized in the application instructions, in the CWC Hollywood Family Handbook, on Charter School tours, and on our website. Information about the time and location of the lottery is posted on the Charter School’s website, on the lottery interest form, and at the Charter School site. This information is also included in public notices and flyers posted in the community and is available by calling the Charter School. In order to document the fair execution of the lottery, the Regional Support Office and CWC Hollywood Principal maintain all forms (written and/or electronic) for students who participated in the lottery for one year, as well as the documentation of the order of names selected.

WAIT LISTS

During the same public random drawing, once enrollment is reached, the remaining names are placed on a wait list in the order drawn. The order of names on the wait list is developed utilizing the same preferences and procedures as the lottery. If vacancies occur during the school year, the vacancies are filled according to the wait list.

Students who are not offered seats for the academic school year for which the lottery was held remain on the wait list until the end of that academic year unless otherwise requested by the parent to be taken off. The wait list is cleared at the end of the academic year for which the lottery was drawn. Therefore, the wait list does not carry over from one year to the next.

NOTIFICATION TO PARENTS ON WAIT LIST

As spots become available, families on the wait list are notified via telephone, text and/or email by either a member of the Regional Support Office team who manages the lottery system, or by member(s) of CWC Hollywood responsible for managing outreach to families, in the order they appear on the wait list and given at least three (3) days to respond to the request.

PARENT COMMUNICATION

Lottery interest forms and enrollment forms are available online at the Charter School’s website and/or in the main office. Lottery interest forms may be completed via paper and handed or mailed into the office to a designated representative, or completed via an electronic system.
Samples of our lottery interest and enrollment forms are included in our submission. An explanation of the application and enrollment process is provided at outreach events, in written application materials, on our website, and in the Charter School office. Public notice is posted at the Charter School site and/or website regarding the date, time, and location of the public drawing, encouraging people to attend.

CWC Hollywood offers tours and/or orientation meetings prior to the application deadline with the Principal or a designated Charter School representative in order to discuss with interested parents the Charter School philosophy, mission, and instructional practices.

ENROLLMENT RECORDS

Only uninterested parties who are employees of the Charter School or individuals or organizations with authorization will handle enrollment data. The data is kept on file at the Charter School, or in an electronic system maintained by the Charter School, in the event of the need for an audit. Data is monitored by a member of the CWC LA Regional Support Office team (this position is currently the Director of Data and Compliance, but this is subject to change).
ELEMENT 9 – ANNUAL FINANCIAL AUDITS

“The manner in which annual, independent financial audits shall be conducted, which shall employ generally accepted accounting principles, and the manner in which audit exceptions and deficiencies shall be resolved to the satisfaction of the chartering authority.” (Ed. Code § 47605(b)(5)(l).)

Charter School shall provide for an annual audit that shall be conducted in compliance with applicable state and federal laws, including but not limited to the requirements of Education Code sections 47605(b)(5)(l) and 41020 as they may be amended from time to time. Charter School shall ensure compliance with the requirements of section 41020(f)(2), which makes it unlawful, absent an Education Audits Appeal Panel waiver, for a public accounting firm to provide audit services to a local educational agency if the lead audit partner, or coordinating audit partner, having primary responsibility for the audit, or the audit partner responsible for reviewing the audit, has performed audit services for that local educational agency in each of the six previous years.

The following reports will be submitted to LAUSD, in the required format and within timelines to be specified by LAUSD, each year:

a. Provisional Budget – Spring prior to operating fiscal year
b. Final Budget – July of the budget fiscal year
c. First Interim Projections – November of operating fiscal year
d. Second Interim Projections – February of operating fiscal year
e. Unaudited Actuals – July following the end of the fiscal year
f. Audited Actuals – December 15 following the end of the fiscal year

ANNUAL INDEPENDENT AUDIT

An annual independent financial audit of the books and records of the Charter School will be conducted as required by Education Code Sections 47605(b)(5)(l) and 47605(m). The books and records of the Charter School will be kept in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and as required by applicable law, and the audit will employ generally accepted accounting procedures. The audit shall be conducted in accordance with applicable provisions within the California Code of Regulations governing audits of charter schools, as published in the State Controller’s K-12 Audit Guide. To the extent required under applicable federal law, the audit scope will be expanded to include items and processes specified in applicable Office of Management and Budget Circulars.

The Executive Director or designee is responsible for ensuring that the annual audit is completed and forwarded to the District, the County Superintendent of Schools, the State Controller, and to the CDE by the 15th of December of each year. The Executive Director and any other reviewers of the audit would review any audit exceptions, deficiencies, findings or material weaknesses with the Board of Directors. The Board would assign several members (less than quorum) to work with the Executive Director and the auditors to develop a comprehensive plan to resolve any noted audit exceptions, deficiencies, findings or material weaknesses and to prevent future occurrence. This action plan would be presented to the full Board for deliberation and approval in a reasonable timeframe depending on the seriousness of the deficiency, finding or material weakness. The Board would receive an update and full resolution within several months of the initiation of this process. The Board would submit a report to the District describing how the exceptions and deficiencies have been or will be resolved to the satisfaction of the District along with an anticipated timeline for the same. Audit appeals or requests for summary review shall be submitted to the Education Audit Appeals Panel (“EAAP”) in accordance with applicable law.

The independent financial audit of the Charter School will be a public record to be provided to the public upon request.

AUDITOR SELECTION AND OVERSIGHT

The Board shall have a standing Audit Committee comprised of at least one Board member and may include others who are not Board members, so long as they have no material financial interest in any entity doing business with the organization. The Audit Committee shall not include any members of the staff, including the President and the Chief Financial Officer (whether or not such persons are unpaid volunteers). The Audit Committee shall be responsible for the preparation of the annual audit of the corporation in accordance with California Education Code Sections 47605(b)(5)(i) and 47605(m) and Government Auditing Standards issued by the Controller General of the United States. In addition, the Audit Committee shall recommend the retention and termination of the independent auditor and may negotiate the independent auditor’s compensation, on behalf of the Board.

Based on the recommendations of the Audit Committee, the Board of Directors shall select an independent auditor and shall oversee the annual audit. The Executive Director or designee (such as a back-office provider hired by CWC Hollywood and managed by the Executive Director or designee) shall have responsibility for working with the auditor to complete the audit and will confirm that any selected auditor is on the State Controller’s list of approved auditors to conduct charter school audits.
ELEMENT 10 – SUSPENSION AND EXPULSION PROCEDURES

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Charter School shall provide due process for all students, including adequate and timely notice to parents/guardians and students of the grounds for all suspension and expulsion recommendations and decisions and their due process rights regarding suspension and expulsion, including rights of appeal.

Charter School shall ensure that its policies and procedures regarding suspension and expulsion will be periodically reviewed, and modified as necessary, in order to conform to changes in state law.

Charter School shall ensure that its staff is knowledgeable about and complies with the District’s Discipline Foundation Policy and/or current equivalent policy, as required by the Modified Consent Decree. Charter School shall comply with the terms of the School Discipline Policy and School Climate Bill of Rights resolution adopted by the LAUSD Board of Education on May 6, 2013.

Charter School shall be responsible for the appropriate interim placement of students during and pending the completion of Charter School’s student expulsion process and shall facilitate the post-expulsion placement of expelled students.

Charter School shall document and implement the alternatives to suspension and expulsion that Charter School utilizes in response to attendance-related concerns, e.g. truancy or excessive tardiness.

Charter School shall establish and implement policies and procedures to ensure full compliance with federal and state laws and regulations regarding the discipline of students with disabilities. If a student is recommended for expulsion and the student receives or is eligible for special education, pending the completion of the expulsion process, Charter School shall identify and provide special education programs and services at an appropriate interim educational placement determined in coordination with the LAUSD Division of Special Education.

In the case of a student who has an Individualized Education Program (“IEP”), or a student who has a Section 504 Plan, Charter School shall ensure that it follows correct disciplinary procedures to comply with the mandates of state and federal laws, including IDEA and section 504 of the Rehabilitation Plan of 1973. As set forth in the MOU regarding special education between the District and Charter School, an IEP team will meet to conduct a manifestation determination and to discuss alternative placement utilizing the District’s Special Education Policies and Procedures Manual. Prior to recommending expulsion for a student with a Section 504 Plan, Charter School’s administrator will convene a Link Determination meeting to ask the following two questions:

A. Was the misconduct caused by, or directly and substantially related to the student’s disability?

B. Was the misconduct a direct result of the Charter School’s failure to implement Section 504?
NOTIFICATION OF THE DISTRICT

Upon expelling any student, Charter School shall notify the Charter Schools Division by submitting an expulsion packet to the CSD immediately or as soon as practicable, which shall contain:

- Completed “Notification of Charter School Expulsion” [form available from the CSD website or office], including attachments as required on the form.
- Documentation of the expulsion proceeding, including statement of specific facts supporting the expulsion and documentation that Charter School’s policies and procedures were followed.
- Copy of parental notice of expulsion hearing.
- Copy of expulsion notice provided to parent stating reason for expulsion, term of expulsion, rehabilitation plan, reinstatement notice with eligibility date and instructions for providing proof of student’s compliance for reinstatement, appeal process, and options for enrollment.
- If the student is eligible for Special Education, documentation related to expulsion in compliance with IDEA and the MCD, including the Expulsion Analysis page of the pre-expulsion IEP.
- If the student is eligible for Section 504 accommodations, documentation that Charter School conducted a Link Determination meeting to address two questions:
  A. Was the misconduct caused by, or directly and substantially related to the student’s disability?
  B. Was the misconduct a direct result of Charter School’s failure to implement Section 504 Plan?

Notwithstanding and apart from the documentation sent to the Charter Schools Division as indicated above, if the student is a resident of a school district other than LAUSD, Charter School must notify the superintendent of the student’s district of residence within 30 days of the expulsion. Additionally, upon request of the receiving school district, Charter School shall forward student records no later than 10 school days from the date of the request as stated in Education Code section 49068 (a) and (b).

OUTCOME DATA

Charter School shall gather and maintain all data related to placement, tracking, and monitoring of student suspensions, expulsions, and reinstatements, and make such outcome data readily available to the District upon request.

REHABILITATION PLANS

Pupils who are expelled from Charter School shall be given a rehabilitation plan upon expulsion as developed by Charter School’s governing board at the time of the expulsion order, which may include, but is not limited to, periodic review as well as assessment at the time of review for readmission. Terms of expulsion should be reasonable and fair with the weight of the expelling offense taken into consideration when determining the length of expulsion. Therefore, the rehabilitation plan should include a date not later than one (1) year from the date of expulsion when the pupil may apply to Charter School for readmission. Charter School shall inform parents in writing of its processes for reinstatement and applying for expungement of the expulsion record.
READMISSION

Charter School’s governing board shall adopt rules establishing a procedure for the filing and processing of requests for readmission and the process for the required review of all expelled pupils for readmission. Upon completion of the readmission process, Charter School’s governing board shall readmit the pupil, unless Charter School’s governing board makes a finding that the pupil has not met the conditions of the rehabilitation plan or continues to pose a danger to campus safety. A description of the procedure shall be made available to the pupil and the pupil’s parent or guardian at the time the expulsion order is entered and the decision of the governing board, including any related findings, must be provided to the pupil and the pupil’s parent/guardian within a reasonable time.

REINSTATEMENT

Charter School’s governing board shall adopt rules establishing a procedure for processing reinstatements, including the review of documents regarding the rehabilitation plan. Charter School is responsible for reinstating the student upon the conclusion of the expulsion period in a timely manner.

GUN-FREE SCHOOLS ACT

OVERVIEW

We believe that students learn best in an environment where there are clear expectations about behavioral and community norms that allow them to feel safe, cared for, and respected. In order to maintain a positive learning community and embrace CWC Hollywood’s mission of developing good global citizens, CWC Hollywood maintains and continually refines a comprehensive set of student discipline policies to promote positive behavior support and restorative practices while also addressing actions by students that would violate Education Code Section 48900. CWC Hollywood follows the procedures as outlined herein rather than using the procedures in Education Code 48900, et seq., except where specifically indicated in this section. These policies meet the intent and purpose of the Education Code and provide ample due process and clarity of procedure. Parents, teachers, and students all are encouraged to offer input on the Charter School’s disciplinary policies and implementation to ensure that all stakeholders are valued and respected. These policies are periodically reviewed and modified as necessary to comply with applicable law.

Each enrolled family receives a copy of the CWC Hollywood Family Handbook at the beginning of each school year, which is consistent with provisions in this petition and applicable law. Each family is required to acknowledge in writing that they have reviewed the policies in the Handbook.

No student shall be involuntarily removed by the Charter School for any reason unless the parent or guardian of the student has been provided written notice of intent to remove the student no less than five (5) schooldays before the effective date of the action. The written notice shall be in the native language of the student or the student’s parent or guardian or, if the student is a foster child or youth or a homeless child or youth, the student’s educational rights holder, and shall inform him or her of the basis for which the pupil is being involuntarily removed and his or her right to request a hearing to challenge the involuntary removal. If a parent, guardian, or educational rights holder requests a hearing, the Charter School shall utilize the same hearing procedures specified below for expulsions, before the effective date of the action to involuntarily remove the student. If the student’s parent, guardian, or educational rights holder requests a hearing, the student shall remain enrolled and shall not be removed until the Charter School issues a final decision. As used herein, “involuntarily removed” includes disenrolled, dismissed, transferred, or terminated, but does not include removals for misconduct which may be grounds for suspension or expulsion as enumerated below.

SCHOOL CLIMATE AND SCHOOL DISCIPLINE SYSTEM

CWC Hollywood implements a school climate and discipline plan consistent with the District’s School Discipline Policy and School Climate Bill of Rights Board of Education Resolution. This section describes how this plan is implemented.

CWC Hollywood’s ultimate priority is to maintain the safety of all members of our community, both emotionally and physically. This applies when inside classrooms, around our buildings, outside on the play yard or at any Charter School function. All members of the community play a role in implementing this plan. For example, teachers take a proactive approach: teaching conflict resolution skills, setting clear expectations, reinforcing positive behavior and redirecting misbehavior. In response to any sort of misbehavior that infringes on the safety of our community, we aim to have a discipline system that is focused on being rehabilitative rather than solely punitive.

SOCIAL EMOTIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND STUDENT DISCIPLINE OVERVIEW

CWC Hollywood is committed to the building of a safe and nurturing environment for every child through a School-Wide Positive Behavior Intervention and Support (“SWPBIS”) plan. It is the development of this mutually respectful and caring community that we know to be the crucial foundation for developing connected, capable, and courageous people who believe they really count. We do this work not only to cultivate students who can succeed academically, but also to create a new generation of global citizens that have invaluable leadership, problem-solving, and peacemaking skills that are aligned to our Graduate Dispositions.

With our focus on the social emotional aspects of learning, CWC Hollywood encourages students to become aware of their role as essential members of our learning community. As part of this, CWC Hollywood’s approach to social-emotional learning and discipline is the crucial ingredients to the development of our larger positive culture. We proactively build this culture and engage students in this work as a key approach to working on students’ misbehavior, discipline, and consequences.

With workshop-based classrooms and a positive approach to discipline, our goal is to encourage students to take charge of their lives and manage their own learning. As part of this, we expect that all students will behave in a respectful way toward their teachers, all adults, their classmates, and the property of others. Additionally, students are treated and spoken to respectfully and with care. With a great focus on community, it is our goal that every student possesses a clear understanding of how their actions affect others. When a child acts in thoughtless or harmful ways, the entire community suffers. While our larger goal is to discourage misbehavior pre-emptively, when misbehavior does occur, we use missteps as opportunities for learning and reflection. Our philosophy towards social-emotional education and discipline focuses on responses to misbehavior that are educational and logical while always maintaining the emotional and physical safety for our whole community. CWC Hollywood utilizes tools and curricula to support social emotional development, such as mindfulness, Cool Tools, restorative justice, Responsive Classroom, Positive Discipline, MindUp, and Connected and Respected, among other programs/models/frameworks/curricula.

Because of the above beliefs and philosophies, explicit time within CWC Hollywood’s weekly schedule is devoted to cultivating our school-wide social emotional development skills and positive culture by teaching a curriculum that develops these skills and qualities of character within our students. Students are explicitly taught conflict resolution skills/strategies and anti-bullying tools. Time is devoted to social emotional development for each student. Through a mixture of scaffolded activities, role-playing, direct instruction, and other authentic experiences, students are given the opportunity to use and practice conflict resolution skills and strategies as they build community in their classroom and in the school. School and classroom practices like Morning Meetings and grade level meetings all are important elements to the building of our positive culture at CWC Hollywood.

Students are encouraged to request assistance in resolving conflicts when needed. All CWC Hollywood staff receives professional development related to conflict resolution, social emotional development, community building, and classroom management. Additionally, through Back to School Night and other parent meetings, all families have the opportunity to learn and develop skills related to conflict resolution. Just as we will ask students to deal with conflict in respectful ways, we ask the same of all CWC Hollywood staff and our community members as well.

TIERED BEHAVIOR INTERVENTION

CWC Hollywood’s ultimate priority is to maintain the safety of all members of our community, both emotionally and physically. When appropriate, CWC Hollywood attempts to provide learning opportunities for misbehavior rather than immediately suspending or expelling a student. If a student violates Charter School policies enumerated in the charter or Family Handbook that are not specified as grounds for mandatory suspension or expulsion, consistent with this petition and applicable law, and the student is not a threat to the safety of him/herself or others, CWC Hollywood first employs a tiered and positive approach to intervention.

At a universal and preventative level (Tier 1), all staff and students build and maintain relationships through community building and curriculum circles, social-emotional learning, affective statements, and positive communication. All of this occurs inside classrooms, around our school building, outside on the play yard or at any school event. As stated above, at a Tier 1 level, teachers take a proactive approach: teaching conflict resolution skills, setting clear expectations, reinforcing positive behavior and redirecting misbehavior. In response to any sort of misbehavior that infringes on the safety of our community, we aim to have a discipline system that is focused on being rehabilitative rather than solely punitive.

As first-line approaches to misbehavior, all CWC Hollywood staff employs natural and logical consequences. Natural consequences are the automatic and “natural” results of an action while logical consequences are actions that can be engineered by teachers/staff and parents. They are logically connected to an initial action or misbehavior. In essence, they should make sense based on the misbehavior (i.e., “if you break it, you fix it”). They should not be too strong or too weak and should be enforceable with consistent follow-through from those who originally determined the consequence. When a student misbehaves or makes an unsafe choice, we determine which consequence or action is appropriate. As part of that, maintaining all students' dignity rather than shaming or blaming them is central to CWC Hollywood’s approach to discipline.

At a level of targeted intervention (Tier 2), when harm or significant challenges occur, restorative practices and positive behavior supports may include:

- Positive behavior support plan with tiered interventions that occur during the school day
- Positive reinforcement
- Goal oriented behavior action plans and charts
- Working with a peer buddy to establish supportive partnerships
- Intensive role play with instruction embedded
- Time in a buddy classroom
- Development of a community repair plan (student redirected to accomplish a service project or goal at school that betters the community)
- Engaging in the Student Success Team process
- In-class quiet reflection and re-focusing opportunities

If necessary, CWC Hollywood’s progressive discipline plan moves to implement the following responses to more serious Tier 2 and Tier 3 student behavior in lieu of student suspension:

- Warning
- Loss of privileges (such as limited choice during preferred activities)
- Notices to parents by phone/letter
- Referral to the Principal
- Request for parent conference
- SST Process

For the most severe harms (Tier 3), typically after a student has been removed from class for a brief cool-down period (e.g., out of classroom, supervised by a staff member) and/or a suspension (in-school or out-of-school), the highest level of support may include a re-entry circle or restorative community conference and on-going behavior supports to re-integrate the student into the school community.

If the above interventions are not appropriate given the nature of the offense or are unsuccessful, CWC Hollywood considers:

- Suspension
- Expulsion
The Principal bears primary responsibility for overseeing all student discipline. Staff is trained on a regular basis on these interventions and next steps, and how to effectively manage them within each classroom. Training occurs over the year, as well as during Summer Institute, and is offered by teacher leaders, administrators and outside agencies. Please see element 1 for additional details on professional development structures. Training includes workshops on Responsive Classroom techniques, collaborative sessions that develop student culture, and targeted professional development. The Principal also bears responsibility to monitor CWC Hollywood’s student behavior data with support from the CWC LA Regional Support Office. Behavioral data is shared with stakeholders and the CWC LA Board through the LCAP planning process, and helps inform professional development priorities for teachers. Data meetings take place with teachers and other members of the school leadership team, and may look at data such as suspensions (including in-school suspensions), expulsions, referrals, teacher observation and other factors. To the degree feasible, data is broken out by subgroup.

Given how critical we believe school-wide positive discipline and behavior intervention to be, CWC Hollywood engages in rigorous and ongoing training of all staff in this area, including both instructional and operations team members as well. This ongoing PD integrates resources such as:

- Responsive Classroom
- Restorative Justice
- Positive Discipline
- Mindfulness in the classroom

IN-SCHOOL SUSPENSION

CWC Hollywood offers in-school suspension as a means of reducing time missed from learning for behavioral issues. The same procedures for out-of-school suspension (written notice, parent conference, days of suspension, suspension appeals) and the same grounds/offenses for out-of-school suspension, which are described in this charter, apply to in-school suspension. In-school suspension may be offered for the first time a student is recommended for suspension or if the severity of the violation merits removal from the classroom but is not serious enough to require removal from the school. In-school suspension is not available for hate violence, harassment, and terrorist threat incidents. At CWC Hollywood, in-school suspension is supervised by an aide or a credentialed teacher in an environment where the student can be monitored throughout the day (e.g., the office). This supervisor is responsible for gathering assignments from the student’s teachers of record and providing a small group environment with close supervision and assistance in completing the work. To the extent that some work cannot be duplicated in the smaller environment, students are given an alternative assignment. If a student with an IEP participates in the in-school suspension program, CWC Hollywood provides any required special education instruction or related services. The maximum number of days for in-school suspensions for all students, including students with disabilities, does not exceed two (2) days per incident and five (5) days in one academic year.

GROUNDS FOR SUSPENSION AND EXPULSION

DISCIPLINARY JURISDICTION

A student may be suspended or expelled for prohibited misconduct if the act is related to Charter School activity or Charter School attendance occurring at any time including but not limited to: 1) while on Charter School grounds; 2) while going to or coming from Charter School;
3) during the lunch period, whether on or off the Charter School; or 4) during, going to, or coming from a Charter School-sponsored activity.

MANDATORY EXPULSION/SUSPENSION OFFENSES

It is a federal mandate that a school expel, for a period of not less than one year (except on a case-by-case basis), any student who is determined to have brought a firearm to school.

DISCRETIONARY EXPULSION/SUSPENSION OFFENSES

In addition to the foregoing mandatory suspension/expulsion infractions, the Principal or designee (e.g., the Assistant Principal) may immediately suspend and recommend for expulsion a student at CWC Hollywood upon a determination that the student has committed one of the acts listed below:

- Unlawfully offering, arranging, or negotiating to sell any controlled substance as defined in Health and Safety Code Sections 11053-11058, any alcoholic beverage, or any other intoxicant of any kind, and then selling, delivering or otherwise furnishing to any person a liquid substance or material and representing same as a controlled substance, alcoholic beverage or intoxicant

- Possessing or using tobacco or products containing tobacco or nicotine products, including but not limited to cigars, cigarettes, miniature cigars, clove cigarettes, smokeless tobacco, snuff, chew packets, and betel. This section does not prohibit a pupil from using his/her own lawfully prescribed products
- Harassing, threatening, or intimidating a student who is a complaining witness or witness in a school disciplinary proceeding for the purpose of preventing that student from being a witness and/or retaliating against that student for being a witness
- Possessing an imitation firearm, i.e., a replica of a firearm that is so substantially similar in physical properties to an existing firearm as to lead a responsible person to conclude that the replica is a firearm

- Knowingly receiving stolen Charter School property or private property
- Engaging in, or attempting to engage in, hazing. For the purposes of this subdivision, “hazing” means a method of initiation or pre-initiation into a pupil organization or body, whether or not the organization or body is officially recognized by an educational institution, which is likely to cause serious bodily injury or personal degradation or disgrace resulting in physical or mental harm to a former, current, or prospective pupil. For purposes of this section, “hazing” does not include athletic events or Charter School-sanctioned events
- Aiding or abetting the infliction or attempted infliction of physical injury to another person
- Committing sexual harassment, as defined in Education Code Section 212.5. For the purposes of this section, the conduct described in Section 212.5 must be considered by a reasonable person of the same gender as the victim to be sufficiently severe or pervasive to have a negative impact upon the individual’s academic performance or to create an intimidating, hostile, or offensive educational environment. This section shall apply to pupils in any of grades 4 to 5, inclusive
- Intentionally harassing, threatening, or intimidating a student or group of students to the extent of having the actual and reasonably expected effect of materially disrupting class work, creating substantial disorder and invading student rights by creating an intimidating or hostile educational environment. This section shall apply to pupils in any of grades 4 to 5, inclusive
- Making terrorist threats against Charter School officials and/or Charter School property. For purposes of this section, “terrorist threat” shall include any statement, whether written or oral, by a person who willfully threatens to commit a crime which will result in death, great bodily injury to another person, or property damage in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000), with the specific intent that the statement is to be taken as a threat, even if there is no intent of actually carrying it out, which, on its face and under the circumstances in which it is made, is so unequivocal, unconditional, immediate, and specific as to convey to the person threatened, a gravity of purpose and an immediate prospect of execution of the threat, and thereby causes that person reasonably to be in sustained fear for his or her own safety or for his or her immediate family’s safety, or for the protection of Charter School property, or the personal property of the person threatened or his or her immediate family
- Possessing, selling, or otherwise furnishing any knife or other dangerous object

RULES AND PROCEDURES

The Principal or administrative designee (e.g., Assistant Principal) shall have the authority to suspend a student, according to the following procedures:

- CONFERENCE: Suspension shall be preceded by a conference by the Principal or administrative designee (e.g., Assistant Principal) with the student and, if necessary, the teacher, counselor, supervisor or Charter School employee who witnessed the behavior(s) leading to suspension. The conference may be omitted if the Principal or administrative designee determines that an emergency situation exists. An “emergency situation” involves a clear and present danger to the lives, safety or health of students or Charter School personnel. If a student is suspended without this conference, both the parent/guardian and student shall be notified of the student’s right to return to school for the purpose of a conference. In such cases, the conference shall be held within two (2) days, unless the pupil is physically unable to attend for any reason including, but not limited to, incarceration or hospitalization. At the conference the pupil shall be informed of the reason for the disciplinary action and the evidence against him or her and shall be given the opportunity to present his or her version and evidence in his or her defense, in accordance with Education Code Section 47605(b)(5)(J)(i). The process for investigating incidents and collecting evidence shall be thorough and fair. No penalties may be imposed on a pupil for failure of the pupil’s parent or guardian to attend a conference with Charter School officials. Reinstatement of the suspended pupil shall not be contingent upon attendance by the pupil’s parent or guardian at the conference.

- NOTICE TO PARENTS/GUARDIANS: At the time of the suspension, a Charter School employee (Principal, Assistant Principal, teacher or operations staff member) shall make a reasonable effort to contact the parent/guardian by telephone or in person. Whenever a student is suspended, the parent/guardian shall be notified in writing in the native language of the student or the student’s parent or guardian, as needed, of the suspension within 48 hours. This notice shall state the specific offense(s) committed by the student. In addition, the notice will also state the date and time when the student may return to Charter School. If Charter School officials wish to ask the parent/guardian to confer regarding matters pertinent to the suspension, the notice may request the parent/guardian to respond to such request without delay. No penalties may be imposed on a pupil for failure of the pupil’s parent or guardian to respond to such requests.

MAXIMUM DAYS

The length of suspension for all students may not exceed a period of five (5) consecutive days per suspension unless extended pending an expulsion hearing. Prior to extending a suspension, the Principal or administrative designee shall schedule a second conference with parents/guardians to determine if either of the following is true: 1) the pupil’s presence will be disruptive to the education process; or 2) the pupil poses a threat or danger to others. Upon either determination during the conference with parents/guardians, the pupil’s suspension will be extended pending the results of an expulsion hearing. Suspensions extended pending the results of an expulsion hearing that must comply with Education Code Section 47605(b)(5)(J)(ii) are further discussed below under the headings “Suspension Pending Expulsion” and “Expulsion Procedures.”
The maximum number of days a student may be suspended each year is twenty (20), unless the suspension is extended pending expulsion in which case the maximum number of days is cited below. Charter School shall follow all laws governing discipline for special education students, and such suspensions will not exceed 10 days in a school year.

ACCESS TO EDUCATION

The Principal or administrative designee makes arrangements with parents/guardians to provide the student with classroom material and current assignments to be completed at home during the length of the suspension. For students who are suspended pending expulsion, independent study (where students receive coursework from their teachers) will be offered to provide an educational program to the student during this time to ensure the student has classroom work and regular contact with a certificated teacher. For students who do not voluntarily agree to this option, the Charter School will provide the student with classroom material and current assignments to be completed at home during the length of the suspension.

IN-SCHOOL AND OUT-OF-SCHOOL SUSPENSION APPEALS

If a parent or guardian disagrees with a suspension, he/she must file a written objection to the Principal within five (5) school days, explaining the reason for the disagreement. The Executive Director or administrative designee (e.g., another CWC administrator not involved in the suspension) will meet with the parent/guardian within five (5) school days of receipt of the written objection. Considering the information provided by the parent/guardian and any other relevant information, the Executive Director has authority to determine whether to:

a. Uphold the suspension in all respects.

b. Modify the suspension imposed (e.g., reduce suspension duration, if possible).

c. Overturn the suspension and expunge the suspension from the student’s records.

The Executive Director or administrative designee’s decision shall be final. If no changes are made, the parent/guardian’s written objection will be placed in the student’s file along with the notice of suspension.

SUSPENSION PENDING EXPULSION

Upon a recommendation of expulsion by the Principal or designee, the pupil and the pupil’s guardian or representative will be invited to a conference to determine if the suspension for the pupil should be extended pending an expulsion hearing. This determination will be made by the Principal or designee based on whether:

1. The pupil’s presence will be disruptive to the education process; or

2. The pupil poses a threat or danger to others.

Upon either determination, the pupil’s suspension will be extended by a maximum of 30 school days, pending the results of an expulsion hearing, unless a longer time period is required due to a parent’s (or the family’s legal representation) request for a continuance of the expulsion hearing.

For students who are suspended pending expulsion, independent study will be offered to provide an educational program to the student during this time to ensure the student has classroom work and regular contact with a certificated teacher. For students who do not voluntarily agree to this option, the Charter School will provide the student with classroom material and current assignments to be completed at home during the length of the suspension.

EXPULSION PROCEDURES

RULES AND PROCEDURES

As set forth above, students must be recommended for expulsion for all mandatory expulsion/suspension offenses. For discretionary expulsion/suspension offenses, it will be within the Principal or designee’s discretion to recommend expulsion. The Principal or administrative designee (i.e., Assistant Principal) may make a recommendation for expulsion when: 1) other means of correction are not feasible or have not been effective in the past; and/or 2) the student’s presence will cause a continuing danger to the safety of the student or others.

A student recommended for expulsion will be entitled to a hearing adjudicated by a neutral officer to determine whether the student should be expelled. The student will be suspended during the expulsion process. The hearing shall be held in a timely manner, not to exceed thirty (30) school days after the date the Principal or designee recommended expulsion because a violation of one of the acts listed under “Grounds for Suspension and Expulsion” has occurred. The Principal or administrative designee will make a recommendation for expulsion within 5 school days of the incident. The hearing shall be held in closed session unless the parent/guardian makes a written request for a public hearing in open session three (3) days prior to the date of the scheduled hearing. Reasonable accommodations and language support will be available as required by law.

A student may be expelled by the neutral and impartial Administrative Panel following a hearing before it, and preceded by recommendation from the Principal or designee. The Administrative Panel shall consist of at least three (3) members (and not an even number of members) who are certificated employees and neither a teacher of the pupil nor a Board member of the Charter School’s governing board. The Charter School’s Board will appoint an impartial Administrative Panel, which shall be presided over by a designated neutral hearing chairperson. The Administrative Panel may expel any student found to have committed a mandatory expellable offense. For discretionary expellable offenses, the Administrative Panel must also find 1) other means of correction are not feasible or have not been effective in the past; and/or 2) the student’s presence causes a continuing danger to the safety of the student or others.

A student and his or her parents may appeal an expulsion decision by the Administrative Panel to the Charter School’s neutral and impartial Board, which will make the final determination on appeal, as described below.

Written notice of the hearing shall be forwarded to the student and the student’s parent/guardian at least ten (10) days before the date of the hearing. The notice shall include:

- The date, time, and place of the hearing
- A statement of the specific facts, charges and offenses upon which the proposed expulsion is based
- A copy of CWC Hollywood’s discipline guidelines and/or grounds for suspension and expulsion, which relate to the alleged violation
- The right to request at least one postponement of the expulsion hearing for a period of not more than 30 calendar days. Any additional postponement may be granted at the discretion of the Principal or designee
• The opportunity for the student and/or the student’s parent/guardian to appear in person or to employ and be represented by counsel or an advocate
• The right to inspect and obtain copies of all documents to be used at the hearing
• The opportunity to confront and question all witnesses who testify at the hearing
• The opportunity to question all evidence presented and to present oral and documentary evidence on the student’s behalf including witnesses
• Notification of the student’s or parent/guardian obligation to provide information about the student’s status at the Charter School to any other school District or school to which the student seeks enrollment
• Notification of reasonable accommodations or language support, as needed

RECORD OF HEARING

A record of the hearing shall be made and may be maintained by any means, including (if possible) an electronic recording, as long as a reasonably accurate and complete written transcription of the proceedings can be made.

PRESENTATION OF EVIDENCE

While technical rules of evidence do not apply to expulsion hearings, evidence may be admitted and used as proof only if it is the kind of evidence on which reasonable persons can rely on as connected to the matters being discussed. The decision to expel must be supported by substantial evidence that the student committed any of the acts that warrant expulsion. Findings of fact shall be based solely on the evidence at the hearing. While no evidence shall be based solely on hearsay, sworn declarations may be admitted as testimony from witnesses whose disclosure of their identity or testimony at the hearing may subject them to unreasonable risk of physical or psychological harm.

If, due to a written request by the accused pupil, the hearing is held at as a public hearing, and the charge is committing or attempting to commit a sexual assault or committing a sexual battery as defined in Education Code Section 48900, a complaining witness shall have the right to have his or her testimony heard in a session closed to the public.

WRITTEN NOTICE TO EXPEL

The final decision by the Administrative Panel shall be made within seven (7) calendar days following the conclusion of the hearing. If the Administrative Panel decides not to recommend expulsion, the pupil shall immediately be returned to his/her educational program.

The Principal or designee shall send written notice of the Administrative Panel’s decision to the student and his/her family within seven (7) calendar days following the conclusion of the hearing. This notice shall include the following:
• The specific offense committed by the student that warranted expulsion
• Findings of fact from the expulsion hearing
• The term of the expulsion, including the possible readmission date
• A rehabilitation plan and readmission procedures
• Notice of the student or parent/guardian’s obligation to inform any new District/school in which the student seeks to enroll of the student’s status with CWC Hollywood upon dis-enrolling
• The right to appeal the Administrative Panel’s decision within ten (10) school days of the date on the Written Notice to Expel
APPEAL OF EXPULSION DECISION

Parents/guardians may appeal the expulsion decision of the Administrative Panel by making a written request and submitting it to the Principal within ten (10) school days of the date of the written decision to expel. The student will be considered suspended until a Board meeting is convened within ten (10) school days of receipt of the written appeal. The parent(s)/guardian(s) must attend to present their appeal. Parents/guardians may request one continuance of up to ten (10) school days. Reasonable accommodations will be made, and language support offered, for students and parents/guardians who wish to appeal. Following the appeal hearing, the Board will make a final decision based on the information presented at the appeal hearing by the parent(s)/guardian(s) and information from the original expulsion hearing. The Principal or designee will send written notice to the student or parent/guardian of the Board’s decision within seven (7) calendar days of the appeal hearing. The Charter School Board’s decision to uphold the Administrative Panel’s decision to expel shall be final. If the Board overturns the expulsion, the pupil shall immediately be returned to his/her educational program.

DISCIPLINARY RECORDS

CWC Hollywood shall maintain records of all student notices of suspension(s) and decisions regarding expulsion(s). Such records shall be made available to the District upon request.

ASSURANCES REGARDING LIST OF OFFENSES

In preparing the list of mandatory and discretionary expulsion and suspension offenses, CWC Hollywood has consulted a variety of sources in addition to applicable laws to ensure that our policies comply with “best practices” at similar schools, including non-charter schools within LAUSD. Our primary purpose is to ensure the health and safety of our students, staff and community. Beyond that however, we also aim to ensure that students understand clear standards for conduct and are treated at all times in a respectful manner by their peers, teachers, administrators and other members of our community.

SPECIAL PROCEDURES FOR EXPULSION HEARINGS INVOLVING SEXUAL ASSAULT OR BATTERY OFFENSES

CWC Hollywood may, upon a finding of good cause, determine that the disclosure of either the identity of the witness or the testimony of that witness at the hearing, or both, would subject the witness to an unreasonable risk of psychological or physical harm. Upon this determination, the testimony of the witness may be presented at the hearing in the form of sworn declarations that shall be examined only by CWC Hollywood or the hearing officer (who is selected among the Administrative Panel members). Copies of these sworn declarations, edited to delete the name and identity of the witness, shall be made available to the pupil. In addition:

- The complaining witness in any sexual assault or battery case must be provided with a copy of the applicable disciplinary rules and advised of his/her right to (a) receive five (5) days’ notice of his/her scheduled testimony, (b) have up to two (2) adult support persons of his/her choosing present in the hearing at the time he/she testifies, which may include a parent, guardian, or legal counsel, and (c) elect to have the hearing closed while testifying.
- CWC Hollywood must also provide the victim a room separate from the hearing room for the complaining witness’s use prior to and during breaks in testimony.
At the discretion of the Administrative Panel, the complaining witness shall be allowed periods of relief from examination and cross-examination during which he or she may leave the hearing room.

The Administrative Panel may also arrange the seating within the hearing room to facilitate a less intimidating environment for the complaining witness.

The Administrative Panel may also limit time for taking the testimony of the complaining witness to the hours he/she is normally in school, if there is no good cause to take the testimony during other hours.

Prior to a complaining witness testifying, the support persons must be admonished that the hearing is confidential. Nothing in the law precludes the person presiding over the hearing from removing a support person whom the presiding person finds is disrupting the hearing. The Administrative Panel may permit any one of the support persons for the complaining witness to accompany him or her to the witness stand.

If one or both of the support persons is also a witness, CWC Hollywood must present evidence that the witness’s presence is both desired by the witness and will be helpful to CWC Hollywood. The administrative panel member presiding over the hearing shall permit the witness to stay unless it is established that there is a substantial risk that the testimony of the complaining witness would be influenced by the support person, in which case the presiding officer shall admonish the support person or persons not to prompt, sway, or influence the witness in any way. Nothing shall preclude the presiding officer from exercising his or her discretion to remove a person from the hearing whom he or she believes is prompting, swaying, or influencing the witness.

The testimony of the support person shall be presented before the testimony of the complaining witness and the complaining witness shall be excluded from the hearing during that testimony.

Especially for charges involving sexual assault or battery, if the hearing is to be conducted in public at the request of the pupil being expelled, the complaining witness shall have the right to have his/her testimony heard in a closed session when testifying at a public meeting would threaten serious psychological harm to the complaining witness and there are no alternative procedures to avoid the threatened harm. The alternative procedures may include videotaped depositions or contemporaneous examination in another place communicated to the hearing room by means of closed-circuit television.

Evidence of specific instances of a complaining witness’ prior sexual conduct is presumed inadmissible and shall not be heard absent a determination by the person conducting the hearing that extraordinary circumstances exist requiring the evidence be heard. Before such a determination regarding extraordinary circumstance can be made, the witness shall be provided notice and an opportunity to present opposition to the introduction of the evidence. In the hearing on the admissibility of the evidence, the complaining witness shall be entitled to be represented by a parent, legal counsel, or other support person. Reputation or opinion evidence regarding the sexual behavior of the complaining witness is not admissible for any purpose.

REHABILITATION, REINSTATEMENT AND READMISSION

Pupils who are expelled from CWC Hollywood shall be given a rehabilitation plan upon expulsion as developed by the Administrative Panel at the time of the expulsion order, which may include, but is not limited to, periodic review, to ensure the student is complying with the rehabilitation plan as well as assessment at the time of review for readmission. The rehabilitation plan will include improved behavior, attendance, academic performance and benchmarks for return and shall include a date not later than one (1) year from the date of expulsion when the pupil may reapply to CWC Hollywood for readmission.
Parents/guardians of pupils who are expelled shall be responsible for seeking alternative education programs including, but not limited to, programs within the County or their school district of residence. The Charter School shall work cooperatively with parents/guardians as requested, and in the manner requested, by parents/guardians or by the school district of residence to assist with locating alternative placements during expulsion, as supported and monitored by the Principal. Within five (5) school days of the expulsion, the Charter School shall have a voluntary post-expulsion meeting with parents/guardians in the manner requested to assist with locating alternative placements during expulsion, including in the County or school district of residence.

The readmission process will include a meeting with the Principal or designee, to determine whether the pupil has met the conditions of the rehabilitation plan and/or whether the pupil continues to pose a danger to Charter School safety. The Principal or designee shall make a recommendation to the Governing Board for readmission if the pupil has met the conditions of the rehabilitation plan and does not pose a danger to Charter School safety. If the Principal determines the pupil has not met the conditions of the rehabilitation plan and/or continues to pose a danger to Charter School safety, the Principal will make a recommendation against readmission. The Governing Board will make the final determination. These procedures shall be made available to the pupil and the pupil’s parent or guardian at the time the expulsion order is issued. CWC Hollywood is responsible for reinstating the student upon the conclusion of the expulsion period.
ELEMENT 11 – EMPLOYEE RETIREMENT SYSTEMS

“The manner by which staff members of the charter schools will be covered by the State Teachers’ Retirement System, the Public Employees’ Retirement System, or federal social security.” (Ed. Code § 47605(b)(5)(K).)

Charter School shall comply in a timely manner with all applicable federal and state laws and regulations, as they may change from time to time, including but not limited to Internal Revenue Code section 414(d) and related regulations, governing Charter School’s participation in, and/or coverage of its staff members by, the State Teachers’ Retirement System (CalSTRS), the Public Employees’ Retirement System (CalPERS), and/or federal social security.

If Charter School participates in, or otherwise covers its staff members by enrolling or continuing their enrollment in, a “government plan” governed by section 414(d) (e.g., CalPERS), upon dissolution or final liquidation of Charter School, and/or its nonprofit public benefit corporation, notwithstanding any provision in Element 15 to the contrary, Charter School shall distribute its net assets in accordance with section 414(d), related regulations, and the government plan’s requirements.

If Charter School participates in CalSTRS and/or CalPERS, Charter School shall continue such participation for the duration of Charter School’s existence under the same County-District-School (“CDS”) code.

CERTIFICATED STAFF MEMBERS

CWC Hollywood participates in the CalSTRS program. Certificated staff members who are eligible for CalSTRS benefits, based on the state’s definition, are covered. CWC Hollywood works directly with the Los Angeles County Office of Education to forward in a timely fashion any required payroll deductions and related data. All withholdings from employees and CWC Hollywood are forwarded to the appropriate agency as required.

The CWC LA Regional Support Office (and any back-office service provider that is hired by the CWC LA region) is responsible for enrolling all eligible employees. The Executive Director or designee is responsible for ensuring appropriate arrangements for coverage are made and sustained. CWC Hollywood acknowledges that the Charter School must continue such participation for the duration of the Charter School’s existence under the same CDS code.

OTHER RETIREMENT BENEFITS

Non-certificated employees participate in the federal Social Security system in accordance with applicable law. In addition, CWC LA may offer a §403(b) Tax Sheltered Retirement Account Plan to employees. Regular (non-temporary/substitute) employees who qualify may also receive a capped matching contribution. The CWC LA Board of Directors has the authority to approve matching rates on a case-by-case basis.

The CWC LA Regional Support Office (and any back-office service provider that is hired by the CWC LA region) is responsible for enrolling all eligible employees. The Executive Director or designee is responsible for ensuring appropriate arrangements for coverage have been made and sustained.
ELEMENT 12 – PUBLIC SCHOOL ATTENDANCE ALTERNATIVES

“The public school attendance alternatives for pupils residing within the school district who choose not to attend charter schools.” (Ed. Code § 47605(b)(5)(L).)

Pupils of Charter School do not have or gain any right to admission in a particular school of any school district, or program of any school district, as a consequence of applying to or enrolling in Charter School, except to the extent that such a right is extended by the school district.

A pupil who chooses not to attend Charter School may attend a public school within the pupil’s school district of residence in accordance with applicable law and that school district’s policies and procedures. The pupil alternatively may seek to enroll in another charter school in accordance with applicable law and the terms of the school's charter. If LAUSD is the pupil’s school district of residence, an eligible pupil may pursue an inter-district transfer, if available, in accordance with the admission, enrollment, and transfer policies and procedures of the District, as they may change from time to time.

SCHOOL CHOICE

No student will be required to attend CWC Hollywood. The Charter School will inform students and parents of public school attendance alternatives in enrollment forms.
ELEMENT 13 – RIGHTS OF DISTRICT EMPLOYEES

“The rights of an employee of the school district upon leaving the employment of the school district to work in a charter school, and of any rights of return to the school district after employment at a charter school.” (Ed. Code § 47605(b)(5)(M).)

Employees of the District who choose to leave the employment of the District to work at Charter School shall have no automatic rights of return to the District after employment at Charter School unless specifically granted by the District through a leave of absence or other agreement or policy of the District as aligned with the collective bargaining agreements of the District. Leave and return rights for District union-represented employees and former employees who accept employment with Charter School will be administered in accordance with applicable collective bargaining agreements and any applicable judicial rulings.
ELEMENT 14 – MANDATORY DISPUTE RESOLUTION

“The procedures to be followed by the charter school and the entity granting the charter to resolve disputes relating to provisions of the charter.” (Ed. Code § 47605(b)(5)(N).)

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Any claim, controversy or dispute between the District and Charter School arising out of or relating to this Charter, except for any claim, controversy or dispute related to the authorization (non-renewal, revision and/or revocation) of this Charter, (“Dispute”) shall be resolved pursuant to the terms of this Element 14.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, each party shall bear and be solely responsible for all of its own attorneys’ fees, costs and expenses associated with any Dispute, including, but not limited to, any written/oral communication, meeting, Issues Conference, mediation, arbitration, administrative and/or civil action (including all levels of appeal), and no party shall be ordered to pay, or be awarded, any other party’s attorneys’ fees, costs or expenses in connection therewith, regardless of who may be deemed the prevailing party. Any fees, costs and expenses charged by a mediator or arbitrator (including all associated administration fees, costs and expenses) shall be shared equally by the parties regardless of the outcome or award. To that effect, any order or award of attorneys’ fees, costs and/or expenses, or mediator’s or arbitrator’s fees, costs or expenses (including any associated administration fees, costs and expenses), issued by a mediator, arbitrator, judicial officer (including all levels of appeal) or jury in any Dispute shall be deemed invalid as a matter of law and unenforceable by one party against the other party.

ELEMENT 15 – CHARTER SCHOOL CLOSURE PROCEDURES

“The procedures to be used if the charter school closes. The procedures shall ensure a final audit of the charter school to determine the disposition of all assets and liabilities of the charter school, including plans for disposing of any net assets and for the maintenance and transfer of pupil records.” (Ed. Code § 47605(b)(5)(O).)

REVOCATION OF THE CHARTER

The CDE may ask the county office of education to conduct an audit of the charter school if it has reason to believe that the school received state funding for which it was not eligible.

Charter School shall ensure completion of an independent final audit within six months after the closure of Charter School that includes:

1. An accounting of all financial assets. These may include cash and accounts receivable and an inventory of property, equipment, and other items of material value.

2. An accounting of all liabilities. These may include accounts payable or reduction in apportionments due to loans, unpaid staff compensation, audit findings, or other investigations.

3. An assessment of the disposition of any restricted funds received by or due to Charter School.

This audit may serve as Charter School’s annual audit if it meets all of the requirements of the annual audit.

Any liability or debt incurred by Charter School will be the responsibility of Charter School and not LAUSD. Charter School understands and acknowledges that Charter School will cover the outstanding debts or liabilities of Charter School. Any unused monies at the time of the audit will be returned to the appropriate funding source. Charter School understands and acknowledges that only unrestricted funds will be used to pay creditors. Any unused AB 602 funds will be returned to the District SELPA or the SELPA in which Charter School participates, and other categorical funds will be returned to the source of funds.

Charter School shall ensure the completion and filing of any annual reports required. These reports include but are not necessarily limited to:

These reports must be submitted to the CDE and the authorizing entity in the form required. These reports should be submitted as soon as possible after the Closure Action, but no later than the required deadline for reporting for the fiscal year.

For apportionment of categorical programs, the CDE will count the prior year average daily attendance (ADA) or enrollment data of the closed Charter School with the data of the authorizing entity. This practice will occur in the first year after the closure and will continue until CDE data collection processes reflect ADA or enrollment adjustments for all affected LEAs due to the charter closure.

DISPOSITION OF LIABILITIES AND ASSETS

The closeout audit must identify the disposition of all liabilities of Charter School. Charter School closure procedures must also ensure appropriate disposal, in accordance with the District Required Language provisions in Element 11 of this Charter, Charter School’s governing board bylaws, fiscal procedures, and any other applicable laws and regulations, of any net assets remaining after all liabilities of Charter School have been paid or otherwise addressed. Such disposal includes, but is not limited to:

1. Charter School, at its cost and expense, shall return to the District any and all property, furniture, equipment, supplies, and other assets provided to Charter School by or on behalf of the District. The District discloses that the California Education Code sets forth the requirements for the disposition of the District’s personal property and Charter School shall bear responsibility and liability for any disposition in violation of statutory requirements.

2. The return of any donated materials and property in accordance with any terms and conditions set when the donations were accepted.

3. The return of any grant and restricted categorical funds to their sources according to the terms of the grant or state and federal law.

4. The submission of final expenditure reports for any entitlement grants and the filing of Final Expenditure Reports and Final Performance Reports, as appropriate.

Charter School shall retain sufficient staff, as deemed appropriate by the Charter School governing board to complete all necessary tasks and procedures required to close the school and transfer records in accordance with these closure procedures.

Charter School’s governing board shall adopt a plan for wind-up of Charter School and, if necessary, the corporation, in accordance with the requirements of the Corporations Code.

Charter School shall provide LAUSD within fourteen (14) calendar days of the Closure Action with written notice of any outstanding payments due to staff and the time frame and method by which Charter School will make the payments.

Prior to final close-out, Charter School shall complete all actions required by applicable law, including but not limited to the following:

a. File all final federal, state, and local employer payroll tax returns and issue final W-2s and Form 1099s by the statutory deadlines.

b. Make final federal tax payments (employee taxes, etc.)
c. Complete and submit all required federal and state filings and notices to the State of California, the Internal Revenue Service, and the Department of the Treasury, including but not limited to final tax returns and forms (e.g., Form 990 and related Schedules).

This Element 15 shall survive the revocation, expiration, termination, cancellation of this Charter, or any other act or event that would end Charter School’s authorization to operate as a charter school or cause Charter School to cease operation. Charter School agrees that, due to the nature of the property and activities that are the subject of this Charter, the District and public shall suffer irreparable harm should Charter School breach any obligation under this Element 15. The District therefore reserves the right to seek equitable relief to enforce any right arising under this Element 15 or any provision of this Element 15 or to prevent or cure any breach of any obligation undertaken, without in any way prejudicing any other legal remedy available to the District. Such legal relief shall include, without limitation, the seeking of a temporary or permanent injunction, restraining order, or order for specific performance, and may be sought in any appropriate court.

CLOSURE AGENTS

In the event of Charter School closure, the Executive Director, or other individual selected by the Board, will serve as the closure agent for the Charter School.

Charter School shall comply with all geographic and site limitations and related requirements set forth in Education Code sections 47605.1, 47602(a), and 47605(a).

District-Owned Facilities

If Charter School is using District facilities as of the date of the submission of this charter petition or takes occupancy of District facilities prior to the approval of this charter petition, Charter School shall execute an agreement provided by the District for the use of the District facilities as a condition of the approval of the charter petition. If at any time after the approval of this charter petition Charter School will occupy and use any District facilities, Charter School shall execute an agreement provided by the District for the use of the District facilities prior to occupancy and commencing use. Charter School shall implement and otherwise comply with the terms of any and all applicable facilities use agreements between Charter School and the District.

The circumstances of Charter School’s occupancy of District facilities may change over time such as, but not limited to, enrollment, programs, and the conditions of facilities, and the District has a vested interest in having an agreement that is appropriate for the situation.

For a Sole Occupant Agreement or any other use agreement that is not a Proposition 39 Single Year Co-location Use Agreement or a lease issued through the Notice of Intent and bid process, the term may be co-terminous with the approved Charter, as permitted by law. Charter School and the District shall negotiate any modifications of the agreement with the goal of such amendment or new agreement being considered by the LAUSD Board of Education with the renewal of the charter petition. If Charter School and the District cannot execute an agreement in time for such to be considered by the Board of Education with the renewal of the charter petition, the approval of the renewal of the charter petition shall be conditioned upon Charter School and the District executing an amendment to the existing use agreement or a new agreement no later than May 1st or within nine (9) months of the date of the Board of Education’s approval of the renewal of the charter petition. During such time period Charter School shall be permitted to remain in occupancy of the District facilities under the terms and conditions of the immediately preceding, executed use agreement; provided, that if Charter School and the District cannot agree upon and execute an amendment or new use agreement by said deadline, Charter School shall vacate the District facilities on or before June 30th of said school year.

Charter School acknowledges and agrees that occupancy and use of District facilities shall be in compliance with applicable laws and District policies for the operation and maintenance of District facilities and furnishings and equipment. Charter School shall comply with all District health, safety, and emergency procedures and requirements and shall be subject to inspection by the District’s Facilities Services Division, OEHS, and other District offices in the same manner as other LAUSD campuses. All District facilities (i.e., schools) will remain subject to those laws applicable to public schools.

In the event of an emergency, all District facilities (i.e., schools) are available for use by the American Red Cross and public agencies as emergency locations, which may disrupt or prevent Charter School from conducting its educational programs. If Charter School will share the use of District facilities with other District user groups, Charter School agrees that it will participate in and observe all District safety policies (e.g., emergency chain of information and participation in safety drills).

The use agreements provided by the District for District facilities shall contain terms and conditions addressing issues such as, but not limited to, the following:

- Use: Charter School will be restricted to using the District facilities for the operation of a public school providing educational instruction to public school students consistent with the terms of the Charter and incidental related uses. - Furnishings and Equipment: The District shall retain ownership of any furnishings and equipment, including technology, ("F&E") that it provides to Charter School for use. Charter School, at its sole cost and expense, shall provide maintenance and other services for the good and safe operation of the F&E.

- Leasing; Licensing: Use of the District facilities by any person or entity other than Charter School shall be administered by the District. The parties may agree to an alternative arrangement in the use agreement.

- Programs, Services, and Activities Outside Instructional Program; Third Party Vendors

  (i) Any program, service, or activity provided outside the instructional program shall be subject to the terms and provisions of the use agreement, and, additionally, may require a license, permit, or additional agreement issued by the District. The term “instructional program” is defined, per Education Code section 47612 and 5 CCR section 11960, as those required educational activities that generate funding based on “average daily attendance” and includes those extracurricular programs, services, and/or activities that students are required to participate in and do not require the payment of any consideration or fee.

  (ii) Any program, service, or activity requiring the payment of any consideration or fee or provided by a third party vendor (defined as any person or entity other than Charter School), whether paid or volunteer and regardless of whether such may be within the instructional program, shall be subject to the terms and provisions of the use agreement and such third party vendor shall be required to obtain a license, permit, or additional agreement from the District.

- Minimum Payments or Charges to be Paid to District Arising From the Facilities

  (i) Pro Rata Share: The District shall collect and Charter School shall pay a Pro Rata Share for facilities costs as provided in the Charter Schools Act of 1992 and its regulations. The parties may agree to an alternative arrangement regarding facilities costs in the use agreement; and

  (ii) Taxes; Assessments: Generally, Charter School shall pay any assessment or fee imposed upon or levied on the LAUSD facilities that it is occupying or Charter School’s legal or equitable interest created by the use agreement.

- Maintenance & Operations Services: In the event the District agrees to allow Charter School to perform any of the operation and maintenance services, the District shall have the right to inspect the District facilities, and the costs incurred in such inspection shall be paid by Charter School.
(i) Co-Location: If Charter School is co-locating or sharing the District facilities with another user, the District shall provide the operations and maintenance services for the District facilities and Charter School shall pay the Pro Rata Share. The parties may agree to an alternative arrangement regarding performance of the operations and maintenance services and payment for such in the use agreement.

(ii) Sole Occupant: If Charter School is a sole occupant of District facilities, the District shall allow Charter School, at its sole cost and expense, to provide some operations and maintenance services for the District facilities in accordance with applicable laws and LAUSD’s policies on operations and maintenance services for facilities and F&E. NOTwithstanding the foregoing, the District shall provide all services for regulatory inspections which as the owner of the real property it is required to submit, and deferred maintenance, and Charter School shall pay LAUSD for the cost and expense of providing those services. The parties may agree to an alternative arrangement regarding performance of the operations and maintenance services and payment for such services in the use agreement.

- Real Property Insurance: Prior to occupancy, Charter School shall satisfy requirements to participate in LAUSD’s property insurance or, if Charter School is the sole occupant of LAUSD facilities, obtain and maintain separate property insurance for the LAUSD facilities. Charter School shall not have the option of obtaining and maintaining separate property insurance for the LAUSD facility if Charter School is co-locating or sharing the LAUSD facility with another user.

Non-District-Owned Facilities

Occupancy and Use of the Site: Prior to occupancy or use of any school site or facility, Charter School shall provide the CSD with a current Certificate of Occupancy or equivalent document issued by the applicable permitting agency that allows Charter School to use and occupy the site as a charter school. Charter School shall not exceed the operating capacity of the site and shall operate within any limitations or requirements provided by the Certificate of Occupancy and any applicable permit. Charter School may not open or operate without providing a copy of an appropriate Certificate of Occupancy to the CSD. If Charter School intends to move or expand to another facility during the term of this Charter, Charter School shall adhere to any and all District policies and procedures regarding charter material revision and non-material amendment. Prior to occupancy or use of any such additional or changed school site, Charter School shall provide an appropriate Certificate of Occupancy to the CSD for such facility. Notwithstanding any language to the contrary in this Charter, the interpretation, application, and enforcement of this provision are not subject to the Dispute Resolution Process outlined in Element 14.

Facility Compliance: Prior to occupancy or use of any non-District-owned school site and/or facility, Charter School shall ensure that the site and/or facility complies with all applicable building codes, standards and regulations adopted by the city and/or county agencies responsible for building and safety standards for the city in which Charter School is to be located, federal and state accessibility requirements (including the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Section 504), and all other applicable fire, health, and structural safety and access requirements. This requirement shall also apply to the construction, reconstruction, alteration of or addition to the facility. Charter School shall resolve in a timely manner any and all corrective actions, orders to comply, and notices issued by any authorized building and safety agency. Charter School cannot exempt itself from applicable building and zoning codes, ordinances, and ADA/Section 504 requirements. Charter School shall maintain on file readily accessible records that document facilities compliance and shall promptly provide such documentation to the CSD upon request.

SELPA Reorganization
The Los Angeles Unified School District is approved to operate as a single-District SELPA under the provisions of Education Code section 56195.1(a). As a single-District SELPA, the District has created two charter school sections (District-operated Programs and Charter-operated Programs) under the administration of one single Administrative Unit pursuant to a reorganization plan approved by the Board of Education on January 4, 2011 (149/10-11). Full implementation of the reorganized LAUSD SELPA commenced in the 2013-2014 school year requiring all District-authorized charter schools to elect one of the three options available under the LAUSD SELPA. Prior to an option election, all District-authorized charter schools were required to participate as a school of the District under the District-Operated Programs Unit. Prior to the beginning of the 2013-2014 school year, all District-authorized charter schools, other than those that had previously executed an Option 3 Memorandum of Understanding (“MOU”), were required to execute a new MOU setting forth the LAUSD SELPA option election for the remainder of the charter petition term. The Charter-operated Program schools do not have LEA status for the purposes of special education but will function in a similar role in that each charter school will be responsible for all special education requirements, including but not limited to services, placement, due process, related services, special education classes, and special education supports. Charter schools that have elected to participate in a District-operated programs option may apply for membership in the Charter-operated Program section of the SELPA. Charter schools accepted for participation in the Charter-operated Programs section receive support from a Special Education Director for the Charter-operated Programs.

Modified Consent Decree Requirements
All charter schools approved by the LAUSD Board of Education are bound by and must adhere to the terms, conditions and requirements of the Chanda Smith Modified Consent Decree (“MCD”) and other court orders imposed upon the District pertaining to special education. The MCD is a consent decree entered in a federal court class action lawsuit initially brought on behalf of students with disabilities in LAUSD. It is an agreement of the parties approved by the federal court and monitored by a court-appointed independent monitor. The MCD includes nineteen statistically measureable outcomes and facilities obligations that the District has to achieve to disengage from the MCD and federal court oversight. All charter schools are required to use the District’s Special Education Policies and Procedures Manual and Welligent, the District-wide web-based software system used for online Individualized Education Programs (“IEPs”) and tracking of related services provided to students during the course of their education.

As part of fulfilling the District’s obligations under the MCD, student level data requests from District-operated and Charter-operated charter schools are made on a regular basis. The requested data must be submitted in the Office of the Independent Monitor’s (“OIM”) required format in accordance with the OIM’s required timelines and as follows:

- End of Year Suspension
District ID, SSIS ID, last name, first name, date of birth, gender, grade, date of suspension, number of days suspended, and reason for suspension.

  The standard file including District ID.

- Norm day

  District ID, SSIS ID, last name, first name, date of birth, gender, grade, location code, school name and local district for all students enrolled on norm day.

  District ID, SSIS ID, last name, first name, date of birth, gender, grade, location code, school name and local district for all students enrolled on norm day.

  District ID, SSIS ID, last name, first name, middle name, date of birth, grade, last location, school name and local district

- Monthly SESAC and Suspension data

The MCD requires charter schools to implement the District’s integrated student information system, which is currently referred to as My Integrated Student Information System (MiSiS). MiSiS is a suite of applications which is designed to capture all District student data. All charter schools are required to utilize MiSiS directly or interface with MiSiS via a web based Application Programming Interface (API) in compliance with the requirements of the MCD and applicable timelines. Upon charter school full utilization of MiSiS either directly or via a web based API, the list of required data above will automatically be captured within MiSiS.

9. Charter School shall provide to the responsible person(s) designated by the governing board of Charter School to conduct all closure-related activities a list of students in each grade level and, for each student, a list of classes completed and the student’s district of residence.

Financial Close-Out
After receiving notification of closure, the California Department of Education (CDE) will notify Charter School and the authorizing entity of any liabilities Charter School owes the state, which may include overpayment of apportionments, unpaid revolving fund loans or grants, and/or similar liabilities. The CDE may ask the county office of education to conduct an audit of the charter school if it has reason to believe that the school received state funding for which it was not eligible.

Charter School shall ensure completion of an independent final audit within six months after the closure of Charter School that includes:
1. An accounting of all financial assets. These may include cash and accounts receivable and an inventory of property, equipment, and other items of material value.

2. An accounting of all liabilities. These may include accounts payable or reduction in apportionments due to loans, unpaid staff compensation, audit findings, or other investigations.

3. An assessment of the disposition of any restricted funds received by or due to Charter School.

This audit may serve as Charter School’s annual audit if it meets all of the requirements of the annual audit.

Charter School shall pay for the financial closeout audit of Charter School. This audit will be conducted by a neutral, independent licensed CPA who will employ generally accepted accounting principles. Any liability or debt incurred by Charter School will be the responsibility of Charter School and not LAUSD. Charter School understands and acknowledges that Charter School will cover the outstanding debts or liabilities of Charter School. Any unused monies at the time of the audit will be returned to the appropriate funding source. Charter School understands and acknowledges that only unrestricted funds will be used to pay creditors. Any unused AB 602 funds will be returned to the District SELPA or the SELPA in which Charter School participates, and other categorical funds will be returned to the source of funds.

Charter School shall ensure the completion and filing of any annual reports required. These reports include but are not necessarily limited to:

1. Preliminary budgets
2. Interim financial reports
3. Second interim financial reports
4. Final unaudited reports

These reports must be submitted to the CDE and the authorizing entity in the form required. These reports should be submitted as soon as possible after the Closure Action, but no later than the required deadline for reporting for the fiscal year.

For apportionment of categorical programs, the CDE will count the prior year average daily attendance (ADA) or enrollment data of the closed Charter School with the data of the authorizing entity. This practice will occur in the first year after the closure and will continue until CDE data collection processes reflect ADA or enrollment adjustments for all affected LEAs due to the charter closure.

Disposition of Liabilities and Assets

The closeout audit must identify the disposition of all liabilities of Charter School. Charter School closure procedures must also ensure appropriate disposal, in accordance with the District Required Language provisions in Element 11 of this Charter, Charter School’s governing board bylaws, fiscal procedures, and any other applicable laws and regulations, of any net assets remaining after all liabilities of Charter School have been paid or otherwise addressed. Such disposal includes, but is not limited to:

1. Charter School, at its cost and expense, shall return to the District any and all property, furniture, equipment, supplies, and other assets provided to Charter School by or on behalf of the District. The District discloses that the California Education Code sets forth the requirements for the disposition of the District’s personal property and Charter School shall bear responsibility and liability for any disposition in violation of statutory requirements.

2. The return of any donated materials and property in accordance with any terms and conditions set when the donations were accepted.

3. The return of any grant and restricted categorical funds to their sources according to the terms of the grant or state and federal law.

4. The submission of final expenditure reports for any entitlement grants and the filing of Final Expenditure Reports and Final Performance Reports, as appropriate.

If Charter School is operated as or by a nonprofit corporation, and if the corporation does not have any functions other than operation of Charter School, the corporation shall be dissolved according to its bylaws.

Charter School shall retain sufficient staff, as deemed appropriate by the Charter School governing board to complete all necessary tasks and procedures required to close the school and transfer records in accordance with these closure procedures.

Charter School’s governing board shall adopt a plan for wind-up of Charter School and, if necessary, the corporation, in accordance with the requirements of the Corporations Code.

Charter School shall provide LAUSD within fourteen (14) calendar days of the Closure Action with written notice of any outstanding payments due to staff and the time frame and method by which Charter School will make the payments.

Prior to final close-out, Charter School shall complete all actions required by applicable law, including but not limited to the following:

b. Make final federal tax payments (employee taxes, etc.)

c. Complete and submit all required federal and state filings and notices to the State of California, the Internal Revenue Service, and the Department of the Treasury, including but not limited to final tax returns and forms (e.g., Form 990 and related Schedules).

This Element 15 shall survive the revocation, expiration, termination, cancellation of this Charter, or any other act or event that would end Charter School’s authorization to operate as a charter school or cause Charter School to cease operation. Charter School agrees that, due to the nature of the property and activities that are the subject of this Charter, the District and public shall suffer irreparable harm should Charter School breach any obligation under this Element 15. The District therefore reserves the right to seek equitable relief to enforce any right arising under this Element 15 or any provision of this Element 15 or to prevent or cure any breach of any obligation undertaken, without in any way prejudicing any other legal remedy available to the District. Such legal relief shall include, without limitation, the seeking of a temporary or permanent injunction, restraining order, or order for specific performance, and may be sought in any appropriate court.

Additional Provisions

Facilities

Charter School shall comply with all geographic and site limitations and related requirements set forth in Education Code sections 47605.1, 47602(a), and 47605(a).

District-Owned Facilities

If Charter School is using District facilities as of the date of the submission of this charter petition or takes occupancy of District facilities prior to the approval of this charter petition, Charter School shall execute an agreement provided by the District for the use of the District facilities as a condition of the approval of the charter petition. If at any time after the approval of this charter petition Charter School will occupy and use any District facilities, Charter School shall execute an agreement provided by the District for the use of the District facilities prior to occupancy and commencing use. Charter School shall implement and otherwise comply with the terms of any and all applicable facilities use agreements between Charter School and the District.

The circumstances of Charter School’s occupancy of District facilities may change over time such as, but not limited to, enrollment, programs, and the conditions of facilities, and the District has a vested interest in having an agreement that is appropriate for the situation. For a Sole Occupant Agreement or any other use agreement that is not a Proposition 39 Single Year Co-location Use Agreement or a lease issued through the Notice of Intent and bid process, the term may be co-terminous with the approved Charter, as permitted by law. Charter School and the District shall negotiate any modifications of the agreement with the goal of such amendment or new agreement being considered by the LAUSD Board of Education with the renewal of the charter petition. If Charter School and the District cannot execute an agreement in time for such to be considered by the Board of Education with the renewal of the charter petition, the approval of the renewal of the charter petition shall be conditioned upon Charter School and the District executing an amendment to the existing use agreement or a new agreement no later than May 1st or within nine (9) months of the date of the Board of Education’s approval of the renewal of the charter petition. During such time period Charter School shall be permitted to remain in occupancy of the District facilities under the terms and conditions of the immediately preceding, executed use agreement; provided, that if Charter School and the District cannot agree upon and execute an amendment or new use agreement by said deadline, Charter School shall vacate the District facilities on or before June 30th of said school year.
Charter School acknowledges and agrees that occupancy and use of District facilities shall be in compliance with applicable laws and District policies for the operation and maintenance of District facilities and furnishings and equipment. Charter School shall comply with all District health, safety, and emergency procedures and requirements and shall be subject to inspection by the District’s Facilities Services Division, OEHS, and other District offices in the same manner as other LAUSD campuses. All District facilities (i.e., schools) will remain subject to those laws applicable to public schools.

In the event of an emergency, all District facilities (i.e., schools) are available for use by the American Red Cross and public agencies as emergency locations, which may disrupt or prevent Charter School from conducting its educational programs. If Charter School will share the use of District facilities with other District user groups, Charter School agrees that it will participate in and observe all District safety policies (e.g., emergency chain of information and participation in safety drills).

The use agreements provided by the District for District facilities shall contain terms and conditions addressing issues such as, but not limited to, the following:

- Use: Charter School will be restricted to using the District facilities for the operation of a public school providing educational instruction to public school students consistent with the terms of the Charter and incidental related uses. Separate and apart from its right as authorizer to observe and inspect any part of the charter school at any time pursuant to Education Code 47607(a)(1), the District shall have and reserves the right to inspect District facilities upon reasonable notice to Charter School.

- Furnishings and Equipment: The District shall retain ownership of any furnishings and equipment, including technology, (“F&E”) that it provides to Charter School for use. Charter School, at its sole cost and expense, shall provide maintenance and other services for the good and safe operation of the F&E.

- Leasing; Licensing: Use of the District facilities by any person or entity other than Charter School shall be administered by the District. The parties may agree to an alternative arrangement in the use agreement.

- Programs, Services, and Activities Outside Instructional Program; Third Party Vendors
  1. Any program, service, or activity provided outside the instructional program shall be subject to the terms and provisions of the use agreement, and, additionally, may require a license, permit, or additional agreement issued by the District. The term “instructional program” is defined, per Education Code section 47612 and 5 CCR section 11960, as those required educational activities that generate funding based on “average daily attendance” and includes those extracurricular programs, services, and/or activities that students are required to participate in and do not require the payment of any consideration or fee.
  2. Any program, service, or activity requiring the payment of any consideration or fee or provided by a third party vendor (defined as any person or entity other than Charter School), whether paid or volunteer and regardless of whether such may be within the instructional program, shall be subject to the terms and provisions of the use agreement and such third party vendor shall be required to obtain a license, permit, or additional agreement from the District.

• Minimum Payments or Charges to be Paid to District Arising From the Facilities:

  (i) Pro Rata Share: The District shall collect and Charter School shall pay a Pro Rata Share for facilities costs as provided in the Charter Schools Act of 1992 and its regulations. The parties may agree to an alternative arrangement regarding facilities costs in the use agreement; and

  (ii) Taxes; Assessments: Generally, Charter School shall pay any assessment or fee imposed upon or levied on the LAUSD facilities that it is occupying or Charter School’s legal or equitable interest created by the use agreement.

• Maintenance & Operations Services: In the event the District agrees to allow Charter School to perform any of the operation and maintenance services, the District shall have the right to inspect the District facilities, and the costs incurred in such inspection shall be paid by Charter School.

  (i) Co-Location: If Charter School is co-locating or sharing the District facilities with another user, the District shall provide the operations and maintenance services for the District facilities and Charter School shall pay the Pro Rata Share. The parties may agree to an alternative arrangement regarding performance of the operations and maintenance services and payment for such in the use agreement.

  (ii) Sole Occupant: If Charter School is a sole occupant of District facilities, the District shall allow Charter School, at its sole cost and expense, to provide some operations and maintenance services for the District facilities in accordance with applicable laws and LAUSD’s policies on operations and maintenance services for facilities and F&E. NOTWITHSTANDING THE FOREGOING, the District shall provide all services for regulatory inspections which as the owner of the real property it is required to submit, and deferred maintenance, and Charter School shall pay LAUSD for the cost and expense of providing those services. The parties may agree to an alternative arrangement regarding performance of the operations and maintenance services and payment for such services in the use agreement.

• Real Property Insurance: Prior to occupancy, Charter School shall satisfy requirements to participate in LAUSD’s property insurance or, if Charter School is the sole occupant of LAUSD facilities, obtain and maintain separate property insurance for the LAUSD facilities. Charter School shall not have the option of obtaining and maintaining separate property insurance for the LAUSD facility IF Charter School is co-locating or sharing the LAUSD facility with another user.
Non-District-Owned Facilities

Occupancy and Use of the Site: Prior to occupancy or use of any school site or facility, Charter School shall provide the CSD with a current Certificate of Occupancy or equivalent document issued by the applicable permitting agency that allows Charter School to use and occupy the site as a charter school. Charter School shall not exceed the operating capacity of the site and shall operate within any limitations or requirements provided by the Certificate of Occupancy and any applicable permit. Prior to occupancy or use of any such additional or changed school site, Charter School shall provide an appropriate Certificate of Occupancy to the CSD for such facility. Notwithstanding any language to the contrary in this Charter, the interpretation, application, and enforcement of this provision are not subject to the Dispute Resolution Process outlined in Element 14.

Facility Compliance: Prior to occupancy or use of any non-District-owned school site and/or facility, Charter School shall ensure that the site and/or facility complies with all applicable building codes, standards and regulations adopted by the city and/or county agencies responsible for building and safety standards for the city in which Charter School is to be located, federal and state accessibility requirements (including the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Section 504), and all other applicable fire, health, and structural safety and access requirements. This requirement shall also apply to the construction, reconstruction, alteration of or addition to the facility. Charter School shall resolve in a timely manner any and all corrective actions, orders to comply, and notices issued by any authorized building and safety agency. Charter School cannot exempt itself from applicable building and zoning codes, ordinances, and ADA/Section 504 requirements. Charter School shall maintain on file readily accessible records that document facilities compliance and shall promptly provide such documentation to the CSD upon request.
